A Canadian lady, in a letter to a London paper, has some fun with, and incidentally administers a rebuke to, Lord Salisbury for his speech at Barrington House recently, when he suggested that the lower circle of Dante's inferno should be inhabited by female cyclists, who clothed themselves in unpadded skirts or knickerbockers.

Were the illustrious marquis a lady, said the fair Canadian, and had he ever experienced the inconvenience of carrying across the face of nature in a long, flapping skirt, he would not be so cocksure of the propriety of knickerbockers, and the noble lord must not think the world will put up its shutters and go out of business, just because he happens to think that things in it are not what they ought to be. English gentlemen, she says, must be uncomformably modest if they agree with Lord Salisbury in this statement.

Wear The 2 T's $1.00 Faultless
White Dress Shirts.

EYE STRAIN AND WRINKLES.
Strange how some will go on straining their eyes producing primitive wrinkles and wasting nerve energy under the supposition that glasses will detract from their personal appearance. In reality glasses improve the looks of those with defective eyes. I put beauty in glasses as well as behind them.—E. J. MacIntyre, leading optician, opposite the opera house.

QUALITY ALWAYS SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

We are showing some drowsy novelties in suitings, which gentlemen will not find elsewhere in the city. We also make a special feature of importing single suit lengths in high class goods. This precludes the possibility of any pattern becoming common. Call and inspect for yourselves.

FINE TAILORS

KING STREET

The Planet received a number of guesses on the result of yesterday's game, but none were correct.

Flying Roiser McKay has been unable to raise the $100 fine imposed for publishing objectionable literature and will have to spend four months in jail.

A team belonging to C. Brown, Raleigh, started from the Kent mills about three o'clock this afternoon. At the Fifth street bridge they struck the large glass front in the vacant store belonging to Rufus Stephenson. And it was smashed to pieces. They then ran over the bridge to the Central school when the rear wheels were left against a post. The runaways then went on with the remnants of the rig down Centre street to Park and out Park.

Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—
"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, some-
