The Triple Alliance put on a really attractive and amusing performance at the Grand last night, to a fair audience. There was enough good sleight of hand work to be interesting, while the rest of the performance consisted of musical and comical specialties, which thoroughly pleased the audience.

A. C. P. R. STRIKE.

All the machinists and fitters on the Canadian Pacific Railway, from Fort William to Vancouver, went out on strike yesterday, practically because of the refusal of the company to recognize the union. They asked for a schedule of minimum wages of 25c. per hour, price and a half for over time, and double price for Sundays, and the abolition of the contract system. The strike is said to involve 300 men and may extend. The company say they can get on without them.

MISS BASKERVILLE'S LECTURE.

Rev. J. J. Ross presided at the missionary meeting at William Street Barbist church last night. After introductory devotional exercises John Reeve rendered a fine tenor solo, which was followed by an interesting address by Miss Baskerville, returned missionary to India. The lady described the people, their habits, castes and customs, dwelling largely upon the state of the female population. She made a strong appeal for greater interest in missions. Miss Baskerville was draped in the native costume and exhibited many interesting Indian curios.

ADAMIRAL DEWEY'S RETURN.

The population of Ottawa is shown by the assessor's return to be 57,002, an increase of 1,616 over last year.

Joseph Pennoque, a Montreal la-bore, threw himself from a fifth storey window in St. Paul street, dashing his brains out on the pavement.

Admiral Dewey has been relieved of the command of the United States ship Olympia at his own request, and the vessel will be overhauled at Boston.

It is asserted that revelations seriously compromising General Mercier's honesty have been made in connection with the Madagascar expedition.

Rev. Fr. Joseph Reze, dean of the Fathers of the Holy Cross in Canada, ex-provincial of the order and founder of St. Laurent College, has died at Montreal, aged 85.

Canadian soap manufacturers are discussing the desirability of doing away with premiums.

J. W. Flavell and wife, of Toronto, have subscribed $25,000 to the endowment fund of Victoria University, Toronto.

The assessor's census of the city of Hamilton gives the population as 51,501, an increase of 550. The assessment of the city is $26,000,115.

Mgr. Falconio, Roman Catholic apostolic delegate to Canada, arrived met by a number of clerical and civil dignitaries who escorted him to the Basilica, where he was welcomed by Archbishop Bejin. Mgr. Falconio same time in Montreal before proceeding to Ottawa, where he will establish

THE YACHT RACE.

Wind is Again too Light for any Fast Work.

The Columbia Leads Fleet of the Way but the Boats may not Finish in the Time Limit.

C. P. R. Special.

New York, Oct. 5.—The first race of the series for the America cup, which was postponed from Tuesday, the course being 15 miles to leeward and return. The compass signals were hoisted at 10.30 on the committee boat; the flags sent up to the triatic stay were D. C. I. According to the New York Yacht Club code, this meant that the course was to be southeast by east, fifteen miles and return. The wind at this time was very light from northeast, so that the boats had to start dead before the wind.

JOCKEYING FOR A START.

At 10.45 the signal gun was fired on the committee boat, the blue peter set and a red ball run up the triatic stay. When the gun was fired the Columbia and Shamrock were to the weather of the starting line with their forestays lowered. As soon as the first signal had been given, the Shamrock trimmed sheets, and loosed along in an easterly direction until well past the committee tug.

Putting her tiller to starboard, Captain Wringe headed his boat more up into the wind, and finally tacked around the tug, with sheets still well aft, boom to port, worked slowly down across the line, leaving the lightship to starboard. The Columbia did not follow her rival around the tug, going back across the line, leaving the regatta committee boat to starboard. It was Captain Barr's intention to get up to the weather of her rival, if possible, so after the Shamrock had rounded the tug, the Columbia crossed her wake, and coming about, followed her down across the line.

THE START.

10.45.—The starting gun has just been fired. The Shamrock has the best of the jockeying.

10.46.—Boats have started. Shamrock crosses line one minute ahead of Columbia.

10.47.—They're off. Shamrock two lengths ahead. Before starting Shamrock kept Columbia blanketed.

11.10.—Shamrock leads by 30 seconds.

11.25.—Shamrock appears to be gaining rapidly. Haze is thickening, rendering view indistinct.

11.32.—Columbia seems to be gaining.

11.33.—Shamrock puts out a spinnaker.
Columbia at once follows suit.

11.36.—Columbia has just passed the Shamrock.

