"WASHED AWAY AT ST. LEON."

Had Sciatica and Rheumatism very bad for over a year; pains day and night; could not rest or sleep; often confined to bed. Tried everything I could find, but got no relief. Went to St. Leon Springs and got the disease Washed Clean Away. That was two years ago, and have never had a twitch of the trouble since.

MR. ERASTUS WIMAN.

In this sturdy figure we have perhaps the best known example of the "self-made" Canadian. Erastus Wiman began life in a very humble way in a West Ontario village. While still a youngster he became a resident of Toronto, where he made his first public appearance as a newsboy. He subsequently obtained employment in the Globe office, where he shortly rose to the dignity of commercial reporter. He left the Globe to take a position in a commercial agency, and took up his residence in New York. He has lived in that city for nearly thirty years, and by dint of energy and enterprise has become very wealthy. He is best known abroad, however, as the leading advocate of free commercial relations between Canada and the States, a cause to which he has given time and money in the most generous fashion. For these labors he is by some regarded as a "traitor," but by many more as a disinterested patriot. It is consoling to know that the future historian will do Mr. Wiman justice in settling the question.
