

Society in Quebec," which contained mention of Sir Dominick Daly, Sir Henry Caldwell, the Hon. Mr. Cochrane, brother-in-law of the second Bishop Mountain, Mr. Gethings and other prominent persons of the time. "Society in Quebec fifty years ago," and society in 1854, and several others. Short accounts of Sillery church, St. Matthew's chapel ; pleasant accounts of visits to St. Léon Springs, to St. Augustin, Les Eboulements, Roberval, Lake St. John and other places ; "country post offices, forty or fifty years ago ;" an account of the Sisal fibre industry initiated by Sir Ambrose Shea in the Bahamas ; a thrilling find of fifty-two years ago in a Quebec garret ("A Point of Honor"), and some memorial and other verses, make up the volume. It is dedicated to Mr. J. Macpherson Lemoine, the "cousin and tried friend" of Mrs. Macpherson's late husband, and the author of "Quebec, Past and Present," "Maple Leaves" and many other popular and valuable works. "Old Memories" may be obtained at any of the booksellers. The price is $1.00.
