FINES STRUCK IN THREE AUTO CASES

Magistrate Ritchie disposed of three bye-law cases this morning. In the case of Captain L. M. Curran, M. D., reported for exceeding the speed limit in Douglas avenue, the court found that there was no exception for a physician. A fine of $25 was struck and $10 collected. The same penalty was meted out to William G. Dunn and H. FitzRandolph, reported by special constables for like violation.

Frank Bansaaw, a driver for J. S. Gibson & Company, reported for allowing his horse to stand without a foot strap, was fined but the fine was allowed to stand as Mr. Gibson explained that he had a special permission for this team from the commissioner of public safety to leave it without a foot strap. The team was used solely for delivering charcoal to small grocery stores. The magistrate remarked that a few years ago there were only about twenty autos in the city, today there were about 2,000 registered in the city and county. This big increase necessitated the enforcement of the laws and the police were only doing their duty for the welfare of the public at large.

VERY LARGE GAIN

The St. John bank clearings for the week ending today amounted to $1,784,864. Corresponding week last year, $1,801,200.

VISIT FROM MOOSE

This morning about 6:30 o'clock a large bull moose appeared on the brow of Moore's Hill, Manawagonish road, and before surprised residents could get a rifle, the big animal walked sedately down the road stopping to get a better view of several of the houses and finally turned into the grounds of John Sims. After a short stay there, Mr. Moose came out again, walked back on the road and took to the fields near the Tippet house and from thence went to leave it without a foot strap. The team was used solely for delivering charcoal to small grocery stores. The magistrate remarked that a few years ago there were only about twenty

Corporal Fred Storm Writes Interesting Letter

Speaks of Some Officers and Comrades; How T. A. McDonald Was Wounded; Battery Given Praise by Colonel

Corporal Fred Storm of the 97th Siege battery, writing to his mother, Mrs. A. M. Storm of 11 Pine street, city, says that he is taking part in the big advance and that shells are being exchanged continually with the "Frits." The letter reads as follows:

"We are still banging away and crawling forward like the turtle. I guess if we keep up this pace we will beat the "rabbit" yet, although he started with such a grand flourish. Of course, I can't tell you where we are on account of the censor, but we have been in the big advance since July 1 and working very hard.

"The infantry, when passing our battery going into the trenches, joke at our shells which weigh 1250 pounds (one ton) for the 'Frits', the ever present pills for all ailments.

"All the boys are looking well and sticking it first class. Leslie Patterson, Sergeant Preston and his brother are the only boys from St. John in my section; all the other boys are from Nova Scotia, Quebec and Ontario, but we all get along fine together.

"Captain Dobbie, who left Partridge Island with us, is still going strong and he is sure a pippin; he is sure not belong there. He has had some narrow escapes, but has not a scratch yet.

"Lieut. Compton, who left with us, was transferred to a French mortar battery. He was not with us when he got wounded. None of our officers have been wounded yet, but we have all had some close shaves. None of the St. John bunch have been wounded except bombardier T. A. McDonald, a Mount Allison man. He got a couple of nasty wounds and is enjoying life in England. I remember the afternoon he got wounded. I met him about an hour before he was sent out to repair a telephone wire that was broken by a shell. As 'Old Frit' was shelling pretty lively they had taken cover in a hole and left the wire until the strafe let up. That didn't suit McDonald as the line was needed. He started off alone to mend it; he got the wire mended, and now the doctors are mending him.

"We don't get any chance at the guns to win V. C.'s but the colonel of our brigade gave us a pretty good name. He said we surprised him as artillerymen for a lot of 'green horns'. What do you think of that now?

"We are getting cold weather now and we are preparing for a winter dig in the ground like a rabbit, but as I have lots of company I guess I'll be able to enjoy life with the rest of the boys. As I am supposed to sleep after being on duty all night, it is very hard to write a letter when the guns are firing and Old Frit's coal boxes are bursting around everywhere."

The soldier's address is Corporal F. W. Storm, No. 9129, 97th Can. Siege Battery, R. G. A., B. E. F., Army Post Office, England.

CONGRATULATIONS OFFERED TO NEW CHIEF JUSTICE

The September sitting of the Supreme court was resumed this morning with Justice Groulx presiding in the place of the chief justice who was indisposed. On the chief justice taking his place on the bench this morning he was made the recipient of many congratulatory references on his appointment as successor to the late Chief Justice Landry.

"This was the first court for the new chief justice to preside over in this city since his recent elevation. Fred R. Taylor, president of the St. John Barristers' Society, on behalf of that organization extended to His Honor their heartfelt congratulations. He spoke of the very high esteem in which Chief Justice McKeown was held by the legal fraternity of this city and said that his appointment had been a most popular one. The fact that Justice McKeown's judgments always found confirmation when brought before the court of appeal bore testimony to the efficient manner in which His Honor discharged his duties.

