RECENT DEATHS

W. H. White has received a telegram from Montreal announcing the death of Matthew C. Hinshaw, manager for Canada of the Atlas Assurance Corporation. Mr. Hinshaw was one of the best known insurance men in Canada and had many warm friends among the insurance fraternity in St. John who will regret to learn of his death.

The death of Albert L. Wells, a well-known resident of Apohaqui, took place very suddenly at his home there at a late hour last night.

James McLaren, aged sixty-five, a C. N. R. locomotive engineer, died suddenly at his home in Moncton, yesterday. He is a native of Hampton and has been in the employ of the railway for thirty-five years. He leaves his wife and two sons.

OPEN SHOP AT NEW YORK PORT WHAT THEY WANT

New York, May 28.—The citizens' transportation committee recently organized to relieve the city's freight tie-up, made public last night its "declaration of principles" which virtually is for an open shop policy in the port of New York. The committee took the attitude that "impartial services should be extended to all merchandise regardless of whether it has been worked upon or handled by union or non-union men."

FORMER PREMIER OF FRANCE IN THE STATES.
New York, May 28.—Paul Painlevé, former premier and minister of war of France, arrived here yesterday at the head of a French fraternal educational mission to China. They will call on President Wilson.

ACTRESS AND PAINTER ARE MARRIED IN NEW YORK.
New York, May 28.—Frances Starr, actress, and William H. Coffin, painter and illustrator, were married here yesterday in the Church of the Heavenly Rest by Rev. Dr. Herbert Shipman.

CATHOLIC GIRLS' GUILD.
At the organization meeting of the board of directors of the Catholic Girls' Guild held last night the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. F. J. Power; vice-president, Miss Elizabeth McInerney; secretary, Miss Katherine Kane; treasurer, Miss Emily Bantley. Mrs. John Owens was chosen as delegate to represent the Guild at the conference of Catholic Women's Leagues to be held in Montreal on June 16, 17 and 18.
