

IN PULPIT AND PEW

BAPTIST

The church is a workshop, not a dormitory, and every Christian man and woman is bound to help in the common cause.—Alexander MacLaren.

The London Missionary Society has just lost a valued worker in Dr. John Matland Stenhouse, of Union Medical College, Peking, who has been killed at the front. When the war broke out he joined the R.A.M.C., while carrying on his work for the wounded, on July 18th, he was wounded a third time by a shell. For some time he was hoped and expected that he could recover, but he passed away in hospital in Rouen, on August 25th. Dr. Stenhouse was the son of a major-general of the Indian Army. While on the staff of Union College he went to Hahur at the risk of his life to fight the plague in Manchuria. In 1911, and he led a Red Cross detachment during the Chinese Rebellion. He was a devoted missionary, a son-in-law of Dr. Hopkyn Rees and was thirty-eight years of age. He was nephew of Mr. James Stenhouse, of South Indian, Ontario.

On Monday, October 16, Dr. Clifford celebrated his eightieth birthday. With characteristic modesty he deprecated any public celebration or personal gift, but acquiesced in the proposal to mark the event by a special fund on behalf of Bosworth Hall and "Clifford's Inn," Kensal Town, W. Bosworth Hall has for more than thirty years been a centre of useful activities in a very poor district, while "Clifford's Inn," in the immediate neighborhood, is a temperance club. A sum of £1,000 is needed for expansion and development of the joint enterprises, and the friends at Westbourne Park hope that the treasurer of the scheme will be able to hand over, in the name of the subscribers, the full sum needed.

Rev. Thomas Spurgeon, who was elected to the post of director of Stockwell Orphanage, Eng., when Rev. Vernon J. Charlesworth was removed by death, is able to spend a great deal of time there—not so much, he says, to "direct" as to "cheer and encourage." Mr. Spurgeon has just received the congratulations of his friends on the attainment of his sixtieth birthday. It is three years since Mr. Spurgeon was able to preach, but quite lately he gave two or three lectures to the students at the college.

Special services have been held at the Tabernacle Church, 100, Clarendon road, Swansea, Wales, in memory of three members of the Men's Bible class who have been killed in action. Large congregations gathered, and impressive sermons were preached by the pastor, Rev. R. J. Willoughby. Out of a class of last year 200 members, 115 have joined the colors. Five of these have been killed, and twenty-five are invalided, wounded, or missing.

Netherfield is an industrial outlier of Nottingham, Eng. On Sunday morning a crowded congregation listened with rapt attention to their eminent leader, Dr. Clifford. The local Red Cross Ambulance Corps attended the service, and marched away in the falling rain to the strain of "The Maple Leaf For Ever."

Rev. L. M. Denton, who has been pastor of Olivet Baptist Church, Montreal, for the past two years, becomes the professor of New Testament Greek at the Kansas City Theological Seminary. This is the third time of late years that Olivet Church has been called upon to give its pastors to Theological work. Dr. W. N. Clarke, to Toronto Baptist College, Rev. J. L. Gilmore, D.D., to McMaster University, and now Dr. Denton, to Kansas City Seminary.

From the Maritime Baptist F. Eric Freeman, eldest son of Rev. F. S. Freeman, of Armstrong, B. C., is now in hospital in England. He was a member of the 16th Canadian Scottish, and was wounded in France, September 28th. Those who knew the father while he was a pastor in these provinces will hear with interest though with regret this item of news concerning the son.

Rev. M. L. Gregg has resigned the pastorate of the North church, Halifax, in order that he might accept the call recently extended to him by the church at Sydney. The resignation has been finally accepted, but with deep regret. Mr. Gregg has been in Halifax over four years, and his ministry there has been much blessed. The resignation will not become effective until January 1st.

The new president of the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Boston and vicinity is Rev. Austin T. Kempton, of Cambridge. He is well known among us because of his own work, but he is even better known as the son of his honored father, Rev. S. B. Kempton, D. D., of Dartmouth, N. S.

METHODIST

Bishop Berry of the M. E. Church, encouraging the canvases for the veteran ministers in the Philadelphia area, said: "A short, sharp, eager, compelling crusade will give the coveted results. Superintendents, pastors, official members, Sunday school teachers, young people, Christian women and everybody who shares in benedictions brought through the ministers, let us push the crusade with red hot zeal. If everybody will do his share, victory is already assured. Just what is needed in our province for our own men."

Mr. John Henstey of Summerside, P. E. I., a M. A. student, who enlisted as a private in the 8th Batt., has been commissioned as a lieutenant. His uncle, Serg. C. Chester Smith of Windsor, N. S., has also been promoted to lieutenant.

A memorial service was held Sunday before last in the Methodist church, Chatham, N. B., for Lieut. Cecil P. Smith, who gave his life for his country.

Rev. I. H. Freestone of Napan, had the duty of calling in one day on three homes bereaved through the death of sons at the front. Corp. Donaldson, Corp. Jones, a brother of Mrs. (Rev.) H. T. Bird of the Alberta Conference; Lance Corp. H. Peter, a member of another church, but a near neighbor.

