Former Ball Player Killed By An Auto

Ralph Orlando Seybold, Wonderful Right Fielder, Lost Life in Automobile Accident.

By James C. Leaminger.
Ralph Orlando Seybold, as Charles Dryden always tagged him, was the fittest of every baseball fan of Philadelphia during the days the Athletics sported in the old wooden palace at Twenty-ninth street and Columbia avenue.

News of the death of the rightfielder in an automobile accident near Jeannette, Pa., reached Philadelphia Tuesday.

"I was very sorry to hear about Sox's death," said Connie Mack yesterday, "as I always had a great deal of esteem for him. Sox was one of the great outfielders of his day. Sox joined me during the first season of the Athletics as an American league team in 1901. He has on my payroll until the end of the season of 1920, a twisted knee ending his career."

"Of late years I haven't heard much from him, for he was in the notion of writing letters but I knew he was living in comfortable circumstances at his home in Jeannette, Pa."

Weighted 200 pounds.

Sox was one of the bulkiest men who ever played the outfield. He weighed fully 200 pounds when with the Athletics. He was naturally stout and even in his last days was a great mouthful of a man.

Seybold was almost the right-handed Babe Ruth of his time, although baseball, manufactured at that period could not travel as fast as the "ruthier" of 1920 and 1921. He was the very number on Mr. Mack's batting order of that day.

A casual person who stood up Seybold at the park would at once realize that he could hit, but would invariably add that he was slow and could not field. As a matter of fact, he was not slow. He only looked slow, and that was because of his enormous size.

Even ball players were fooled, even teammates on the Athletics club. It is a little history that John Shibe, one of the owners of the Athletics, was the first to appraise Seybold at his true worth.

Sox was such a jovial fellow that he was always a center of interest on the team. Everybody on the club liked him. He was always kidding.

Yet the players did not all know how fast Sox could travel. They were as much deceived as the man in the stand.

Therefore, when a certain player made some reflection on Sox's speed, John Shibe was nearby and heard him. He said: "This is no set, but I will give you $100 if Sox can't beat Toggery Harrel in a 100-yard race."

The player, who had everything to win and nothing to lose, gladly consented and thought that he would be sure of a century note in his pocket that night.

The great thrower measured off the required distance, and to the surprise of nearly everybody on the field, Sox bursted the tape well in front of Toggery Harrel, who had sprinted his best, was furious over the result. The Athletics players who saw this test never made any remarks thereafter about Sox's being slow.

Let Connie Mack tell the tale of how Sox defended rightfield at Columbia Park. He said:

"Sox was one outfielder who watched the pitcher and the batsman. Time and time I have seen a batter shoot to right field and believed that the batter had a double or triple only to see Sox in a dead line waiting for it. His judgment of a batter was infallible. He knew how to play for the batsman. He shifted and played differently for every batsman. Nobody ever played rightfield in the history of Philadelphia."

Trojans Trimmed Mt. Allison Team

University Players Went Down to Defeat by Score of 59 to 20.

Playing before a bumper house, the Trojans, of the Y. M. C. A., defeated the Mount Allison basketball team by a score of 59 to 20, in the Y. M. C. A. gym last evening. Brilliant basketball was featured by both teams throughout the entire game. Although the Trojans were somewhat the superior, the university boys were game opponents, and in the first half especially set a pace that even the Trojans were hard put to keep up with.

The combination that the local boys brought to play, however, completely outlasted their opponents, and at the same time brought forth also a fair amount of well merited applause from the spectators.

Malcolm, the stalwart Trojan center, was the star of the evening. A number of these he sent the ball into the net by jumping and shooting again on the rebound after the first shot failed to find the basket.

Uppshart played his usual brainy game. Macdonald and Garret, the defense men, were towers of strength to their team. Garret is a new Trojan recruit, but demonstrated last night that he held fair to be one of the star defense men in the City League. Shaw, who replaced Kerr in the second half, netted several additional points for his team. Kerr still showed signs of his recent illness, which deterred him from playing as fast a game as he might have otherwise.

R. Ashford, the Mount "A" center, in the opening moments of the game displayed a remarkable aptness at shooting baskets, but the fast pace set had a detrimental effect on his eye and nerves as the game continued. Charles was the star man for the Sackville squad, and Downey also played a good game.

The Mount "A" boys had a good many loyal rooters present, who did their best to rally their team with the old "M" "Y" yell.

The line-up of the teams and the individual scoring follows:

Trojans (6) Mount "A" (20)
Forward.....
Uppshart (12) Downey (6)
Kerr (2) Clarke (10)

Malcolm (23) R. Ashford (2)

Garret (6) H. Ashford (2)
Macdonald (4) Prince Spare.

Shaw (6) Reid (5)
Referee—George Margolis.

Girls' Game.

A girls' game between the Byng Girls of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. Young Ladies' League was featured as a preliminary game. The Byng girls won out by a score of 3 to 2. Close checking prevented heavy scoring. The lineups follow:

Byng Girls (3) Y. M. C. A. Girls (2)
Forward.....
Miss D. Love (2) Miss M. Ellison
Miss E. Hunt Miss D. Simmonds

of the Athletics better than Seybold.

Seybold also holds the record of hitting the longest drive in the history of Columbia park, which lasted eight years. He drove a ball over the fence in left corner that ran up a small street next to Matt Kilroy's place. He was located in that spot in the old Athletics days.

