

the funding provisions that apparently will be undertaken starting from April 1, 1987.

I want to emphasize that the committee sent to the Standing Committee on Internal Economy, Budgets and Administration, a budget providing for enough funding to undertake that study.

I take this opportunity to call the attention of honourable senators to the fact that, thanks to the former chairman and in particular Senators Everett and Doody, the committee on National Finance always fulfills its mandate with very modest financial support. It has managed its meagre budget in a most satisfactory way. It will continue in that splendid tradition.

Motion agreed to.

The Senate adjourned until Tuesday, October 1, 1985, at 2 p.m.
