

BOOKS printed for J. ALMON.

There is now, and for some Time past has been, preparing for the Press.

An Account of the Debates and Proceedings of the House of LORDS from 1742; at which Time, the Collection of Debates of Lords and Commons, known by the Name of Chandler's Collection, ceases; and to which, this Collection of Lords and Commons is offered as a CONTINUATION, to the Dissolution in 1774.

As it is not known that any Account of the Proceedings of the House of Lords during this Period, was taken, it is humbly requested of any Gentleman, who may be in Possession of any Speeches, Papers, or other Materials, proper for this Work, that he will be so obliging to communicate them to the Publisher, who will make any Compensation, if required.

A new Essay on the Constitutional Power of Great Britain over the Colonies in America. By the Pennsylvanian Farmer. 2s.

Letters from a Farmer in Pennsylvania, to the Inhabitants of the British Colonies. 2s.

A Collection of Tracts on the Subjects of taxing the British Colonies in America, and regulating their Trade. Four Volumes Octavo, one Guinea, half bound and lettered.

††† In this Collection are included; among many others, the Lords Protests against repealing the Stamp Act. Mr. Dulaney's Considerations. Mr. Dickenson's Regulations. Mr. Otis's Vindication of the Colonies. The True Sentiments of America. The Conduct of the Administration. Authentic Account of the Congress held at New York in 1765. Two Papers on the subject of taxing the Colonies. The Controversy between Great-Britain and America reviewed. Letters to the Earl of Hillsborough.

A Collection of interesting Political Tracts; published in London during the last ten Years, on the most important subjects. Eight Volumes Octavo, two Guineas, half bound and lettered.

 In this Collection are contained, among other valuable Tracts, the Letters on Libels. Lord Somers on Grand Juries. Trial of Zenger. Principles of the Changes in 1765.