

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

FREDERICTON

Frederick Dec. 1—Lady Ashburnham was Tuesday afternoon hostess at a pleasant tea, given in honor of Miss Waycott, who received with her and whose marriage to Mr. Belyea is announced to take place this month.

Miss Letimere entertained at a girls' tea on Monday afternoon, when Miss Gamblin was the guest of honor. In the tea room Mrs. McGrath and Mrs. Montgomery poured and Miss Pauline McLeod, Miss Marion Crockett and Miss Mary O'Neill assisted.

The Monday Club met this week with Mrs. A. J. Thompson as the prize winner and Mrs. A. J. Thompson got the guest prize.

The Ladies' Club met last evening with Mrs. W. H. Steeves as the prize winner.

Mrs. Donnan and her daughter, Mrs. Morton, who have been visiting Mrs. Donnan's sister, Mrs. F. P. Robinson, leave tomorrow for their home in Portland (Me.).

The Red Cross tea and dance given at the Palms on Saturday afternoon by Miss Letimere and Mr. Vanwart was much enjoyed by a large number of the young members of society.

Miss Winter, supervisor of women's institutes, has returned from a pleasant visit of four weeks spent with friends in Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Dr. Ryan, of Bolton, who has been spending a week here visiting her old home, returned today.

Mrs. George Taylor entertained at a bridge of eight tables this afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Whyde, of Halifax, when Mrs. Ross Thompson was the prize winner.

Colonel and Mrs. T. G. Loggie have returned from an enjoyable two months trip to the Canadian west and the Pacific coast.

Some of the friends of Miss Waycott tendered a gift to her last evening at the home of Miss Cooper. Many bright and witty expressions of congratulations were read in the notes accompanying the useful gifts.

Mrs. Robert Fitz Randolph has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 1—Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Robert Nicholson entertained a number of ladies most pleasantly at the 66 hour at her home on Pleasant street.

Miss Vera Carruthers, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. J. McArthur, for several weeks, returned to her home in Summerside last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smallwood and little son, of Moncton, have been visiting the former's home during the past week.

Mrs. J. D. Volkman, of Millerton, spent the week-end with Mrs. W. M. Sinclair.

Mr. James Matheson, after an absence of some thirty-seven years in the western States, arrived in town last Saturday to visit his mother, Mrs. Thomas Matheson, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia.

Miss Lillian Williamson is the guest of Mrs. Harry Brown, of Nelson, this week.

Mrs. Henry Devereaux, of New York, and her brother, Mr. James Brown, of Mexico, arrived in town last week to visit their mother, Mrs. George Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lindon announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Isabel Ethel, to William Waulding, of Concord (N. H.), the marriage to take place Dec. 22.

Mr. William Masson, of Alcorn (Sask.) was called home owing to the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Frank Masson. Mrs. Masson's friends will be pleased to hear she is slightly improved.

Miss Katherine Lynch, of Fredericton, is the guest of Miss Edith Burchill, of Nelson.

Mrs. John Russell entertained a few friends at an enjoyable knitting party at her home on Monday evening.

Mrs. Chester C. Hayward is recovering from her recent illness.

A very enjoyable and highly appreciated parlor concert was given at the home of Mrs. George Flett, of Nelson, last Wednesday evening, under the supervision of Miss Mary McDermid and Miss Agnes Flett.

The Misses Elizabeth and Ella Parker will leave on Friday for New York, where they will remain for the winter months.

Newcastle citizens were deeply grieved on Tuesday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. E. P. Williston at her home here. Deceased lady, who was summering at Bay du Vin, had the misfortune to fall and break one of her legs, and being advanced in years she never fully recovered from the shock. Deceased was well and favorably known, was formerly Miss Eliza Broder, of this town, and leaves two brothers, John, of Newcastle, and James, of Strathadam, besides her husband, Mr. E. Penley Williston, and one son, John E. B. Williston, now with the Canadian forces in France, and one daughter, Mrs. Tracey Gould, who has been residing with her parents.

Mr. John Dewar, teller in the Royal Bank here, has enlisted with the 132nd North Shore battalion, for overseas service.

His younger brother, Dan, of Campbellton, has also enlisted with the same battalion, thus making the fourth son, and Mrs. Angus Dewar have given up their king and country.

Mrs. Robert Hutchinson, who has been visiting friends in town, returned to her home in Rexton Wednesday morning.

Newcastle, Dec. 8—Sheriff and Mrs. John O'Brien and son Max, of Nelson, and Daniel and Hector MacGarric attended the Harry Lauder concert in St. John this week.

Deputy-Sheriff William Irving spent Wednesday with his daughter, Miss Ida Irving.

