

NEWS AND NOTES.

LET THE WOMEN SPEAK.

Mrs. A Sampson, 208 Bennington St., East Boston, writes: "I had been afflicted with dyspepsia for the last four years, was so bad that I did not dare to eat as it caused me terrible pain. Hearing of K. D. C I procured a package. It gave me almost immediate relief. One package cured me. I have not been so well for a number of years. I cheerfully recommend it, and feel justified in saying that dyspeptics; who can get this medicine have no excuse for suffering.

There is an exceedingly able woman in Boston who can report a speech delivered rapidly in German. She first translating the speech into English and then recording it in stenographic characters. Such celerity of thought is only approached by the tradition respecting Kossuth, who is said to have thought in Hungarian, translated into Latin and retranslated and uttered at a rapid rate the choicest English, born of a study of the Bible and Shakespeare.

DEAFNESS.

An essay describing a really genuine Cure for Deafness, Singing in the Ears, &c., no matter how severe or long-standing, will be sent post free. Artificial Ear-drums and similar appliances entirely superseded.

Address THOMAS KEMPE, Victoria Chambers, 19, Southampton Buildings, Holborn, London.

Where a desirable reform has to be made in the opinions of most, then it must be made in the growing organism of morals, not in the casting of law; in the proof-sheets of ethics, not in the stereotype of legality.—W. Schooling.

Take K. D. C. after late suppers, if you would sleep well.

Why We are Churchmen

SEVEN PLAIN REASONS.

BY A. L. OLDHAM, M.A., Prebendary of Hereford, Rector of St. Leonard's, Bridgenorth, and Rural Dean.

We know of several works calculated to strengthen men in their Churchmanship to induce Dissenters, where not too narrow or too prejudiced, to become Church people. Amongst these might be mentioned at least two such works published in America, which, we fancy, must be having great influence for good in addition to the Church of America, and their system of Sunday-school teaching cannot fail to do great things for the coming generation. We must, however, place the work by Mr. Oldham amongst the very best of the many works on this subject that have been published. It is a convincing book, and done in a straightforward, manly, Christian spirit. We greatly desire that thoughtful religious Dissenters would study it, and would try, as they read it, to answer it. We wish that the truth only may prevail, and are sure that it will not prevail through the Church being other than Christ intended it to be, in spirit and heart and actual exhibit before the world. The few quotations contained in it are of a powerful character, and are themselves deserving of much thought. We can hardly understand a conscientious man or woman amongst Dissenters who will not honestly consider this work and not seek, after prayer and thought, the unity of the Anglican communion. Anticipating the 25th, we suggest that it might be given as a prize in many of our schools. In our kindliness of feeling, however, we especially and very strongly advise thoughtful men and women amongst Dissenters to study it. Published in London, Kegan Paul & Co., 1894. Price 2s. 6d.
