

CHAPTER XI.

- En Route for Niagara—Bethlehem—Valleys of Lehigh, Susquehanna, and Wyoming—Maunch Chunk, the Switzerland of America—Mount Pisgah—The Classic Valley of Wyoming—Arrival at the Falls, . . . 135-146

CHAPTER XII.

- Niagara—First View of the Falls—Varied Estimate of their Extent—Best Points for a View—Table Rock at Clifton—Vessel over the Falls—River Niagara—"Maid of the Mist"—A Daring Run—New and Old Bridges—Goat Island—Whirlpool Rapids—Indians' Veneration for the Falls—The Museum of Indian Work in Niagara—The Falls at Night, . . . 147-172

CHAPTER XIII.

- En Route for the Capital of Upper Canada—Travelling Economy—Lewiston—Fort Niagara—Lake Ontario—Arrival at Toronto—Great Trunk Railway; Its Plant and Cars, Station and Offices, and Communications, . 173-185

CHAPTER XIV.

- Berlin, Upper Canada—Evening—Church in the Far West—A Meeting—Rehearsal—A City in a Wood, and a Wooden City—Its Inhabitants and Commodities—Its Morals, and Felicitous Social Conditions—Genial Civic Magnate and Scotch Relation—A Run Across the Country to Ayr, . . . 186-199

CHAPTER XV.

- Guelph during the Holidays—When Planted, and by Whom—Agricultural Fairs—Conduct of the People—Muscular Christianity—Philosophy of Sobriety—Visit to Waterloo—Inspiring Influences of the Atmosphere, . . . 200-215

CHAPTER XVI.

- Toronto, its Position—"The Queen's"—The City and its Sights—Business Places—Its Architecture—Post Office—Osgood Hall—Law Courts—Queen's Park—Indian Temple of Apollo—The Queen's again—The Hon. Alexander Mackenzie on the Scottish Scandal—The Lake of a Thousand Islands—The Rapids—Night—Arrival at the City of Montreal, . . . 216-229