MAY BE A LIE, BUT NOBODY KNOWS

French Actor Publicly Called an Officer a Pignone, and the Meaning of the Word Has Not Been Made Clear

PARIS, June 15.—What is a pignone? No ordinary dictionary defines the figurative meaning of the word, and the dictionary of the French Academy which will doubtless fully explain the term, is still at letter C. In the meantime M. Rolland, an actor, has called M. Simirotti a pignone. In fact he twice called him a pignone. Suddenly in the middle of the opera "Vingthuit Jours de Clarette" he stopped singing and shouted to M. Simirotti in the stalls, "You are nothing but a pignone!" Afterwards, during an interval he rushed about the wings, crying, "Where is he, the pignone? Where is he? Where is he that I may chuck him out!" This tragic scene happened at the theatre in Constantinople during the tour of a French company. But the affair was of such gravity that it had come to Paris. It was first discussed before the French Consular Tribunal at Constantinople sitting as a police court. M. Rolland was indicted for having addressed a public insult to M. Simirotti. He said that the latter had persistently attacked him since a Constantinople paper. Hence his resentment and his opinion that M. Simirotti is a pignone. It was decided, representing the non-official white community of the capital, today publishes an address to the government of India calling its attention to the continued boycott of British goods in Eastern Bengal and the racial friction which is still being stirred up, and demanding that government action be not deferred to a point where illegal license becomes more and more difficult to repress. The address expresses the general opinion of Europeans throughout the country, for, although outward order has been restored, the campaign of sedition continues.

SEDITION PREACHED AND KING INSULTED

Native Newspapers in India Doing Everything Possible to Incite Mutiny.

SIMLA, June 15.—The cup of the disaffected section of the native press is now nearly full. These journals, having done their utmost to excite a mutiny and bring British officials into contempt, have now turned against the king himself. Two open letters have been printed by the newspaper India, published at Gujranwala, Punjab, which address the king-emperor again and again in insulting terms. In one place they say: "Even if the entire white population of England were armed and mustered here, 300,000,000 of Indians could drive them out of the country with the aid of sticks." As the law here now stands, British protection is extended to men who make a regular living from the production of such dangerous poison for ignorant readers. And the postoffice, organized and paid for by the British administration, has no choice but to distribute it broadcast. The desire of succeeding British Parliamentarians to maintain the freedom of the Indian press has prevented the government of India from dealing effectively with this always grave evil, which has now become intolerable.

The European Defense Association of Calcutta, representing the non-official white community of the capital, today publishes an address to the government of India calling its attention to the continued boycott of British goods in Eastern Bengal and the racial friction which is still being stirred up, and demanding that government action be not deferred to a point where illegal license becomes more and more difficult to repress. The address expresses the general opinion of Europeans throughout the country, for, although outward order has been restored, the campaign of sedition continues.

YOUNG BARON SHOT AND ROBBED BY THUGS

Daring Outrage in One of the Most Aristocratic Quarters in Paris

PARIS, June 15.—Baron de Vandoeuvres, the son of an aristocrat, was shot through the arm and robbed of his purse and watch by "Apaches" last night in the neighborhood of the Arc de Triomphe.

Baron de Vandoeuvres, who is only 19, was looking for a cab on his return from a dinner party, when he was seized by the throat and thrown by two men. He struggled, and freed himself from his assailants, but the other drew a revolver and fired. He sank fainting, and the men seized the opportunity to rob him.

After a time Baron de Vandoeuvres recovered, and made his way back to his host's house, where his wound was dressed.

His assailants have not been found.

BURGLAR AS GIRL IS EXCELLENT SERVANT

Young Criminal Masquerades as Housemaid and Gives Her Mistress
Satisfaction

VIENNA, June 15.—Police yesterday entered the confectionery establishment of M. Lukacs, Budapest, and arrested the housemaid, Rosa, for burglary.

The police accused Rosa of being Alexander Nemety, a young man of 19, who was wanted for a series of ingenious thefts, and the prisoner at once admitted the identity.

Nemety explained that he was tired of hiding from the police, and that he dressed himself in girl's clothes and took service with M. Lukacs on the strength of a servant's references which he had stolen for himself.

