REVOLT, FAMINE AND ANARCHY
HOLD GERMANY IN THEIR GRIP

Revolution is Spreading Fast and City After City Has Joined the Rebels---Fleet Has Hoisted the Red Flag---Kaiser and Crown Prince Fugitives to Holland

ARMISTICE COURIER DELAYED BY GERMAN BATTERIES FIRE
REVOLUTION SPREADING FAST TO ALL CENTRES OF GERMANY

Airplane Was Ready to Convey Emissary, But at Last Order Came to Stop Firing and He Started.

London, Nov. 10.—The German courier, bearing the text of the armistice conditions, arrived at German headquarters at 10 o'clock this morning, according to the official announcement from Paris.

On Saturday morning the German delegates suggested that the courier's mission might be attempted by airplane.

"We grant free passage to the French airplane bringing our courier. We are issuing orders that it shall not be attacked by any of our machines.

Airplane Was Ready. The orders from the German headquarters staff, however, were imperative as regarded the courier.

German headquarters was notified of his departure and informed that he might be expected to arrive in the evening.

COUNT OF REVENTLOW REFUGEE TO DENMARK

London, Nov. 10.—Count von Reventlow, whose pan-German writings have appeared during the war in The Tages Zeitung of Berlin, has fled to Denmark.

The Casting Out of the Dynasties. Saturday and Sunday were big with events concerning the abdication of the crowned heads of Europe.

Five hundred wounded and convalescent soldiers will take part in the big parade today if they can get there.

That was the grand exposure that had come to him and his pretensions. The All-Highest was fleeing for his life to a neutral country!

And that other humbug, that joke in office, the crown prince, had his palace taken over by the people of Berlin.

It is rumoured all over Germany that the expense of the Kaiser's first-born and his joke-in-office of a boy, who also got to Holland and a temporary asylum.

And all thru Germany and Austria and the Balkans kings and kinglets, grand dukes and little dukes, nobles and auto-crats were fleeing for their lives.

It would look as if a mighty clean-up in this direction was under way. Europe knows now how the ambitious and plots of dynasties were at the bottom of this scourge of war that has desolated Europe.

The king, even to the United States! The king, even to the United States! The king, even to the United States!

VESSELS FLYING THE RED FLAG
Six More Cruisers Have Arrived at Hamburg, and Guard Ships Revolt.

Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—Six more cruisers flying the red flag arrived at Hamburg last night, says a Wolff News Agency despatch received here.

Sonderburg is in the hands of the revolutionists and the red flag has been raised on ships there.

Sonderburg is situated on the Island of Aleson, Schleswig. It is 13 miles northeast of Flensburg. It has a population of 5000.

German guard vessels in the mine fields off the great belt and little belt have left their stations.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT MADE ON PRINCE HENRY'S LIFE

Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—Another attempt on the life of Prince Henry of Prussia has been made at Flensburg where he was in seclusion in a villa.

Prince Henry, brother of the former emperor, was attacked by marines while fleeing from Kiel in an automobile flying a red flag on Wednesday last.

WORKING GIRL SHOWS SPIRIT
An eighteen-year-old girl working in an office downtown told a canvasser that with her present salary she could not buy a $50 bond and support herself.

WILL YOU HELP?
Five hundred wounded and convalescent soldiers will take part in the big parade today if they can get there.

THE REAL SPIRIT!
Twenty-five girls getting only $6 a week in a factory up town each bought a $50 bond.

Washington Believes Foch Will Still Accept Envoys' Signatures and May Delay a Few Hours.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Red revolution in Germany upon the heels of the abdication and flight of the Kaiser apparently is accomplishing the unexpected by throwing the country into the hands of a workmen's and soldiers' regime without impairing the credentials of the armistice envoys waiting within the allied lines.

The prevailing view here tonight is that General Foch will accept the signatures of the envoys to the document that would end the war, if they desire to sign on instructions from Berlin great headquarters before the expiration of the time limit—11 o'clock tomorrow morning, French time (6 a.m. Washington time).

Dreadnoughts Join
Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—The crews of the German dreadnoughts Posen, Ostfriesland, Nassau and Oldenburg, in Kiel harbor, have joined the revolution. Marines occupied the lock gates at Ostmoor and fought down a coast artillery division which offered resistance.

London, Nov. 10.—According to despatches from Amsterdam and Copenhagen, the revolution in Germany is extending rapidly, but in most places the desired effect is being achieved without violence or serious disorders.