Private Earl MacDonald, of the 182nd, returned on Wednesday from St. John. Mrs. Wm. Touchie is visiting relatives in Montreal.

Mrs. D. C. Smallwood is laid up with several dislocated ribs, caused by an accident.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Dec. 1—It has become known that the acting rector of the Church of England, the Rev. E. C. Budd, and Mrs. Budd will leave very shortly to take charge of the parish at Southampton, York county. The successor to Rev. Budd is not yet known. Although Rev. and Mrs. Budd have only been here a short time, yet they have made many friends who regret exceedingly their departure. Mrs. Budd will be greatly missed both in church and Red Cross work, in which she has taken a special interest.

Miss Bernice Emerson spent last Wednesday in Amherst, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Julian Cornell. She was accompanied home by little Ruth Cornell, who will spend some time here.

Miss Marie McDonald and Miss Miss Louise Purves, Mary Ward, Louise Busby and Myrtle Ganong were the hostesses. These teas increase in popularity each week, and quite a sum of money has been realized from them.

Mrs. Charles Henderson and Miss Maude Mackie were hostesses at a theatre party at the St. Croix Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Maxwell, of Old Ridge, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mrs. Frederick Grimmer left this morning for her home in Houlton, after a pleasant visit of a month in town with friends.

Miss Emma Robinson leaves this evening for Montreal en route to Winnipeg where she will visit relatives.

Friends of Lieutenant J. Carleton Brown, in St. Stephen and throughout the province, will be interested to know he has been transferred from the Canadian force to the Royal Engineers of the imperial army, and has gone to France to join his new regiment. Lieutenant Brown went to England last September with the draft from the 56th Battalion, C. E. F., and for some time has been an officer on the instructional staff at the Colt Machine Gun School at Shoeburyness, where he expected to remain during the winter.

Miss Mildred Todd has given invitations to a number of lady friends to enjoy bridge at her home on Thursday afternoon from 8 until 10 o'clock.

Miss Blanche O'Brien, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Burnett, has returned to her home in Moncton.

Miss Ruth Kingston, of the Highland View Hospital staff, Amherst, was the guest of friends here last week.

Miss Blanche Wallace, of Pictou (N. S.), and the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Tait.

Miss Imogene Chapman is the guest of friends in Moncton for a week.

Mrs. James Walker spent a few days last week in Amherst. Mrs. Walker leaves on Monday for England to join her husband, Private James Walker, of the 55th battalion, and also to visit her parents in England.

The friends of Private William Gillespie will be pleased to hear that he is much improved and expects very shortly to leave the military hospital in Quebec, where he has been for the past few weeks owing to illness.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey left this week for Amherst, where she is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Douglas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met last week at the home of the Misses Percy.

The W. A. of Trinity church met this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. McQueen.

Miss Jessie Browne has returned to her home in Truro (N. S.) after spending Sunday at her home here.

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, Dec. 1—Miss Kathleen Cockburn is visiting friends in McAdam.

Word has been received that Sergeant O'Connell is out of danger, and is in Shorelife (Eng.).

Mrs. G. Durell Grimmer entertained at the tea hour on Saturday last.

Miss Nellie Mowat spent a few days in Beaver Harbor last week.

Mrs. M. N. Cockburn is visiting relatives in Calais (Me.).

Miss Norine Cunningham has returned to Boston after an extended visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Angus Kennedy.

Miss Alice Grimmer returned from a trip to St. Stephen on Tuesday.

Miss Mary Hunt has returned to Boston.

Mrs. Angus Rigby and Mrs. Gus Rigby have been visiting St. Stephen friends this week.

Mrs. Sarah Simpson is spending the winter in Houlton (Me.).

Miss Madeline Kennedy went to St. Stephen on Monday.

Captain Vernon Lamb has left England and has gone to the Mediterranean.

Mrs. James Monahan, who has been the guest of Mrs. Howard Rigby, has returned to Elmville.

Mr. Wm. Mason, of England, is the guest of his brother, Mr. Arthur Mason.

Mr. G. Durell Grimmer has been in Campbell for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith have returned to California, after spending a pleasant summer in St. Andrews.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Dec. 1—The first meeting of the Woman's Canadian Club for the winter season was held last Thursday evening in the Methodist vestry.

Mr. George J. Clarke presided, and in the absence of Miss Victoria Vroom, the secretary, Mrs. Charles E. Huestis filled her place.

After the business meeting Dr. Campbell, of Mount Allison College, gave most eloquent and interesting address the subject, "Britain and the War." There was also a musical programme in which the Misses Busby, Miss Georgie Nesbitt, and Miss Elva Nicholson took part.

