A PERIOD OF RELIGIOUS INFIDELITY. (Christian Intelligencer.)

(Christian Intelligencer.)

There is no disputing the fact that we are passing through a period of serious religious decleasion. The signs are unmistakable both in this country and in Europe. Some of the signs of general spiritual declension were referred to last Sunday by Archbishop Ireland in a public address in Detroit, and by the Rev. G. Campbell, Morgan in his sermon in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church of this city. "The former said: "Heligion is rapidly losing ground. There are men especially who never breathe a sign of prayer toward heaven, menty of them in public places, where their influence and example six paid. Day by day science and philosophy are taking the place of religion. Papers and magazines reflect these ideas." Mr. Morgan comment philosophy are taking the place of the ligion. Papers and magazines reflect these ideas." Mr. Morgan commenting on small church attendance, remarked: "The trouble is that there is a new atheism abroad, strang, and subtle. Let it go no further, of it will