In some places, notably in Anhalt, Hesse-Darmstadt and Mecklenburg-Schwerin, the princely houses are cooperating with the reforming parties in establishing a new order of things.

Up to the present the most serious conflict has taken place in Kiel. The soldiers' and workmen's councils in most of the large cities appear to be devoting their first efforts to organizing the food supplies, foreseeing that any lack of provision in this respect will prove a fruitful source of disorder.

Complaints already have been heard in Berlin that the press censorship is being exercised as arbitrarily by the new as by the old regime.

How far the example of the Russian Bolshevik influenced the German upheaval is an interesting question. Some German newspapers as late as Friday described the movement as Bolshevikism.

Red flags figured frequently in the various risings, and Chancellor Friedrich Ebert's motor car floats the international emblem. The shoulder straps were torn from the uniforms of officers in a number of cities, and even the soldiers' insignia were stripped from them.

Abolish All German Dynasties. Amsterdam, Nov. 10.—Among the latest towns to come under the control of the workmen's and soldiers' councils are Aix-la-Chapelle, Cassel, Nuremberg, Mannheim, Gladbach and Muenster. A general strike has been proclaimed at Nuremberg and Mannheim.

Order has been restored at Hamburg, where the police have been permitted to resume their duties under the direction of the workmen's and soldiers' council, and places of public amusement have been reopened.

At Cologne the whole garrison sided with the workers' council, whose program included, according to The Cologne Gazette, the abolition of all German dynasties, the annulment of war loans, with special consideration for the subscribers from the poorer classes, the liberation of all political prisoners and the abolition of saluting.

The military and civil prisoners in Cologne are in the hands of the council, and already all the prisoners have been released. The majority and minority sections of the Socialists have been fused.

Among the incidents of the revolution is the renunciation by the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar and his family of the right of exemption from taxation.

At Lubeck a lawyer was charged with treason because he acted without authority from the workmen's and soldiers' council in liberating prisoners.

The Berlin Vossische Zeitung and Vorwaerts confirm the fact that the inception of the revolution at Kiel was mistaken for the idea that a cruise had been ordered and that it was intended to give battle to the British fleet.

Red Flag Hoisted Everywhere. Geneva, Nov. 10.—Reports received from Germany describe the revolution as continuing quietly in the principal towns and ports, which are now ruled by the soviet, consisting of workmen, soldiers and sailors. The red flag has been hoisted everywhere, even above the Cologne Cathedral.

The Socialists, according to the report, are demanding that every dynasty in Germany be suppressed and all the princes exiled. It is reported that the kings of Bavaria and Saxony intend to abdicate shortly.

The populations in the south German states are delighted over the abdication of the Kaiser. There has been public rejoicing near the Swiss frontier and also in Alsace-Lorraine.

Basle, Switzerland, Nov. 10.—An official despatch received by the Havas Agency from Berlin today says: "The revolution has resulted in a striking victory almost without the effusion of blood."

"A general strike was declared this morning. It brought a cessation of work in all workshops at about 10 o'clock."

"A regiment of Nuremberg chasseurs passed over to the people. Other troops rapidly followed their action."

"The Alexander regiment, after hearing a declaration by Deputy Wells, went over to the revolution."

The Red Flag at Essen. London, Nov. 10.—Essen, where the great Krupp steel works are situated, is reported to be in the hands of the revolutionaries, says a despatch from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph Co.

Lieut. Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach, the head of the Krupp works, and his wife, have been arrested.

In Most Places It is Being Achieved Without Serious Disorders ---Bitter Conflict at Kiel---Organizing Food Supplies First Efforts of Workmen's and Soldiers' Committees.

Stockholm and all the guard ships in the Baltic have joined the revolutionary movement.

MORE ROYALTIES EXPECTED. Geneva, Nov. 10.—It is reported here that William Hohenzollern may come to the chateau of his friend, Baron von Kietz, at Zug, 13 miles northeast of Lucerne.

The first member of the Austrian royalty has arrived in Switzerland with an Italian permit. He is the Duke of Braganza. He has reached Samaden, near St. Moritz. Additional members of the royal family are expected.

CROSSED FRONTIER SUNDAY. London, Nov. 10.—Both the former German emperor and his eldest son, Frederick William, crossed the Dutch frontier Sunday morning, according to advices from The Hague.

Chatting with members of the staff, the former emperor, the correspondent says, did not look in the least distressed. A few minutes later an imperial train, including restaurant and sleeping cars, ran into the station. Only the servants were aboard.

The engine returned to Vlis, Belgium.
