

2. The terms of reference for consultations held pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Article shall be:
 - (a) to keep under review the possibility of broadening this Agreement;
 - (b) to consider matters affecting trade and commerce between Canada and the Republic of Estonia;
 - (c) to exchange information and views on matters that might adversely affect either Party's existing levels or future development of trade;
 - (d) to review multilateral trade matters of common interest; and
 - (e) to review progress towards expanding bilateral trade, and to examine, where appropriate, proposals designed to encourage further growth in trade or to overcome hindrances to such growth.
3. Consultations pursuant to this Article may be initiated at the request of either Party on reasonable notice to the other Party.
4. The location of meetings held pursuant to the present Article shall alternate between Canada and the Republic of Estonia unless the Parties agree otherwise. A representative of each Party shall lead that Party's delegation to such meetings. Each meeting shall be chaired by a representative of the host Party.

ARTICLE XV

ENTRY INTO FORCE, TERM AND TERMINATION

1. For the purpose of the entry into force of this Agreement, the Parties will inform each other by an exchange of notes that their respective legal requirements have been completed. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of notes or, in the event that the exchange of notes does not take place on the same day, on the date of the last note.
2. On the entry into force of this Agreement, the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between the United Kingdom and Estonia signed at Tallinn on January 18, 1926, certain provisions of which were extended to trade relations between Canada and the Republic of Estonia on
