

In a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association, the following statement was made: "The medical profession has a duty to the public to maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct and to report any violations to the appropriate authorities."

One of the most important aspects of this duty is the requirement that physicians report any suspected cases of child abuse to the appropriate authorities.

General: The following information is for your information only. It is not intended to be used as a basis for any legal action. The information is for your information only.