LOST DIAMOND FIVE DAYS AT A CITY STREET CURB

Five Days After Her Loss
Mrs. L. A. McAlpine
Sights Gem.

While thousands of people and hundreds of automobiles and other vehicles passed over and around it, a valuable diamond, lost from its setting in a man's ring, lay in a tiny depression in the pavement of one of St. John's busiest thoroughfares for five days and nights, only to be discovered and picked up by the wife of the owner this week.

Dr. L. A. McAlpine stopped at the tobacco store of Charles Baillie in King street, last Saturday night, made a purchase and got into his automobile in front of the store. On his arrival home he discovered that the diamond setting had disappeared from his ring. A search of his clothing, house and automobile failed to reveal its whereabouts and the gem was practically given up for lost.

On Thursday evening, the doctor and his wife stopped their car again outside the same store, while the doctor entered to make a purchase. After getting in the car again, Mrs. McAlpine suggested that the diamond might have been lost in the Baillie establishment, and the doctor returned to make enquiries. While he was inside his wife, glancing along the pavement near the curb saw something shining near the curb, which, on examination, proved to be the missing gem. Its sudden recovery caused as much surprise as it did gratification to the doctor to have his valuable property returned.

GOOD ROADS MEN HERE NEXT YEAR

T. P. Regan Tells of Quebec
Meeting—N. B. Roads
Compare Well.

The Canadian Good Roads Association will hold its next annual meeting in New Brunswick. This was the unanimous decision of the executive of the convention this week in Quebec.

T. P. Regan, who attended the Quebec meeting and returned home last evening, told The Times-Star this morning that the Quebec meeting was a wonderful success, and quoted one enthusiastic delegate, who said: "We are making road history at the rate of a mile a minute." Mr. Regan left here on Oct. 8, was joined at Fredericton Junction by Burton M. Hill, and proceeded to Montreal, where they met Premier Veniot and Hon. Joseph Michael and last named having motored from Edmundston. The other members of the association were there, and a meeting was held in the Old Colony Club in the Windsor Hotel, with Hon. J. L. Perron, honorary president, in the chair. Others present were the four Premiers—Taschereau of Quebec, Ferguson of Ontario, Veniot of New Brunswick, and Stewart of Prince Edward Island; Hon. W. C. Chisholm of Nova Scotia; H. R. McKenney of Saskatchewan; Hon. J. A. McDonald of P. E. Island; Hon. G. S. Henry, Hon. Chas. McCrear and Carroll Hale of Ontario; Hon. Joseph Michael and B. M. Hill of New Brunswick; and J. L. Boulanger, S. L. Squires, William Findley, Major Dugas, T. P. Regan and Geo. McNamee, members of the executive.

The whole party motored over the tarmac road from Montreal to Quebec, 120 miles, with a stop for luncheon at Three Rivers. They were entertained at dinner by Hon. J. L. Perron at the Chateau Frontenac, and the four Premiers and Hon. W. C. Chisholm and others spoke.

The conference next day dealt with federal aid for roads, vehicular traffic, lights on all vehicles, road-building material, maintenance, gasoline taxes, camp sites, Trans-Canada highway, urban financial responsibility for road building, and safety on the highways.

N. B. Roads Compare Well.
Mr. Regan remarked incidentally that the roads in New Brunswick measure up well with those of Quebec. He was much impressed by the remark of Hon. Mr. Perron that it was useless to build roads for tourists unless they had hotels to accommodate them, and Mr. Regan added that it was unfortunate that St. John would not have a hotel to accommodate the Good Roads Association next summer.

With regard to the road to St. Stephen, from this city, Mr. Regan said it was hoped to have the short section through the New River bog brought up to the standard of the rest of the road early next season.

While in Quebec the visitors were entertained by the Rotary Club. At an oyster supper given by the Reform Club to the New Brunswick visitors Mr. Regan was able to remind them that they were eating Buctouche oysters.

The party were shown over Quebec and visited the Quebec bridge. At the convention there was no hint of politics. The best of good feeling prevailed. Mr. Regan was much impressed by the personality of Premier Ferguson of Ontario, whose democratic manner and geniality made him popular with all the delegates. He was very happy to hear his replies and in the addresses he delivered.

Mr. Regan is president of the Automobile Association.

The tables had been artistically decorated by Mrs. Clifford Nickerson of Sussex.

CHINESE MISSION WORK HERE.

Mrs. R. D. Christie of 78 Sydney street this city, superintendent of the Central Baptist Chinese Sunday school is receiving the usual contributions of the Protestant churches towards the expenses of representatives sent to the Chinese Mission convention of Eastern Canada to be held at Kingston, Ont., early next month. Mrs. Christie has been identified with this work for a considerable number of years. Mrs. Christie of Trinity church, 302 Gorman street, is also receiving contributions. The port of St. John has been taking a prominent part in this Chinese citizen movement and as a result during the last twenty-five years some of the Chinese pupils have been converted to the Christian faith and some have become active in Canada and in China in preaching the gospel. Delegates to the Kingston convention are communicating with R. H. Ward of 555 Alfred street in that city.

