December 14th, 1932.

Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal, McGill University,
Montreal, Que.

Dear Sir Arthur:

Following my letter of December 13th, 1932, I beg to give you a report on the meeting of the Students' Executive Council, held on December 13th in the McGill Union.

We had present with us at this meeting Mr. George McDonald, Mr. John Jeakins, Professor Jamieson and Mr. Alex. Edmison of the Advisory Board of the Students' Council, who remained with us for a considerable length of time.

The President of the Students' Society had, during the course of the day, received resignations from the "McGill Daily" Managing Board, Mr. Talbot, Mr. Crown and Mr. Rowat. These resignations and the whole situation were discussed very freely and frankly with the Advisory Board, and after their departure we had a long conference with Mr. Rowat of the suspended Managing Board of the "McGill Daily". Both sides of the question were discussed with him and there seems to be a very evident desire on the part of both the Students' Council and the "McGill Daily", as represented by Mr. Rowat, to have the dispute finally settled.

It was then moved, seconded and duly carried that this Council terminate the suspension of the Managing Board of the "McGill Daily", duly passed on Wednesday, December 7th, 1932. It was then moved, seconded and duly carried that the resignations of Mr. Talbot, as Editor-in-Chief of the "McGill Daily", Mr. Crown as News Editor, and Mr. Rowat as Managing Editor, be accepted.