O. Canada was sung by the club, and at the close of the meeting the National Anthem.

Miss Maude Marks entertained very pleasantly the whist club of which she is a member, at her home last Friday evening. The prize was won by Mrs. Anna Grimmer, who has a special gift for the evening.

Mrs. Walter McWha is spending a few days in Montreal.

Mr. Frederick W. Andrews was not at a matinee party at the Bijou Theatre on Saturday at which fourteen very young ladies were his guests. The party was given for the pleasure of his little grand-nieces, Misses Elizabeth, Winifred and Marjorie Mills and their young friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David F. Maxwell have returned from Woodstock, where they went to spend a day or two with their son, Lieutenant Reginald Maxwell, of the 104th Battalion.

Mrs. Frederick D. Jordan, of Bangor, and her young son, Robert, spent Thanksgiving Day in Calais with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Franklin M. Eaton.

Mrs. Kenneth Inches, of St. John, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Inches.

Mr. John Clark Taylor has gone to Brookline (Mass.), to spend the winter with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gardner have returned from Winsted (Conn.), where they have been residing since their marriage last September.

Mrs. Arthur Ellis leaves this week for Folkestone (Eng.), where her husband, Sergeant Ellis, is stationed and will spend the winter there.

At the Soldiers Comforts' Association tea Saturday afternoon, Misses Louise Purves, Mary Ward, Louise Busby and Myrtle Ganong were the hostesses. These teas increase in popularity each week, and quite a sum of money has been realized from them.

Mrs. Charles Henderson and Miss Maude Mackie were hostesses at a theatre party at the St. Croix Opera House on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Maxwell, of Old Ridge, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mrs. Frederick Grimmer left this morning for her home in Houlton, after a pleasant visit of a month in town with friends.

Miss Emma Robinson leaves this evening for Montreal en route to Winnipeg where she will visit relatives.

Friends of Lieutenant J. Carleton Brown, in St. Stephen and throughout the province, will be interested to know he has been transferred from the Canadian force to the Royal Engineers of the imperial army, and has gone to France to join his new regiment.

Lieutenant Brown went to England last September with the draft from the 56th Battalion, C. E. F., and for some time has been an officer on the instructional staff at the Colt Machine Gun School at Shoeburyness, where he expected to remain during the winter.

Miss Mildred Todd has given invitations to a number of lady friends to enjoy bridge at her home on Thursday afternoon from 8 until 10 o'clock.

Miss Blanche O'Brien, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Burnett, has returned to her home in Moncton.

Miss Ruth Kingston, of the Highland View Hospital staff, Amherst, was the guest of friends here last week.

Miss Blanche Wallace, of Pictou (N. S.), and the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Tait.

Miss Imogene Chapman is the guest of friends in Moncton for a week.

Mrs. James Walker spent a few days last week in Amherst. Mrs. Walker leaves on Monday for England to join her husband, Private James Walker, of the 55th battalion, and also to visit her parents in England.

The friends of Private William Gillespie will be pleased to hear that he is much improved and expects very shortly to leave the military hospital in Quebec, where he has been for the past few weeks owing to illness.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey left this week for Amherst, where she is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Douglas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met last week at the home of the Misses Percy.

The W. A. of Trinity church met this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. McQueen.

Miss Jessie Browne has returned to her home in Truro (N. S.) after spending Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey left this week for Amherst, where she is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Douglas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met last week at the home of the Misses Percy.

The W. A. of Trinity church met this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. McQueen.

Miss Jessie Browne has returned to her home in Truro (N. S.) after spending Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey left this week for Amherst, where she is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Douglas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met last week at the home of the Misses Percy.

The W. A. of Trinity church met this week at the home of Mrs. J. A. McQueen.

Miss Jessie Browne has returned to her home in Truro (N. S.) after spending Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey left this week for Amherst, where she is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Douglas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met last week at the home of the Misses Percy.

U. S. PRESIDENT AND HIS BRIDE-TO-BE

Latest picture, taken at the Army and Navy football game last week.

future residing. Mrs. Whitley and family will remain in Shediac some few weeks longer, when they will join Mr. Whitley in his new field of labor.

Mr. O. M. McLanahan and daughter, Miss Lena, returned on Wednesday evening's train from spending a few days in St. John. On Tuesday evening they were among those enjoying the Harry Lauder concert.

Mrs. Margaret Miller, of St. Andrews street, today received word from Ottawa stating that her son, Stanley, of the 13th battalion, was officially reported wounded and had been admitted to one of the base hospitals suffering from gunshot wounds in the right leg.