Seybold was always a fixture in right until the season of 1908. On the spring training trip that year in New Orleans he hurt his knee sliding into home plate and was virtually of no use to the team for the rest of the season. He was kept on the payroll until the end of the season.

47 Years Old At Death.

Sox was 47 years old when he met his death. He was born in Washington, D. C. He began his professional baseball career in 1893 in Altoona, that town which has sent so many players to the big leagues.

Johnstown, Altoona's next door neighbor, got him the next year and then after a year in Franklin, he signed in Lancaster and played there in 1906 in the old Pennsylvania State League.

When Sox left Lancaster he drifted south and had a little experience in Richmond, Va. Then Cincinnati got him.

The writer, then a kid in short pants, very well remembers Seybold making his first visit to the Cincinnati ball park on Western avenue and Findlay streets one morning. He looked bigger than a Cincinnati brewery collector. A kind of kid around the park, laughed when he walked to the entrance to get on a uniform for morning practice.

Sox's appearance seemed him the first day. He was more relaxed. These were the days of Willie Keady, when speed was demanded, and Sox never had a fair chance to Cincinnati. John T. Brush, then owner of the Reds, turned him out to Indianapolis, and later Connie Mack got him for his Athletics team in the Western League, and when the American League was formed, Sox was fetched out to Philadelphia.

Injured Players On Alerts' Team

Senior Game for City League Scheduled for Wednesday Has Been Changed.

The Senior Game for the City League, scheduled for Wednesday the 11th has been changed—two of the Alerts' team having been injured. Ryan, the Alerts' centre and manager, is out of the game for the time being, on account of an injured shoulder through playing hockey. "Buddy" Christie in the end of his ankle in a game with the Trojans at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday.

Consequently the Alerts will be unable to play their scheduled game on Wednesday. Arrangements have been made for the following Wednesday's game to be played instead, when the Y. M. C. A. seniors will meet the Alerts. It is hoped the Alerts will be back in the game again in time for their next scheduled game. The intermediate games will be played as per schedule.

MONCTON TEAM FOR EASTERN SECTION

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 9.—Moncton will have a team in the eastern section of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Amateur Hockey League. That was definitely decided at a meeting of the local supporters of amateur hockey Saturday night.

The Championship Medals Donated

Thomas McCaffrey, Supt. of Canada Steamship Ocean Service, Shows Interest in Big Event.

Already public spirited citizens are coming forward and offering their aid in the making of the approaching St. John Skating Meet—the biggest event of its kind ever held in Eastern Canada—a success. Yesterday, Thomas McCaffrey, Superintendent of the Canada Steamship Ocean Service, of Montreal, announced that he would donate a set of medals for the most, Mr. McCaffrey is a Montrealeis, but his love of sport is not bounded by the city limits of the Canadian metropolis.

Arrangements Made For Hockey Rink

East End Grounds Will be Put in Shape—Play Commences in Two Weeks.

The fact that St. John is to have a hockey rink, and fast games will be played with outside teams this winter, will sound good to the hockey fans.

Arrangements have been completed to build the rink on the East End grounds, right in front of the grand stand. The rink will be 90 feet wide and 185 long. Work has been commenced and everything will be ready week after next.

The St. John hockey team which made such a good showing in Fredericton last week are happy that they will now have a chance to play games at home instead of travelling to other parts of the province.

Among the teams that will be brought to St. John are Fredericton, Moncton, Chatham and Shediac.

The lovers of hockey have been waiting for games in the city, and it is now up to them to patronise the games and show their appreciation.

McWhorter And Steimetz Coming

Have Been Selected to Represent Chicago in Canadian Championships Here Next Week.

The physical committee of the Y. M. C. A. have received entries from Roy McWhorter and William Steimetz, both of Chicago, for the Canadian National Amateur Skating Championships, which are to be held on Lake Ontario on January 14 and 15. At the International Championships at Lake Placid, last year, McWhorter came in second to Everett Macdonald in the mile event; he won the 800 yards event in the National Championships at Saranac Lake, and finished third in the two mile, Steimetz finished second in the 800 yards at Winnipeg last year, he finished one and a half to Lake Placid in the mile event.

Showing The Spirit of Amateurism

Something of Interest to Athletes During the Present Controversy in the Maritime Provinces.

In the light of the present controversy in regard to amateurism in the Maritime Provinces, the following "Declaration of Spirit of Amateurism" as applied to Y. M. C. A. athletes in the North American Continent, is interesting:

An amateur athlete is one who participates in competitive games or athletics for pleasure only and for the benefit of his physical, mental, moral and social benefits directly derived therefrom.

The spirit of amateurism carries with it all that is included in the definition of an amateur and much more. The spirit of amateurism stands for a high sense of honor, honesty, fair play and courtesy and temperate living on the part of the participants, hosts or guests, officials and spectators. It stoops to no petty technicalities to twist or evade the rules or to take an unfair advantage of opponents.

It implies a recognition of the marked influence of athletics in developing organic vigor, physical fitness, intellectual efficiency, moral qualities, and social habits. It seeks to increase their value by exalting the standards of all sports.

It is opposed to all practices which are harmful to individuals or to amateur athletics in general, such as playing for money or sale of any kind, betting, selling prizes, promoting, or over-exploiting of "star performers" to the exclusion of the "rank and file."
