

Facts About UNDERWEAR

Any doctor will tell you that a good percentage of the colds caught are really the outcome of not having the proper change of underwear.

Changing from heavy to light and again from light into heavy underwear is enough to bring on any cold.

Why take the chance of a doctor bill when we can give you just the proper weight and quality at a very reasonable price. We carry:

Stanfield's Puritan
Penman's Mercury Mills
Watson's York Knit
Springer

Company Takes Out Permit

A building permit has been taken out by the Pollock Mfg. Co., for the addition to the plant. The structure will be a one storey building and the cost $9000. It will be of concrete and brick. This is the first building of extensive additions to the plant in the coming year.

Will Probably Be Represented on Body

Mr. W. H. Brethaupt to-day said that this city is certainly well looked after on the great Waterways Association. Representation on that body from this city is expected.

POTATOES HIGHER

A typographical error in Schell Bros. Ad yesterday made the price of potatoes read $2.50 a bag when it should have read $2.75. That people read the ads closely was demonstrated by the fact that the paper was out but a short time until their telephones were kept in constant use by people ringing up for potatoes, and a couple of clerks were kept busy explaining the mistake. So this item will explain, potatoes are $2.75 a bag, and yesterday's price was given in error.

Of Interest to Poultrymen

Local poultrymen will be interested in learning that C. R. Bollert has the agency for the Dominion Laymore Mash, recommended by Morning Star at a poultry meeting here recently. Mr. Bollert carries this laying mash in stock and poultrymen who wish to try it can obtain all they need at his store at 34 Frederick St., opposite the market—S. Brown & Son's Old stand.

Death of Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heck, Bridgeport, received the sad news from Governor Sisk, of the death of their grandson, Master Clifford Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Beaver. The remains will be brought to his brother, Mr. Daniel Beaver, Heepeler, the funeral to be held Sunday 2 o'clock at house, then to Warner's Church and Cemetery.

Guelph Citizens pay Fines of $200 Each

As the result of recent whisky seizures, at Guelph, police magistrate handed out fines of $400 and costs. In addition the police have a large quantity of whisky on hand. Joe Jerome, an Alton man, charged with the seizure, was seized by the police, it is alleged, and in whose place of business, it is further alleged, a case of whisky was found. He was charged with having liquor in a place other than his private dwelling. He pleaded guilty and was fined $200 and costs. It is probable that another charge of illegally procuring liquor will also be lodged against him.

Stratford Man to Reformatory

"Are you the person who is going around scaring people and looking in windows?" asked Magistrate J. A. Makins of Stratford, of Christopher Boehler when he appeared before his worship yesterday morning on the charge of vagrancy. Chris meekly answered that he didn't know anything about it.

The Magistrate sentenced him to six months in the Ontario Reformatory with an indeterminate term not exceeding two years less one day.

LEARN DRESSMAKING

IN TWO WEEKS

We teach a complete course of lessons on Dress-making. You cannot afford to go to a shop, where you hem, baste, overcast all day, then after serving there 6 months, you will know no more about cutting out a dress than the first day you went there. When in a couple of weeks we can give you a knowledge in cutting, fitting and putting together of waist to most elaborate dress. If you do not want to learn to be a professional dress-maker, then even if its only for your own home-sewing, it will save you 25 cents as the cost is so small. A few days' trial given free. No pay in advance.

Next class begins Dec. 1st. Terms are $14.00 including charts, to be paid when through.

For full information call at our residence on Nov. 29th.