Sussex, Dec. 3—A marriage of much interest took place Thursday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Maggs, when her daughter, Mrs. Mary Maggs, was united to Mr. Herbert McFadden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Rice in the presence of only immediate relatives.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. C. W. Maggs, wore a handsome travelling suit of navy blue serge, with black velvet picture hat, Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left on the afternoon train for a trip to New York. On their return they will reside in Sussex.

Among those from here to attend the Lauder concert in St. John, Tuesday evening, were Mrs. J. M. Kinross, Mr. and Mrs. Percy P. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. J. Everett Keith, Mrs. G. N. Pearson, Miss Sybil McAnn, Miss Lottie Maggs, Mrs. G. M. Suffren, Miss Kiehl, Mr. C. T. Nesbitt, Lieutenant Armstrong, Mrs. H. G. Ashford, and others.

Master Raymond Lutz entertained a few of his boy friends Tuesday evening, in honor of his birthday. Some of those present were Masters Fred Reid, Hubert Williams, Raleigh Keith, Fred Sharp and Fred Forbes.

Rev. George McDonald spent Tuesday in St. John.

Mrs. S. H. Langstroth has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Pettitcodiac.

Miss Annie Huestis is visiting friends in St. John.

Mr. C. A. Keith, Pettitcodiac, is spending the week here.

Miss Jean E. Allison returned Tuesday to Sackville, after spending a short time with her mother, Mrs. Leonard Allison.

Miss Jean Connelly is the guest of Miss Nettie Morrison.

Lieutenant Frank Smith, St. John, is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Jonah.

Mrs. Frank Foster, who was called here on account of the serious illness of her father, has returned to her home in Fredericton.

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 2—The following, taken from Winnipeg papers, will interest a large number of Chatham people: "A patriotic dance was held Tuesday evening in the Royal Alexandra Hotel in aid of the Lord Strathcona Horse, K. C., overseas, Christmas parcel fund. A programme of eighteen dances was given by the 61st regimental band. The patronesses for the evening were Mrs. F. Homer-Dickson, Mrs. R. D. Waugh, Mrs. E. R. Chisholm and Mrs. W. A. Ross. The success of the event was largely due to the efforts of Miss Doris McMullin. In appreciation of her work the patronesses presented Miss McMullin with a bouquet of pale mauve chrysanthemums. Mayor Waugh made the presentation. Miss McMullin referred to in the above is a granddaughter of Col. S. U. and Mrs. McCulley, of Chatham, and prior to her departure for the west lived here. She has a host of friends, who will be greatly interested in the above."

Mrs. H. B. McDonald has returned from a short visit to St. John (N. B.), where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Chandler Lobban, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Sackville, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. Wilnot Eddy, of the Royal Bank of Canada, Moncton, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Eddy, over Sunday.

Mr. Newton Tyler, of the Miramichi Lumber Company's staff, is in town for a few days en route to spend his holidays with his parents in New York after having returned to his home in the heavy sleigh before recruiting in St. John.

Capt. Fred G. Burr, paymaster of the 182nd Battalion, is in town this week, and is receiving the congratulatory of his many friends upon receiving his appointment to the rank of captain.

Mr. Amos Dickson, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), was in town last week, the guest of his mother, Mrs. D. Dickson.

Mr. Blaine Murray, of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has resigned his position and qualified in the 182nd North Shore battalion. He is the only son of Robert Murray, K. C. of Chatham.

Mrs. L. P. Wallace and little son, of Moncton, were in town last week, guests of Mrs. Wallace's mother.

Mr. H. C. Roy, of the firm of H. R. Gooddy & Co., Quebec, is in town, the guest of Mr. F. E. Neale.

Lieut. Holmes, of the 182nd, is in town and will commence drilling the recruits of the battalion in the exhibition building today.

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 3—(Special)—Recruiting Officer Murdoch has received orders to accept recruits for the mechanical transport service of the imperial army and already has had one application for this branch of the service.

Recruiting for the 182nd is going on steadily, there being 53 sworn in to date, besides six who have passed the doctor's examination and will leave shortly to join the heavy siege battery mobilizing in St. John.

Mrs. Margaret Miller, of St. Andrews street, today received word from Ottawa stating that her son, Stanley, of the 13th battalion, was officially reported wounded and had been admitted to one of the base hospitals suffering from gunshot wounds in the right leg.

Sussex, Dec. 3—A marriage of much interest took place Thursday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Maggs, when her daughter, Mrs. Mary Maggs, was united to Mr. Herbert McFadden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Rice in the presence of only immediate relatives.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. C. W. Maggs, wore a handsome travelling suit of navy blue serge, with black velvet picture hat, Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left on the afternoon train for a trip to New York. On their return they will reside in Sussex.