He admitted himself excellently as a housemaid, and might not have been detected if he had not slipped out in his own clothes to revisit his old haunts and been traced back to the house.

Mme. Lukacs told the police that she considered Rosa the best servant she ever had, as she was strong and willing and never wasted time with the tradesmen.

WAR-TIME RECALLED

Suit Regarding Hay Shipped to South Africa.

Hay Dealers Take Action Against Department to Secure Indemnification for Hay Not Taken by Government.

MONTREAL, June 14.—Before the early autumn term a suit of a number of hay dealers who claim an aggregate of $30,000 for hay shipped by them to South Africa through the agency of the Department of Agriculture, Boulay and Lussier, of St. Madeleine, in the county of St. Hayacinthe, are going ahead with a test case of $20,000, and seventeen other claimants will follow the decision in this case. The claimants declare that the Department of Agriculture induced them to secure new presses at very large cost early in the war, and that they continued to ship hay by way of St. John, N. B.; that the demand caused a rise in price, which forced the claimants to pay more than the market price ruling at first; that the Government failed to take all the hay which the claimants had been instructed to buy, and that the claimants are entitled to indemnification for the balance. Mr. Mitchell G. Laroche, K. C., of this city, on behalf of the Government, pleads that the shippers bought costly presses because it suited them and that the Government is not responsible in any way. As to the amount purchased, the Government declares that by disregarding the orders of the Government officials in charge the shippers caused such a loss to St. John that it was impossible to ship the hay intended.

DR. FALCONER ACCEPTS TORONTO PRESIDENCY

Was Cordially Received and Given Every Assurance of Hearty Support.

TORONTO, Ont., June 14.—The presidency of the University of Toronto was formally offered to Dr. Robert A. Falconer by the board of governors, and by him formally accepted, at a special meeting of the governors this afternoon. The meeting was convened at the residence of the chairman, Dr. John Hoskin, who entertained as luncheon the governors, deans of faculties, the chancellor of Victoria, provost of Trinity, the premier, provincial treasurer and deputy minister of education, who all joined in the reception given to the new president of the university.

There was no lack of cordiality in the reception to Dr. Falconer, and every assurance was given of the loyalty and support on the part of all interested in the provincial university. In accepting the appointment, Dr. Falconer assured the board of governors that he would devote to the discharge of the duties of his office his full strength, and would seek to make good the confidence reposed in him not only by the board in their formal appointment, but also by the members of the faculty, who have to a degree beyond his expectations welcomed him to the university. His present plan, he said, is to study the situation and main outlines of the work before him, and to do nothing in the way of reorganization until he has ascertained for himself the essential features.

In resigning the office of President, Dr. Maurice Hutton, who was creating at a tremendous rate, national banks are prospering as never before, and Uncle Sam is doing a land office business at the stamp windows of the 70,000 or more post-offices throughout the country. Recent reports show that the crops, with the possible exception of cotton, are not as hard hit as they appeared to be a week or so ago, and with a break in the present unseasonable weather, another bumper may be registered by the Secretary of Agriculture for the year 1907. Only a short time ago Washington felt a bit concerned over the business and commercial outlook. The fluctuations in the stock market were watched with great care, and the prediction was made that if the idea once got firmly rooted in the minds of the people that the Administration really contemplated running amuck among the corporations business might go to smash, at least for a time. The business news has recently been given out, and the tension has been relieved.

"Things are looking up," said a member of the Cabinet whose duty it is to keep in touch with the business affairs. "Our prosperity is built on a solid foundation. There is no reason in the world why it should not continue uninterrupted for a long time to come."

The Government has on hand in the national strong box at the close of business today an available cash balance of $280,011,824. A year ago today the cash balance was a little more than $175,000,000. The surplus in the treasury amounts to $109,978,778. The surplus for the fiscal year, which will end June 30, within all probability approximate $78,000,000. Last year's surplus was more than $84,000,000. Receipts for the year from all sources up to date make a total of $422,834,225, as compared with $388,000,000 for the corresponding period for the last fiscal year.
