British Rugby

At the general meeting of the British Rugby Football Union at the Carls-Rite Hotel with the union's president, Charles Meach, in the chair, it was discussed whether it was possible, under present conditions, to arrange a program of spring fixtures. A series of fixtures, or mixed games, may be arranged so as to keep the game alive as much as possible consistent with the times, through which we are passing. It is intended at an early date to arrange an exhibition game between the British Rugby men and the exhibition team of the present club, a team picked from the present club under the union and toward that end will all the playing members of the Irish, Scotch, North, West, Overseas and Welsh attend a practice at Riverdale park at 3 o'clock today.

The next item on the agenda was the election of the union's officers for the coming season as follows: President, Charles Meach, re-elected with musical honors; J. H. Thomas elected to the dual office of secretary and treasurer; the union's auditors, Messrs. Williams and Arnold; official referees, Messrs. Penny and Andrews. The respective clubs elected their representatives on the union's executive as follows: North, O. Olsen; West, R. Howell; Irish, W. T. Freeman; Overseas, E. Baker; Scotch, T. Jack, and Welsh, O. H. Williams.

The team picked to oppose the soldiers' side is as follows: Full back, Percy Davis; three-quarters, O. Olsen, Arnold, H. J. Hilliard, B. P. Young; halves, J. Thomas, E. Hilliard; forwards, Dick Stubbs, Benson, A. B. Harris, Turner, and W. Fowler. Reserves Three-quarters, H. Face, W. T. Freeman, R. H. Glenn; half-back, H. Hodgson; forwards, D. A. Harris and G. Ray.

At the conclusion of the meeting the president entertained the members. The secretary and treasurer was empowered to secure all the union's property and funds, after which the meeting, which was most enthusiastic and harmonious, terminated with a vote of thanks to the president for presiding.

All the club members will turn out in full force at Riverdale Park at 3 p.m. today.

The following players are requested to turn out with the champion Partridge Club at Perth square this afternoon: Gibson, Lang, Jones, Redingfield, P. Emmett, A. Kennedy, E. Emmett, C. Brown, Wood, N. Woods, and new players will be given a trial by the manager.

HOTEL TECK WILL OPEN DOORS TODAY

Well-Known English Chop House Has Undergone Complete Remodeling.

Today the Hotel Teck, formerly the English Chop House, 30 King street west, is to make its bow to the public as a high-class restaurant and buffet, which for costly fittings and up-to-date equipment will challenge comparison with anything in the city. Under the direction of C. E. Hoshal, manager, the well-known hostelry has undergone complete remodeling from top to bottom, and those who take advantage of the invitation to inspect will find an establishment which leaves nothing to be desired in the way of completeness. The ground floor interior leading back to the business men's buffet has been walled with Breche Pavonza Italian marble in a manner which gives the whole interior a most unique and dignified appearance.

The buffet itself is decorated in the Elizabethan style with Jacobean furniture and with subtle lighting makes a very attractive and inviting room. The ground floor, however, is only 22 feet high, and the main dining-room above, here the interior decoration is carried out in mahogany, red and white enamel, which adds quite a bright touch of cheer.

The cuisine and kitchen equipment is all newly installed and Manager Hoshal has seen to it that the menu will be prepared by skilled chefs, who know that patrons appreciate variety in good cooking.
