

SECTION 4.

THE GERMAN CONTROVERSY.

Reformation of religion, 23—Menno Simon, a native of Friesland, 24—The novel tenet of his followers, 25—The Anabaptists of Munster, 25—Matthias and Beukels, 26—Their outrages at Munster, 27—Their capture and execution, 28—The overthrow of Munster put an end to this wild fanaticism, 28—Luther and other Reformers, 29—Two important conclusions deducible from these transactions, 30—General observations on them, 32.

SECTION 5.

THE CONTROVERSY IN ENGLAND.

Anabaptists in the reign of Henry VIII. 34—Their treatment, 34—Dutch Anabaptists in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, 36—Their treatment, 37—Their re-appearance in the reign of James I. 38—Their political conduct during the Protectorate of Cromwell, 38—Penal laws abrogated by James II. 39—John Bunyan 41—Rev. T. Dorrington, 41—Rev. Mr. Wall 42—Dr. Gale, 42—Mr. Booth, 43—Dr. Williams, 43—General remarks on the English Baptismal controversy, 44—Lists of writers on both sides, 46.

SECTION 6.

THE CONTROVERSY IN AMERICA.

The circumstances of a new country favorable to Anabaptist principles, 47—This one reason for their prevalence, 49—The American mode of conducting the controversy, 50—The American baptists undervalue human acquirements. 52—Professor Stuart of Andover, 53—William Elder, 53—E. Crawley, 54—General observations on the Nova Scotia controversy, 54.

CHAPTER II.

SCRIPTURE EVIDENCE FOR BAPTISM.

SECTION I.

PASSAGES FROM THE OLD TESTAMENT WHICH MENTION
THE USE OF WATER AS A MEANS OF SPIRITUAL PURIFICATION.

Origin of the use of water as a seal of repentance, 56—It was familiar to the people in the time of John the Baptist, 58—