11.38.—Columbia is now leading.

11.44.—Both boats have main sails, spinnaker and jib sails set.

11.48.—Both yachts now together.
Shamrock has manoeuvred to blanket Columbia. Columbia tries to avoid.

11.53.—Columbia is ahead of Shamrock and increasing her lead every minute. Shamrock is putting out full sail.

12.—Columbia 15 lengths ahead.
Shamrock close to shore.

12.07.—Columbia still leading. No race likely. Wind dying.

12.10.—Mackay Bennett boat just arrived. Says both boats are taking in spinnakers and wind very light.

12.15.—Columbia three lengths ahead.

12.22.—The yachts are so close together that the sailors are making faces at one another.

12.45.—Mackay Bennett boat bulletin that both yachts are lost from sight in a bank of mist.

12.58.—The N. Y. Herald yacht bulletin Columbia leading by one-eighth mile.

1.00.—Both yachts are invisible.
Tug just arrived says Columbia is half a mile ahead.

1.15.—The wind shows signs of freshening.

1.30.—They say the Columbia is one mile ahead.

1.45.—Boat from the scene of race just arrived says Columbia is about a mile ahead.

2.04.—Columbia still bulletined one mile ahead.

2.06.—At the present rate the boats cannot finish within the time limit.

2.15.—The Columbia still leads by some distance, but the Shamrock is being better handled, and may win out if the wind freshens.

2.21.—The steamer yacht Adele reports yachts having covered two thirds of the course. The Columbia is one mile ahead.

2.35.—Fog lifts momentarily. The boats about 12 miles distant. Columbia evidently leading by a mile and a half.

HALF WAY BUOY TURNED.

2.50.—Wind freshening rapidly. Sandy Bay.—Reported from tug that boats turned mark about 1.40, with Columbia in the lead.

Highlands off Cavasink, 3.01 p. m.— The stern boat looks like the Shamrock, and if so the Columbia is about a quarter of a mile ahead.

2.55.—Both yachts just sighted.
They appear to be running neck and neck.

The Sun says Columbia turned at 1.03 and Shamrock at 1.13.

3.10.—Both boats on port tack, headed toward Long Branch. Still very hazy, almost impossible to tell which is leading. Race may still be finished.

3.25.—Hard to say in the haze which boat is ahead, but it is believed to be the Shamrock. It is believed that the boats can finish in the time limit, which is 4.30.

3.30.—Boats are at least seven miles from finish. It looks impossible for them to finish within time limit.

3.30.—The World issues bulletin at 3.30, saying boats six miles from finish. The Columbia is leading, but cannot finish in time, unless the wind freshens considerably. It is almost safe to say that to-day's race ends the same as Tuesday's, and will have to be sailed again on Saturday.

"Have you seen the new fixings going on around our church," said Elder Blake, of the A. U. M. P. denomination, this morning. "We are putting a large addition, six feet wide, to our edifice on King St. We are also going to plaster our church and renovate it internally. The congregation is increasing and we are holding glorious meetings."

THE BRITISH REPORTED ON THE RUN.

London, Oct. 5.—The Daily Telegraph publishes a despatch from Newcastle, Natal, which says: "The Boer advance began to-day with a general movement of artillery. The Boers are occupying Laing's Nek nightly, and now hold the mountains to the south of Volksrust. There are no British troops nearer than Ladysmith, and preparations are being made to abandon Natal from the frontier to Glencoe. The inhabitant of Newcastle met to-day and decided not to attempt to defend the town in the event of a Boer advance in force.
Gen. Simons is prepared to evacuate within 24 hours. The people are crowding the trains for Ladysmith."

THE BANNER'S FAKE DESPATCH.

The Banner this afternoon has the following bulletin:

Yacht Race Fatality.

"Excursion steamer foundered off New York with 1,300 people aboard.
See the Banner last edition."

The Planet's New York special says:

"There is no truth whatever in rumor of steamer sunk. Commercial Cable Co. denies that report came from them.
People in New York think Paris got story up to sell papers."

During a quarrel at Branchton, Adair Allan, a painter, attacked Alson Haney, a farm laborer, with a pitchfork, inflicting serious wounds.
The first message from Dawson City over the new telegraph line, was wired to the Globe.

Five liners, the Catalonia, Pavonia, Cochinthal, and the Armenian, of the Leyland Line, plying to Boston, and two Cunarders, the Aurania and Servia, plying to New York, have been requisitioned by the British Admiralty.
