"THE GIRL WITH 1,000 EYES" IN SPECIAL EXHIBITIONS TODAY

Leona La Mar Will Hold Matinee Receptions on Stage at Grand.

Leona La Mar, "The Girl With a Thousand Eyes," who is the headline vaudeville feature at the Grand all this week, will today give the first of a series of special matinee performances. At today's matinee, Miss La Mar will hold a reception on the stage, at which performance patrons may ask Miss La Mar questions pertaining to business or private life. This performance is given for the benefit of those who prefer to have their questions answered in private rather than within hearing of the audience.

Other acts on today's bill are: The Archie Nicholson Duo, who will entertain themselves musical comedians. They have an act that will surely compensate anyone who is looking for real enjoyment. From an extensive repertoire of instrumental numbers, they render selections on the trombone, saxophone, cornet and clarinet.

McCarthy and Steward will offer "Two Beds," a comedy skit that forsakes the beaten path of playlets. Its offering of verses and action leads one to doubly appreciate the merit and humor. Faber and Taylor will present a delightful singing, talking and dancing number under the title of "Going North."

Carl Gardeller and Pal, offering a most original talking and comedy number, will also be a big feature on today's bill.

Bert Lyttell in "Blackie's Redemption," "Blackie's Redemption," the gripping story of a reformed crook, in which Bert Lyttell enacts the leading role, will be shown at the Grand today for the last time.

The plot shows how Blackie, tired of his lawless life, tries to reform, but is prevented by the underworld. He is then sent to prison. How he escapes and returns to the world and the gripping series of incidents which go to make a production of unusual strength and appeal. The climax and big surprise of the play comes when the warden, who finds Blackie in Mary's house, decides that she is more entitled to the man she loves than the law is, and leaves them to their interrupted happiness.

The Grand topical review completes the bill.

DOROTHY DALTON IN "THE HOME-BREAKER" AT MAJESTIC TODAY

Entertaining Photoplay Gives Popular Star One of Her Best Roles.

Dorothy Dalton, who has delighted millions of screen patrons with her remarkably vivid characterizations, returns to the Majestic today and Thursday, in a new Paramount picture, "The Home-Breaker," which is said to be one of the most sprightly and entertaining stories of Miss Dalton's career. Miss Dalton plays the part of an energetic, successful and somewhat cynical traveling salesman, and succeeds in introducing a distinctive note of comedy in a swiftly moving drama of heart interest.

"The Home-Breaker," tells how Miss Dalton, as Mary Marbury, succeeds in unmasking two clever crooks who have laid a trap for the son and daughter of her employer. She not only leads the two a merry chase, but induces the father to forsake his sedentary ways for a life of gaiety as a part of her scheme, to readjust the viewpoint of the son and daughter. The story fairly sparkles with wit and fast action, at which the Paramount star is a past master, and should provide the public with some of the most pleasing screen entertainment they have had in a long time.

LOTS OF THRILLS IN TOM MIX'S NEWEST
PLAY AT PATRICIA

"Hell Roarin' Reform" Showing Today For Last Time.

Tom Mix, the cowboy star of the William Fox pictures, is at his best in "Hell Roarin' Reform," his latest production, which will be shown at the Patricia for the last time today. The audience, accustomed to seeing this daring horseman do all sorts of unusual and daring stunts, howled with delight when they saw him mounted, leap his horse over a building to the roof of another, and plunge through the roof.

This one stunt is enough to make "Hell Roarin' Reform" a great picture, but it is filled with such things as the story, too, is a good one. Mix takes the place of a preacher, who has been driven out of town by outlaws, and brings them to realization of righteousness through the media of fast-talking six-shooters.

VACANT GARDENING LOTS AT PREMIUM IN LONDON

While there are fewer applicants than last year for vacant lots for gardening purposes, ground, nevertheless, is at a premium, and in wards 1 and 2 particularly, Alderman L. S. Holmes and Alderman W. A. Wilson are having troubles of their own in finding a place for everybody who wants to help along food production.

The revival of real estate and the rush of people to the city at the war-time legislation still holds good, that land being used for other purposes, should be appropriated for growing food.

Rumors came in of keen rivalry over gardening, some choice lots have been almost responsible for dual behavior. Given good weather the vacant lot crop in London this year promises to be a fourfold one.

THE HIGHLAND INN.

This comfortable and popular hotel situated on Cache Lake, Algonquin Park, will open for the reception of guests on June 1st. The Inn is operated by the Grand Trunk Railway and offers most desirable accommodations at reasonable rates.