Mr. Boyle of St. Georges, Bermuda, is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Freestone. He reports that far from losing heart at the unroofing of the church by a hurricane, they have already realized $200 by a bazaar for repairs.

Wesley Memorial Church, Moncton, celebrates its silver jubilee on November 12th and 13th. Rev. N. McLaughlin, B.A., of St. John, is the special preacher.

Last week word came to the pastor that two of the congregation had fallen. Gordon Manning and Ivan N. Carson; they were killed in action.

Private Eugene Polk of the Fighting 26th Battalion, for whom a memorial service was held lately in St. Stephen, Corp Grant of the Princess Pats delivered an impressive address. Speaking from experience, and as a Presbyterian minister, who has left his church for the trenches, he showed that the ministry has done well its part, and can return to bring to those called to sorrow the comfort of the Master.

It is very gratifying to learn that Grafton Street Church, Halifax, has raised $2,500 for the Supernumerary Endowment Fund.

The most striking reminder to our people of the war is the ever increasing list of the dead. Several of the Halifax churches held memorial services on Sunday last.

Rev. Dr. Chove has lately visited the Peace River and he tells of the great needs of the work there. There is 125,000 square miles with only two Methodist and three Presbyterian missionaries. Speaking of the mission coast, he said it was greater than that of Grenfell in the east. There are seven thousand miles of coastline and not one foot of it frozen. He hoped some one would come forward and save the ship, Thomas Crosby, from the lonely north west coast.

Rev. Geo. F. Dawson, M.A., has been invited to Exmouth Street Church for 1917.

Rev. George Steel, superintendent of missions, so well-known and highly respected in this city, has been presented with a certificate of life membership by the Portland Street Church auxiliary.

Lieut. Stanley A. son of the Rev. George Walker, a well-known supernumerary of Toronto, and graduate of Toronto University, and a former house surgeon of the Toronto General Hospital, died at the battlefield in France. His brother, Capt. R. R. Walker is in active service with the Dental Corps.

More than one thousand new members have joined the church since the new year, in the M. E. church, in the Philippines, and ten churches have become self-supporting. Ten new centres have been opened and named.

The new Methodist Cathedral was dedicated last week in Minneapolis. The height of spire above the side walk is 250 feet. Length of building, 220 feet. Capacity of main auditorium, 1,000 persons. Value of site $50,000. Total cost of building and furnishings $550,000. It is a fine set of buildings for church purposes, is well situated for the accomplishment of a great work for God and the city. The new leader who is entering on the work is awaited by a host of loyal Methodists, who are prepared to love and follow him. His ten year pastorate at Germantown argues well for his constructive powers. His reputation as such assures him a royal welcome. To all hearts and homes will be welcome Dr. Charles Wesley Burns. There is a time to be strict, both with others and ourselves. In the Old Testament times, God, while ever leading His people on to better things, overlooked many details, which were the characteristic product of "times of ignorance." But now, as Paul declared at Athens, God commandeth all men to repent of the evil, to rise to better and broader conceptions of personal duty and racial destiny, and in daily life, to follow closely in the footsteps of the Holy Christ. Now that Christ has come there is no room for knowledge, not of ignorance, and men should govern themselves in accordance with the increased illumination of the Gospel.

At the memorial service in the Presbyterian church, Woodstock, N. B., the 5th Battalion, under command of Capt. J. Charlton Berrie, was present, and at the conclusion of the service the bugler sounded the "last post" and the members of the battery stood to attention, when God Save the King was sung.

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. D. McD. Clarke of Northport, N. S., formerly of Chipman, N. B., spent a few days in St. John recently, part of his annual vacation.

Principal MacKinnon and Professor Kent of Halifax Presbyterian College, are now in England, having gone overseas recently with a Nova Scotia Battalion, the former as chaplain, the latter as captain of a company.

Rev. C. A. Myers of Toronto, associate secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies, preached in St. Andrew's Church, St. John, last Sabbath morning, and in St. David's Church in the evening. He was here in connection with the Older Boys' Conference.

Rev. E. W. Thompson of Calvin Church, St. John, supplied the pulpit of Greenock Church, St. Andrews, last Sabbath. Rev. W. M. Fraser, the pastor, is steadily improving in health.

Rev. M. H. Morton, with his wife and family, who have been the guests of Mrs. Morton's father, Hon. J. C. Forbes of St. John, for the summer months, sailed from Halifax Oct. 20 on return to the work of the Canadian Presbyterian Mission in Trinidad. They were accompanied by Mrs. John Morton, who during her stay of more than a year in Canada, has prepared for the publishers a number of life and work of her late husband, Dr. John Morton, the pioneer missionary to the East Indians of Trinidad, who labored among them from the year 1867 till his death in 1912.

Rev. A. D. Sterling of Scotchburn, N. S., has accepted the call to St. Matthew's church, Inverness, N. S., and completes his ministry in his present congregation tomorrow. Rev. T. H. Foster of Durham, a neighboring congregation, will be the interim moderator of Scotchburn session.

