A meeting of the executive of the St. John Base Ball League was held last evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. There was a full attendance of representatives and officials.

It was decided unanimously to admit ladies free to the evening games.

Although nothing has yet been decided about the afternoon games, this will probably be the case there also. Considerable discussion took place about a schedule for the coming season and it was decided that the managers of the respective teams draw one up and report to the president on Fri-

Peter McAllister and Geo. McDiarmid, who both gave such good ser-vice last season, have been selected to act as umpires. The idea is that they will officiate in alternate weeks. It was also decided that four innings at least shall constitute an evening game. The length of games is to be decided by the umpires with due regard to light, etc. Harry Irvine, the vice-president, was unanimously chosen as official scorer, and judging by the number of prizes which have been offered so far, his office will be no sinecure. The appointment of R. J. Coughlan as gate-keeper was confirmed and very strict orders will be given him to admit no one but players and paying spectators. Considerable other routine business was transacted.

A BRUTAL MURDER

WINDSOR, Ont., April 6.-Mrs. Eliza J. Williams was found lying dead on the kitchen floor of her home this morning by the police. Her head was fearfully cut and crushed by many blows apparently inflicted with an axe. There is not the slightest doubt but that she was murdered. After com-mitting the crime the murderer calm-The old woman lived alone and was reputed to be worth considerable money left her by her husband, who has been dead for thirteen years. SOUTH AFRICANS ORGANIZE. A meeting of the members of G. Co. was held last night. About twenty members were present. W. H. Irving presided. It was decided to form an association of the members of the company. The following officers were elected: President, Capt. F. Caverhill Jones; vice-president, Capt. Beverly R. Armstrong; secretary, Walter H. Irv-ing; treasurer, John Welsh. The fol-lowing committee was appointed to frame a constitution for the associa-tion: J. Welsh, M. J. Burns, J. Scott, H. Bettle, S. Wither J. Ryan, A. Mc-Dermott. The association will meet on Wednesday, April 13, in the Trades and Labor Council rooms. TEA AND SALE.

A successful tea and sale took place in the school-room of the Valley church last evening. Many useful and ornamental articles were on sale. The following ladies assisted: Misses Bessie P. Barnhill, Sarah A. McCormick, Fannie H. McCormick and Nellie R. Baird, having applied for incorporation under letters patent. The capital stock will be $25,000, and Messrs. McCormick, Moore and Barnhill are provisional directors.
