Rev. Father Gray has returned from his long trip through the west and down to San Francisco, and feels very much improved in health as a result of his across-the-continent jaunt.

Mr. Peter Speirs came east from Toronto a few days ago to join his old comrades in their annual deer hunt. He was accompanied this far by Mrs. Speirs, who will spend the week with friends here.

The firemen had a run at noon on Thursday for a fire on the roof of Mrs. S. Wilson's double tenement back of the public school. A spark from the kitchen flue set the roof of the main building on fire. The blaze was extinguished before the firemen reached the ground, although making a prompt response.

Special-Mary Pickford, the famous Canadian actress, in "Mistress Nell," at the Star Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Parker, of Saint Ste. Marie, have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Martha (Mossie) to Mr. Harry A. Workman, of Saint Ste. Marie, the marriage will take place on the 20th of November. As Miss Parker is a niece of Mrs. David Gillies, and a native of Carleton Place, her friends here will doubtless be interested in this item.

The editor's requests for free publicity are becoming more and more numerous each week. This week over twenty such requests were received. If the publisher gives his advertising space away each week it is only a question of time until he will have nothing more to give. Surely if a cause is worth advertising the beneficiaries should be willing to pay the moderate fees asked for the publicity.

By the new C.P.R. time table that went into effect on the 1st November, the afternoon trains to and from the west are discontinued and the night and morning trains to and from Toronto, known as the "Cannon-ball," have been cut off. The change is certainly not to the convenience of the travelling public from Carleton Place, and all commercial travellers and week-end home comers are out of by the new arrangement.

The new regulation to close the bars at 8 p.m. went into effect last night.

Mrs. (Dr.) J. A. McEwen, will receive on Friday afternoon of this week.

Thursday will be Guy Fawkes day, the anniversary of the famous gun-powder plot.

Sale of the Patterson Stock of Millinery offer, Trimmed Hats, 75c to $3.50, worth $3.00 to $7.00.

The annual convention of the Ontario Beekeepers' Association will be held in Toronto Nov. 23rd to 25th.

Sunday, November 14th, has been decided upon as Tuberculosis Sunday throughout Ontario by all the churches.

Mr. Bryson Leggo, accountant of the Bank of Ottawa, here, has been transferred to Haileybury, and will leave for his new post in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Lowe, of Joliette, Que., arrived a few days ago to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. Sutherland and other friends in town and district.

The Women's Institute make their final appeal for Christmas gifts to the friendless boys at the front this week, all such gifts to be sent to the Red Cross rooms before Friday, the 5th instant.

Your COAL ORDER will be appreciated now at Taylor's.

Among the Halloween pranks was the suspension of a dummy from the flagstaff on the high school tower—presumably representing the apostle of German Kultur—a rather wind sight. How the perpetrators reached the tower is not known.

The promoters and workers of the Military Fair at Smiths Falls reported that the net receipts amounted to $1,600. It was decided to divide the money equally between the Red Cross Society, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and the Woman's Patriotic League.

Col. B. K. Barker, of Toronto, who has been commissioned to organize the 93rd Battalion, is a son-in-law of Mrs. Joseph Labron of Carleton Place. The Col. is a South African veteran, and anticipates no difficulty in raising the new regiment. Already sufficient officers have been enrolled, and quite a number of men.
