Reconstruction Plans in Canada

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—A committee of the cabinet composed of Sir James A. Lougheed, Hon. N. W. Rowell, Hon. T. A. Crerar, Hon. Gideon Robertson, Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. J. A. Calder has been appointed to co-ordinate the efforts of the various departments which have been giving close study to problems of reconstruction arising with the conclusion of the war. Hon. Mr. Calder will be chairman of the committee, whose members represent respectively the departments of soldiers' civil re-establishment, agriculture, immigration and colonization, privy council, interior and labor. While the committee, which will be known as the reconstruction committee, is not charged with responsibility for demobilization, that being the function of the department of militia, questions related to the return of our soldiers will be given the fullest possible consideration in working out the problems of reconstruction.

FIND TWO PRECEDENTS FOR BARRING BERGER

House Members Dig Up Civil War Case as Parallel to That of Indicted Man

Washington, Nov. 15.—Several members of Congress are fortifying themselves with precedents in expectation of the contest which will be made against Victor Berger of Wisconsin when he attempts to take his seat in the House. Berger, who was elected from Milwaukee, is now under indictment for violating the Espionage act by obstructing recruiting, attempting to cause insubordination in the armed forces of the United States, and sedition utterances.

The case of Philip F. Thomas of Maryland, to whom admission to the Senate was refused in 1868, and of an elected Representative from Utah named Roberts, are now being cited as precedents, illustrating the rights of the House to pass upon the qualifications of its members. Thomas was a Southern sympathizer during the civil war, and it was alleged that he had encouraged his son to enlist in the Confederate Army.

After a long debate the Senate passed this resolution: "Resolved, That Philip F. Thomas, having voluntarily given aid, countenance and encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility to the United States, is not entitled to take the oath of office as Senator of the United States or hold a seat in this body as such Senator, and that president pro tempore inform the Governor of Maryland of the action of the Senate in the premises."

Roberts was not allowed to take the oath because of his belief in polygamy.

Two clauses of the Constitution are being suggested as giving authority to the House to decide whether Berger shall take his seat. Section 1 of Article I, states:

"Each House shall be the judge of elections, returns, and qualifications of its members."

Section 3 of the Fourteenth Amendment states:

"No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elected to any office of honor or military, under the United States or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress or as an officer of the United States or as an executive or judicial officer of any state to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House remove such disability."

As Berger has served a term in the House he must have taken the oath alluded to. If he should be found guilty in the courts he would be automatically disbarred from membership in the House. But under its rules, Congress can today, the House, even before the trial, could refuse the Socialist his seat.

Overcoats

The word "Overcoat" means a lot this season and the man who buys now is sure to buy wisely. Our display shows wonderful possibilities which prevail now and will not later.

From the special selection to the last detail in finishing the button holes, each operation in their manufacture was expertly watched.

So we offer them in an excellent variety of good, certain-of-service fabrics in which the preferences of men and young men are definitely expressed and in styles of approved types, feeling certain that these Overcoats will win friends for this Men's Store as few offerings in many seasons have done.

Many specially featured at $25, $30 and $35; others $20 to $45.

GILMOUR'S 68 King St.

advances, new prices being about 10 per cent. higher than former figures. Spring hinges are up about 5 per cent., and other lines of interest to the hardware trade which follow the upward trend are wood blocks, curtain stretchers, store-ware, and contractors' sizes.

The list on automobile oil is up five cents per gallon, and many lines of auto accessories have been revised. These include batteries, lamp bulbs, shock absorbers, cut-outs, lap robes, horns, push buttons and repair parts.

Prices on bug finish have been named for spring; these are higher than those prevailing last season. Mechanics' tools still advance, as will be noted in revisions this week on nut and pipe wrenches, socket chisels and bit extensions. Pump leathers have also been revised upward.

EXHIBITION ASSOCIATION MEETING

A year of inactivity was reported at the annual meeting of the exhibition association, held yesterday afternoon with the president, W. F. Burditt, in the chair, at the office of the secretary, H. A. Porter, Prince William street. In view of recent developments in the war, the necessity for a definite plan for an exhibition to be held as soon as conditions warrant, was emphasized.

Mention was made of improvements being made to the exhibition buildings being made to the exhibition buildings in addition to the housing area; but it was not considered that these added any value to the plan for exhibition purposes.

On the other hand, it was pointed out that all exhibition equipment had been removed and that a tremendous amount of work and expense would be necessary before the plan again would be fit for exhibition purposes.

At a meeting to be held next week, the twenty-one directors chosen recently will add ten to their number, and a week afterwards, the directors will hold a meeting to elect a new executive.

In 1920.

"They seem to have plenty of money."

"Yes. Back in 1918 their father bought more victory bonds than he thought at the time he could afford."
