November 24th, 1920.

Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., LL.D.,
Principal McGill University,
Montreal.

Sir:-

We would deem it a great honour if you, as Principal of McGill, could arrange to address our Society next Tuesday evening, the 30th instant.

The Commercial Society is the official undergraduate organization of the School of Commerce, and as such we wish to make it the most flourishing club in the University. Our aims are to bring the student body into close contact with each other and to arouse a greater interest in the course by the study and discussion of relative matter which will be both interesting and educational. We have endeavoured in the past to carry out these aims, and have had outside speakers address our Society at the different meetings. In this way we are gradually bringing before the public the growing importance of Faculties of Commerce.

It is the desire of the Executive to introduce the Commerce students to the Principal of their University at the first opportunity, and we sincerely hope that you will be able to render us this favor. If you will be unable to attend will you kindly let me know when it will be convenient for you to do so.

I have the honour to be Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Areta E. Dougall

Secretary.