DRY DOCK WILL BE OPENED AT 3 O'CLOCK ON 29TH

Definite Announcement and
New Word of Plans—
A Warning.

F. M. Ross, manager of the St. John Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Company, announces that the opening ceremony at the dry dock will be at three o'clock on the afternoon of Oct. 29.

At one o'clock a luncheon for visitors and invited guests will be given by the directors of the company, and in order that as many as possible of the public may hear the speeches by the prominent men who will speak, several amplifiers will be installed.

On the grounds, five or six booths will serve free ice-cream for the children. A platform for the bands will be erected.

Mr. Ross points out that the question of police protection will be a very serious one, and Com. Thornton told The Times-Star this morning that special police, salvage corps men and some firemen would be furnished for this work.

Several buglers will announce the arrival of the Governor General fifteen minutes before the dock-opening ceremony begins. Mr. Ross says it must be impressed upon everyone that they must not go where the signs are marked "no trespassing," and they must keep outside the roped areas. "Very few people," he says, "have probably seen what happens when a large dock is being opened; consequently they may find themselves, if they trespass, in a position which may very much restrict our operations and endanger their own lives."

Parking space will be provided for motor cars, and the company is ready to provide power to run railway cars out from the city if the C. N. R. team to send its heavy locomotives over its track.

All the whistles of the plant will blow when the dock is opened, and arrangements will be made by the Mayor for the sounding of all whistles in the city at the same time.

Com. Thornton said this morning that every effort will be made to cooperate with the company to insure both convenience and safety at the opening of the dock.

HOPE FOR BIG CUT IN N. B. FIRE LOSS

Fire Marshal and Secretary to Sussex for Prevention Demonstration.

If the same success in fire prevention that has marked the year so far is continued until the last of December, there should be a decrease of $1,000,000 in the fire losses in the Province, so says H. H. McLellan, fire marshal for New Brunswick, told a Times reporter this morning.

Mr. McLellan and Charles Robinson, secretary of the N. B. Fire Prevention Board, left this morning for Sussex to take part in the fire prevention demonstration there this afternoon. It is planned to turn out the entire fire fighting apparatus and have addresses on fire prevention measures delivered to the people assembled before the station.

Mr. McLellan said that demonstrations of this kind brought home to the people the significance of the great fire losses suffered every year, much of which might be avoided by the proper precautionary measures. The fire loss in Sussex during the whole of 1922 amounted to $150,000, while for the first six months of this year, the total had reached nearly $218,000. The people were now alive to the situation, he said, and were taking hold of it in a big way. The women were particularly active and had done a great deal towards the installation of modern and adequate fire fighting apparatus.

GOOD SHEPHERD W. A.
Mrs. Amy Bender presided at the first meeting of the W. A. of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, of the season. Following a Scripture reading by Mrs. W. P. Dunham, the treasurer, Mrs. Charles Hill, presented her monthly report, which showed a balance of $10.00. Mrs. Thomas Pyle reported on "The Living Message," Mrs. T. Mitchell gave some data with reference to the E. C. D. fund. Mrs. Hill, who had been a delegate to the diocesan W. A. in Fredericton, gave an interesting report.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I was lost in that remarkable smoky fog that filled the city streets on Thursday night. I could look up and see the stars, but I couldn't see the next street lamp. I walked around myself three times under the impression that I was going straight ahead. It was worse than a London fog. Can you explain it?"

"Yes, sir," said Hiram. "This town is gittin' to be a fog factory. You're all befogged. You don't know where you're at. You're the children of darkness where you are. The children of light. I'm sorry for you. So's Hanner. So's everybody out to the Settlement. Hanner's makin' a lot of candles. She says after we get that fund for Japan fix we'll have to do somethin' for St. John. She's been singin' 'Throw Out the Life Line an' Let Your Lower Lights Be Burnin'—an' I guess you ain't count on her when the time comes. Fireworks in City Hall an' them other places is all right—but fer a good stiddy light you want somethin' else agin—Yes, sir."

Winter is Coming--

Is Your Property Protected?

Most people consider paint and varnish as a mark of beauty, but their real function is to protect and preserve. Is your property ready to brave the rigours of winter? You insure your house against fire. With paint and varnish protecting your property it is equally insured against the ravages of time and the elements.

Paint this autumn and save the repair money that you will inevitably lose if you commence the winter with your house unprotected.

"Hand and Ring" Pure Prepared Paint is GOOD paint—made with dependable oils and lasting colors. It not only protects you against loss in property value, but it adds beauty and attractiveness to your home.

The Table of a Hundred Uses

What a blessing a Folding Table is! One that may be kept behind a door or in a closet, ready at any moment for the odd game of cards, for serving tea on the verandah, or even for ironing there on a warm day, or in the cool of the evening it will support the phonograph or father's smoking kit and the daily papers.

The one illustrated is so light (weighing only 11 pounds) so strong (will support half a ton) so compact and so easily handled and withal so good looking, that it is not surprising that "everyone who sees one wants one." As shown, with fumed oak top, price is $5.65. Others have felt top or linoleum top and some are larger in diameter. Let us show you how necessary they are in your home.