On Nov. 2nd, the Presbytery of Pictou, N. S., held its annual session at the late of Alford, Ont. to the pastorate of St. John's church, Stellarton, N. S., vacant since the removal of Rev. W. A. Cunningham to western Canada in June last. Mr. Matheson has already been pastor of St. John's Church, preceding Mr. Cunningham, and his recall heartily and unanimously is a token of the abiding place he holds in the affections of his former congregation.

Rev. J. I. Manthorne of Avonmore, in the presbytery of Glenora, Ontario, has received a call to the Presbyterian church in Somerville, Mass.

Rev. W. D. Turner, late of Blith, Ont., was recently inducted to the pastoral charge of Calvin Westminster church, Montreal. Amalgamation has recently been effected between Calvin and Westminster churches, Montreal, and the united congregation has taken the united name, Calvin Westminster.

The presbytery of Prince Edward Island has appointed Rev. W. J. McLeod ordained missionary to Covehead congregation for one year.

Frank Yeigh, prominent in Presbyterian Church circles in Toronto, a well-known magazine writer and lecturer, has gone to spend six months in the United States, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., lecturing on Canadian resources and conditions before industrial and representative bodies in educational and commercial circles in different parts of the States.

The presbytery of Winnipeg, finding its work increasing extensively and intensively, has added to the number of its regular meetings, and will in future meet once a month.

St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, Ont., vacant more than a year since the resignation of Rev. S. J. M. Compton on his appointment as chaplain to the overseas forces, has extended a call to Rev. J. W. Stephen, late of Avenue Road Church, Toronto.

The officers of the Alumni Association of Halifax Presbyterian College, elected at the annual meeting during Synod week in Toronto, are as follows: President, Rev. D. A. Frame, (re-elected); 1st vice-pres., Rev. J. A. Anderson; 2nd vice-pres., Rev. E. Lockhart; 3rd vice-pres., Rev. G. H. Forbes; sec.-treas., Rev. R. S. Layton, (re-elected); auditors, Revs. M. H. McIntosh and A. Whidden; member of college library committee, Rev. E. H. Ramsay. Representatives in the several presbyteries are as follows: Revs. J. H. Hamilton, Sydney; J. A. MacLellan, Inverness; J. A. Macdonald, Pictou; W. P. Grant, Truro; H. D. Earle, Wallace; G. W. Miller, Halifax; G. A. E. McKean, Lunenburg and Yarmouth; M. M. Macneil, St. John; J. R. Miller, Miramichi; Alex. McKay, P. E. I.; J. C. McDonald, Trinidad.

A committee of the presbytery of St. John, consisting of Revs. F. W. Thompson, Gordon Dickie, W. M. Townsend and J. H. A. Anderson, all of St. John, made an official visitation of the congregation of Lorneville on Monday evening, Oct. 23. Mr. Thompson was chairman, Mr. Anderson conducted the conference with minister, elders and trustees on the life and work of the congregation, Mr. Dickie and Townsend gave heartening and helpful addresses to the goodly gathering present. The people and minister of Lorneville have recently had their trial by fire, but upon a new and suitable site a new manse is being erected and will be ready for occupancy in the near future. Much credit is due for their courage and energy. Rev. A. J. Langlois is minister.

At the recent semi-annual meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions held in Toronto, much business of a routine but vital character was transacted. Reports were made upon the various aspects of the administrative work of the board, a general review was made of the whole field and plans were formulated for the maintenance of operations. The estimates for next year were made in due mindfulness of the war and the consequent stringency of funds.

The general policy followed was to make provision for the holding of the ground hitherto occupied, with prospect of expansion after the war is over. The estimates were kept down to the bare requirements of operation. Curtailment was made in estimates asked for by missionaries on the fields looking to an extension in buildings to keep necessary pace with the demands of expanding work. For example, while the missionaries in Central India, with all due conservatism, asked for $35,000 for the purpose of erecting necessary buildings, the board after full consideration of the whole situation, decided to cut the grant for this purpose to $25,000. And again, where $13,500 was asked for in a similar way for Korea, only $8,000. This was typical of the economy practised by the board, running the risk of crippling the work in order to keep within the probable revenue from the gifts of the people.

An encouraging feature was the treasurer's report, which showed that the offerings of the people to date this current year exceed that the same period of last year. It was further reported that government officials in India, China, and Formosa were showing a very kindly attitude to the work of Christian missions, making subscriptions to the work and offering titles of land for the erection of churches, schools and hospitals. In Korea, too, the work is spreading, not only to Manchuria, where Rev. W. R. Poole has been laboring for over a year, but also into Russia, whither Koreans have fled from their native country. The feature of this expanding work is that the Korean Christians themselves become enthusiastic missionaries to their kindred beyond the bounds of their own home land.

It was reported that Dr. S. H. Martin, medical missionary, Kanto, Manchuria, has in three months treated 2,200 cases. Rev. Milton Jack has retired from the principality of St. John's college at Taipei, North Formosa, and has been succeeded by Rev. William Gault. The designation service of Rev. W. A. Hunter to missionary work in Trinidad was held in St. John's Church, Toronto, on the evening of the closing of the board meeting, when addresses were given by missionaries and others present. Among those who attended this meeting of the board was Rev. J. A. MacKinnon of St. John.