Among those from here to attend the Lauder concert in St. John, Tuesday evening, were Mrs. J. M. Kinross, Mr. and Mrs. Percy P. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. J. Everett Keith, Mrs. G. N. Pearson, Miss Sybil McAnn, Miss Lottie Maggs, Mrs. G. M. Suffren, Miss Kiehl, Mr. C. T. Nesbitt, Lieutenant Armstrong, Mrs. H. G. Ashford, and others.

Master Raymond Lutz entertained a few of his boy friends Tuesday evening, in honor of his birthday. Some of those present were Masters Fred Reid, Hubert Williams, Raleigh Keith, Fred Sharp and Fred Forbes.

Rev. George McDonald spent Tuesday in St. John.

Mrs. S. H. Langstroth has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Pettitcodiac.

Miss Annie Huestis is visiting friends in St. John.

Mr. C. A. Keith, Pettitcodiac, is spending the week here.

Miss Jean E. Allison returned Tuesday to Sackville, after spending a short time with her mother, Mrs. Leonard Allison.

Miss Jean Connelly is the guest of Miss Nettie Morrison.

Lieutenant Frank Smith, St. John, is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Jonah.

Mrs. Frank Foster, who was called here on account of the serious illness of her father, has returned to her home in Fredericton.

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 2—The following, taken from Winnipeg papers, will interest a large number of Chatham people: "A patriotic dance was held Tuesday evening in the Royal Alexandra Hotel in aid of the Lord Strathcona Horse, K. C., overseas, Christmas parcel fund. A programme of eighteen dances was given by the 61st regimental band. The patronesses for the evening were Mrs. F. Homer-Dickson, Mrs. R. D. Waugh, Mrs. E. R. Chisholm and Mrs. W. A. Ross. The success of the event was largely due to the efforts of Miss Doris McMullin. In appreciation of her work the patronesses presented Miss McMullin with a bouquet of pale mauve chrysanthemums. Mayor Waugh made the presentation. Miss McMullin referred to in the above is a granddaughter of Col. S. U. and Mrs. McCulley, of Chatham, and prior to her departure for the west lived here. She has a host of friends, who will be greatly interested in the above."

Mrs. H. B. McDonald has returned from a short visit to St. John (N. B.), where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Chandler Lobban, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Sackville, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. Wilnot Eddy, of the Royal Bank of Canada, Moncton, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Eddy, over Sunday.

Mr. Newton Tyler, of the Miramichi Lumber Company's staff, is in town for a few days en route to spend his holidays with his parents in New York after having returned to his home in the heavy sleigh before recruiting in St. John.

Capt. Fred G. Burr, paymaster of the 182nd Battalion, is in town this week, and is receiving the congratulatory of his many friends upon receiving his appointment to the rank of captain.

Mr. Amos Dickson, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), was in town last week, the guest of his mother, Mrs. D. Dickson.

Mr. Blaine Murray, of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has resigned his position and qualified in the 182nd North Shore battalion. He is the only son of Robert Murray, K. C. of Chatham.

Mrs. L. P. Wallace and little son, of Moncton, were in town last week, guests of Mrs. Wallace's mother.

Mr. H. C. Roy, of the firm of H. R. Gooddy & Co., Quebec, is in town, the guest of Mr. F. E. Neale.

Lieut. Holmes, of the 182nd, is in town and will commence drilling the recruits of the battalion in the exhibition building today.

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 3—(Special)—Recruiting Officer Murdoch has received orders to accept recruits for the mechanical transport service of the imperial Carson ushered; Miss Doyle attended the door and the Misses Amy McLeod, Pauline Crockett, Treva McCoy and Helen Carson served.

Mrs. George Fawcett, of Campbellton, in the city, the guest of Mrs. D. K. Cool.

Mr. Gerald Lawson spent the week-end in Amherst, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith.

Mrs. R. K. Shives, of Campbellton, is the guest of friends in the city.

Dr. E. C. Borden, of Sackville, also was a guest at the home of his brother, Judge Bowen, during the week.

Mrs. H. V. Ramsay has returned to Campbellton after visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Charles Smith, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Alex. Price, for a few days, has returned to her home in Campbellton.

Mrs. E. B. Hagarty and three children, of New Glasgow, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart. Mrs. Hagarty and children are en route to Winnipeg, where Mr. Hagarty is already located.

Mrs. Josephine Oulton, of Dorchester, is the guest of friends in the city.

Miss Helen Harris is spending a