Mr. Taylor was followed by Attorney General Baxter, who endorsed the remarks of the president of the Barristers' Society and added his personal congratulations.

F. W. Daniel then presented the following address on behalf of the grand jury:

To the Honorable Chief Justice McKeown:

Dear Sir,—

We, the members of the Grand Jury at present attendant on your court, wish to convey to you our hearty congratulations on your appointment as chief justice of this province. As citizens also we feel that in the present strifing times the world over, there is need, more than ever before, of exalting the honor of our courts and the laws of our land, and it is our belief that in you we may look for strict and wise justice.

It is our wish that your term of office may be a long and happy one with the satisfaction of duty well done.

Yours respectfully,

F. W. DANIEL (Foreman)

St. John, N. B., September 27, 1916.

Following the address of the grand jury A. H. Hinington, K.C., extended his personal felicitations and His Honor replied to the tributes most feelingly. Not only was he delighted to hear the kind remarks of the legal fraternity, but he was also greatly pleased to receive the good wishes of his fellow citizens as expressed in the address of the grand jury. He said that he had not been solicited. He had worked for his appointment as judge in the first instance, but recent appointments had not been sought for. In his remarks, the new chief justice spoke in glowing terms of his predecessor, the late Sir Pierre A. Landry, and he said he would try to emulate the example which had been set by him. As a matter of fact, in an address to a jury, he said, Sir Pierre A. Landry had no superior. Following His Honor's address a further adjournment of the court was made.

A SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farris, No. 1 Carleton street, when friends tendered them a surprise in honor of the 80th anniversary of their wedding. During the evening they were made the recipients of a beautiful ballroom. The presentation was made by George Fowler. The evening was spent in games, singing and with piano selections by Miss Clara Beveridge and Douglas Thorne. After a dainty supper was served the company broke up wishing Mr. and Mrs. Thorne many more years of happy wedded life.

My left knee, nothing very serious. We are in an imperial hospital. I am the only Canadian in our ward, all English and Scotch boys, and we are certainly used to go under examination tomorrow. I am in pretty good health, and I stand a chance to see old England for a while. I was nineteen hours on a hospital train before I reached my destination, but I tell you what, Mother, it was a great change from the trenches. Do not worry, Mother dear, I am lucky.

"P. S.—I forgot to tell you, Mother, I am sleeping in a real bed with snow white linen over me. Oh, what a treat from the 'ha d' ground!"

Stripes to go to Belgium. He has been in the trenches since March.

His brother, Frederic C. Whipple, is in the 146th Battalion.

Letters Home From Private J. A. Whipple

Tells of Great Marching by Battalions, Including the 26th—The Joy of Sleep in Bed After the Trenches

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Whipple of No. 8 Whipple street, Lancaster Heights, have received letters from their son, Private J. A. Whipple, dated August 29 and Sept. 8. Some time ago he was wounded in his knee in a trench in Belgium. In his Aug. 29 letter written somewhere in France, he said he was then a lone way from the trenches, in a farm house with others for some engineer's training. The battalion did the march in three days. They had several battalions with them; the good old 26th had a great time. At the first stop he met several old Carleton boys; they were all O.K., but they were all stiff after the hard march. "Well," he says, "it will be some time before we see any fighting, and where we do no one knows, I guess it will be a long way from the western front division. I was glad to leave it; it was certainly a hard front. Good news has been received from other fronts which makes it all the better for us. We were complimented after our long march. There was not a man of the fourth company that had to be brought in on the ambulance, so that it very good. Our officers certainly did use us well all the way with good food and lots of it, and plenty of time.

In his Sept. 8 letter he says:

"At last I am able to write you a few lines. At night and day. I got within a few miles of our goal and I have been muddled here for away from the war in a hospital with an internal cartilage in

DO YOU NEED A MATTRESS?

If so, don't buy until you have seen the "Dixie No Tuft," the mattress which has revolutionized the bedding business. The absence of tufts does away with the hard spots which tufting inevitably produces, and with the depressions at every tuft which are gathering places for dust, dirt and germs.

Our space is too limited to describe in detail why the Dixie has twenty-five per cent. more elasticity than the tufted type; why it presents a better appearance at first, and why it keeps that appearance after other mattresses have spread and sagged out of shape. But if you will write or phone us for a circular which fully describes all these points, or, better still, call and let us show you samples, we feel sure that you will agree with us that it is the BEST ON EARTH.
