

friend of the Bible to give more liberally to this noble cause. The sum raised should be much larger than it is for so worthy an object.

That the Lord may bless and prosper the work of Bible distribution is the earnest prayer of your Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE CUMBERLAND BRANCH BIBLE SOCIETY FOR 1863.

In appearing before the friends and supporters of the Bible cause in another annual meeting we cannot be insensible to the solemn and responsible nature of the trust you reposed in us one year ago; and in surrendering up our trust now that our term of office has expired, your Committee, though they are conscious of having not been altogether inactive, yet perhaps more might have been done had we had more leisure at our disposal and more freedom from our individual business engagements. We have been highly honoured with a great trust, and one the full development of which we look upon as of great importance to the
