“(Signed) JAS. BULLER.”
