

the rate of £900 currency per annum; and the Chancellor of Upper Canada shall be the Functionary whose salary shall be payable under the said Act, instead of the Vice-Chancellor mentioned in the said Schedule.

5

IN LOWER CANADA.

The salary of any Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench or of the Superior Court, appointed after the day last aforesaid or to be appointed hereafter, shall not exceed the rate of £900 currency per annum; and the Chief Justices of the said Courts shall be the Functionaries whose salaries shall be payable under the said Act instead of the Chief Justice of Lower Canada and the Chief Justice of Quebec or Montreal therein mentioned:

15

The salary of any Puisné Justice of the said Superior Court appointed after the day last aforesaid, or hereafter to be appointed, shall not exceed the rate of £800 currency per annum; and the six senior Judges of the said Court shall be the Functionaries whose salaries shall be payable under the said Act instead of the three Puisné Judges at Quebec and the three Puisné Judges at Montreal in the said Schedule mentioned.

Salaries of the Attorneys General.

II. And be it enacted, That for and notwithstanding any thing in the said Act or Schedule, the salary of the Attorney General for Upper Canada or of the Attorney General for Lower Canada shall not exceed the rate of £900 currency per annum, for any period after the day of next.

25

Salaries of certain other great officers.

III. And be it enacted, That for and notwithstanding any thing in the said Act or in the Schedule B, thereunto annexed, the salary of the Provincial Secretary, or of the Receiver General, or of the Inspector General, or of the Chairman of the Committees of the Executive Council shall not exceed the rate of £900 currency per annum, for any period after the day of next.

35

Provision as to the granting of pensions.

IV. And be it enacted, That for and notwithstanding any thing in the said Act or Schedules, no pension shall hereafter be granted except to Judges retiring from office, or under the express provisions of some Act of the Provincial Parliament allowing such pension; and that the sum to be hereafter paid for pensions under the said Act or the Schedule B, thereunto annexed, shall never exceed the amount of the pensions now granted under the same, and such pensions shall cease on the death of the grantees respectively: Provided always, That all pensions heretofore granted by the Crown shall continue to be paid during the lives of the grantees respectively.

40

45

Proviso.