London, March 12. There was great excitement in the House of Commons last night on the defeat of the Irish University Bill. Among the persons in the gallery were the Prince of Wales, Princess Louise and Prince Christian. The Scotch and Welsh members support the bill. The Catholics were unanimous in opposing it. After the announcement of the result, Mr. Gladstone arose and said "The vote just taken was certainly of a grave character, and as the House never wished to con-tinue its deliberations when the existence of the Government was in doubt, he moved an adjournment until Thursday The motion was carried.

Mr. Gladstone waited on Queen Vic toria at Buckingham Palace at noon to-day, to tender his resignation. It is probable that Mr. Disraeli will be sum-moned to form a new Ministry.

The Globe says Mr. Gladstone's audience with the Queen lasted half an hour. The result is not yet known in London.
