on the Skeeters' side and bunched hits, the visitors eventually won the game.

Jersey City notched a country in the indial limings, while Toronto scored three in the fourth, when Thoney and Flood singled, the former reaching third on the last safety. Flood pilfered the middle customers and Kelley's pass filled the bases. Thomey scored on Phyle's drive to Hanford, while Wotell drove a hot one at Kelster, whose father to handle, scored Flood and Kelley. Wiedensaul hit into a double.

Toronto added one in the fifth on Frick's life on Bean's error and McGinley's drive for three sacks. Jersey City counted one in the seventh, eighth and ninth, while the visitors tallied one in the last innings on Frick's safety, a sacrifice, McGinley's out and Ffanmiller's wild throw.

Aften the game Umpire Owens was assaulted in his dressing room by Jerry Saillivan. a Jersey City alderman. Without warning Sullivan struck the official on the back of the head. Owens fell to the fice.
