

The Evening Times Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1914

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

Intense Excitement In the Capital Over the Dugal Charges

Several Sudden Deaths Cause Shock on P. E. Island

(Special Times) Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 7.—Several sudden deaths occurred in this province within the last few days. This morning Edmund Marshall, a carpenter, aged 55, was found in a room, and died. Heart disease was pronounced the cause. John Sheehan, aged sixty-two, a farmer, of Fort William, Ont., and Gerald Jarvis, manager of the Bank of Ottawa, Arnprior, Ont. John Smith, aged eighty-six, father of John Smith, first officer of the government steamer Gale, died suddenly on Sunday night.

LET'S KNOW ABOUT FORESHORES BILL

Mystery That Which Production Government Should Explain While the charges preferred against Premier Fleming in the city today, there was also much talk about the history of the foreshores bill. It is evident that the bill has caused much concern and will be asked what the bill and why it was introduced in the first place.

THE STEAMERS

The Tyrone, Capt. F. R. Bell, Captain Murray, left for St. John's at 10 o'clock. The Tyrone, Capt. F. R. Bell, Captain Murray, left for St. John's at 10 o'clock. The Tyrone, Capt. F. R. Bell, Captain Murray, left for St. John's at 10 o'clock.

F. O. CURRY DIES WHILE ON A TRIP TO THE COAST

Halifax, N. S., April 7.—(Special) F. O. Curry, of Windsor, received a telegram today announcing the death of his eldest son, Charles, in St. John's. He left Windsor only a few days ago on a trip to the coast. He was in the city at the time of his death.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Phenix and Pherids—Moderate winds, fine today. Wednesday, increasing westerly winds with rain or sleet. Washington, D. C.—New England forecasts—Rain or snow tonight, and probably Wednesday; gentle, shifting breezes becoming north and fresh Wednesday.

Everybody Speculating As To What Governor Will Do And What Course Government Will Take

Everybody is speculating as to what Governor will do and what course government will take. The charges against Premier Fleming have created a great deal of excitement in the capital. It is expected that the government will take some action in response to the charges.

Prominent Local Citizens Give Their Views

Prominent local citizens have given their views on the charges against Premier Fleming. Many of them believe that the charges are unfounded and that the government should not take any action. Others believe that the charges are true and that the government should take action.

Investigation of Dugal Charges Should Be Made

Investigation of Dugal charges should be made. Many citizens believe that the charges against Premier Fleming are true and that the government should take action. They believe that an investigation should be made to determine the truth of the charges.

Hold-Up Railway Bill

Government and Legislature Should Vote No Additional Aid Until Matter of Extension Charges is Gone Into. The matter of extension charges is a matter of great importance to the province. It is expected that the government will take action on this matter in the near future.

WILLARD SMITH

Willard Smith, a prominent local citizen, has given his views on the charges against Premier Fleming. He believes that the charges are unfounded and that the government should not take any action. He believes that the government should take action to investigate the charges.

COMMISSIONER AGAR

Commissioner Agar has given his views on the charges against Premier Fleming. He believes that the charges are unfounded and that the government should not take any action. He believes that the government should take action to investigate the charges.

Silence of The St. John Organ Again Causes Comment—Held That Government Cannot Refuse Inquiry Demanded—Meanwhile Valley Railway Deal Must Be Held Up

The silence of the St. John organ again causes comment. It is held that the government cannot refuse the inquiry demanded. Meanwhile, the Valley Railway deal must be held up. The charges against Premier Fleming have created a great deal of excitement in the capital.

INVESTIGATION OF NOT PROPERLY BE REFUSED

Investigation of not properly be refused. The charges against Premier Fleming have created a great deal of excitement in the capital. It is expected that the government will take action in response to the charges.

HOLD BACK OF THIS VALLEY RAILWAY DEAL

The Valley Railway deal must be held up. The charges against Premier Fleming have created a great deal of excitement in the capital. It is expected that the government will take action in response to the charges.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM STARKEY IN MONCTON

Mrs. William Starkey died in Moncton. She was eighty-two years of age and is survived by three daughters. She was a native of the province and had lived in Moncton for many years.

OTHERS

Other news items from the capital. The charges against Premier Fleming have created a great deal of excitement in the capital. It is expected that the government will take action in response to the charges.

FOSTER WAS NOT ENTHUSIASTIC

Budget Not Pleasing to Others of Government. Disappointment elsewhere. Meighen threatened to resign, says report, unless some concession was made to West. Debate to go on without proposed break.

HOME RULE BILL LAW BY JUNE

That is Prediction in London Today. GO TO LORDS NEXT MONTH. Officially announced that Unionists will not oppose Premier Asquith in East Bill—That will bring him back week earlier.

NORTH WEST MOUNTED POLICEMAN ARRESTED HERE ON CHARGE OF DESERTING

James Mitchell, an Englishman thirty-one years of age, was arrested last night by Detective Lucas. The prisoner is charged on the police books with having deserted from the Royal North West Mounted Police. He was formerly stationed at Regina, Alberta.

"CY" WARMAN DEAD

Poet of The Rockies Stricken With Paralysis Last Winter. Chicago, Ill., April 7.—"Cy" Warman, poet and sport story writer, died today, after a long illness. He was stricken with paralysis in a hotel last winter.

BRIbery OF POLICE BY HOTEL KEEPERS CHARGED

Port Hope, Ont., April 7.—Charges that the police of Port Hope have been bribed by the hotelkeepers to wink at violations of the liquor license act have been made and an investigation before the county judge is to be held.

WORK RESUMED

Part of Murray and Gregory's mill at Marble Cove is in operation today. Work started this morning. It is expected that the whole gang will be at work in a few days.

Public Prosecutor May Be Asked to Resign

Paris, April 7.—A ministerial paper understands that the minister of justice has requested the public prosecutor, Victor Fabre, to send in his resignation and adds that in the event of his refusal he will be retired. M. Fabre is entitled to a pension of $1,200.

Police Court

Joseph Looney, twenty-three years of age, was arrested last evening by Sergeant Kilpatrick, on a warrant charging him with stealing $150 while in the employ of Court Brothers in Main street. The young man is well known in the North End, and many of his friends believe him to be innocent.

COMMISSIONER AGAR

Commissioner Agar has given his views on the charges against Premier Fleming. He believes that the charges are unfounded and that the government should not take any action. He believes that the government should take action to investigate the charges.

OTHERS

Other news items from the capital. The charges against Premier Fleming have created a great deal of excitement in the capital. It is expected that the government will take action in response to the charges.

WORK RESUMED

Part of Murray and Gregory's mill at Marble Cove is in operation today. Work started this morning. It is expected that the whole gang will be at work in a few days.