

L'Assomption, P. Q., by Elizabeth Casaubon, a descendant of a French military officer of that name. B. in the City of Ottawa, 22 Sept., 1833. Ed. at the University of Ottawa; obtained degree of M.D. from College of Physicians and Surgeons, L.C., 1855. M. 1st., Jan., 1856, Rose Delima, dau. of Levi LaRue, Esq., supdt. of Public Works at St. Ours, P. Q., (she d. 1857); 2ndly., Nov., 1862, Louise, dau. of Antoine Fréchette, Esq., of Quebec. Is Presdt. of the Ottawa St. Jean Baptiste Societè. A Liberal and will give the present Administration his cordial support. In favor of "an amnesty for political offences committed in the North West; the protection of the rights of minorities, whether Catholic or Protestant; a fair reciprocity treaty; the construction of the Pacific Railway on Canadian soil, as soon as our means will permit; all projects having in view the opening up of our vast Dominion to emigration; improving water and railway communication; and promoting the consolidation of the natural interests of our country; and will urgently and consistently press on the Govt. the improvement of the navigation of the Ottawa River, with a view to the early adoption of the scheme known as the Ottawa Ship Canal."—St. Patrick's St., Ottawa.