This morning at 9 o'clock an advance guard of fifty men under Capt. Blanchaford and Lieut. Holland left for Niagara, and they will have the camp ready for the main body. They went down by the T.H. and B. and were also accompanied by Quarter-master Lieut. Winter and his serwith most of the wheat and oats thrugeant, the both of these officers will return tomorrow night. On Wednesdal morning the battalion will parade at 9.30 and proceed to the

T.H. and B. station, where they will embark on two trains at 9.45 and 9.55. They will reach Niagara about noon. The battalion will leave behind an engineering corps of 25 men, under one officer, who will take down the bunks at the armories and store them away ,so that if a battalion is quartered here next winter they can be used

Close Up Hospital.

The Y. M. C. A. marquee will also go to Niagara, and John MacNab, who is in charge, wants local sporting men to contribute some baseballs, bats, footballs, etc., for them. The departure of the 36th Battalion will mean the closing of the military hospital in the old Gore Street Church, and the equipment and the bads will hospital in the old Gore Street Church, and the equipment and the beds will likely be transferred to Niagara. It is possible that the hospital will be closed up and the stationary institution at Niagara considered sufficient. The local military hospital is managed by officers of the Field Ambulance Corps and orderlies from the 36th. The last mentioned will of course go to Niagara.

Ernest Taylor, the well-known Italian interpreter, this morning stated that Italians of this city are waiting momentarly for news from their native land. Many who have served in the army are preparing to return of the city are waiting to return army are preparing to return altho they have not been officially notified they have not been officially notified to do so as yet. He states that there is a great feeling of optimism among the Italians and that should their country declare war on Germany and Austria the decision will be a popular one. The fact of Italy entering the war it is generally supposed will shorten hostilities, and the men now in Hamilton and elsewhere in Canada may not be needed in the old land.

GERMANY ABLE TO CALL TWO MILLION MORE MEN

Berlin Considers Half Million Will Be Sufficient to Cope With Italy

LONDON, May 22.—The Copenha-cen corespondent of The Daily Mail says he has learned from an authoritative Berlin source that Germany is about to call up two million more men. Berlin official circles, he states, believe that an army of half a million will be sufficient to cope with Italy. The Osservatore Romano, the Vatican organ, in an editorial, urges a comete union of all Italians and a truce o political passions. It expresses the hope that Italy may be spared the horrors of a long war and that peace soon will be established.

Otter at Fort Henry.

Gen. W. D. Otter made an investigation at Fort Henry this morning in the affair there about a month ago in which several of the prisoners were wounded. He also made enquiries about Luis Husser, who, it is expected, will shortly be granted his release. Husser, it is learned, refused to accept a parole when it was offered and is demanding his unconditional release.

S. H. Mudheim, general manager of the Cement Products Company, Quebec, arrived at the fort Friday night. It is understood that he is being held responsible for the erection of a mysterious cement gun foundation that was discovered on the Island of Orleans last year by soldiers. The cement works is on this island.
