Brokers' Opinions

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, Sept. 13—Fenner & Beanne—"Industrials are generally unpopular and a shaking out process is in order which may keep them irregular for a few days."

Paine Weber—"We advise holding stocks for further appreciation in prices."

Hayden Stone—"For the present we think investment may be advantageously confined to industries showing a fairly liberal margin of profit."

Hornblower & Weeks—"The present phase of the market correction will continue into the early part of this week."

Josephthal—"We are of the opinion that early next month the ofls will again be sponsored, but this time by capable hands.
