With about 1500 cattle on the market yesterday, trading for the most part was steady. The buyers' preference was for cowboys holding steady enough, but the close a good many cattle were left on the stockyard premises to be taken care of on today's market. There was little sign of a price rally, ranging the way from $13 and $13.25 for a cow load for the butcher and $11 and $11.25 for a cow and calf and $11 and $12 per cwt.

 At J. Atwell said there was a better quality of stock on sale at the fair than at any other time and for this class of cattle the market was relatively steady to strong, in the early part of last week.
 At times there was more or less of a decline.
