Fifth, by the Grace of God, Catholick King of Spain, &c. and their Heirs and Successors, Kingdoms, and Subjects, by a Treaty of Pacification concluded at Utrecht the ^{Secund} ~~Thirteenth~~ Day of the Month of July last past, their Majesties before all things made it their Care, that the mutual Advantage of their Subjects in matters of Trade might be provided for after the best manner; and therefore they most Graciously gave Instructions to their Ambassadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries, (by whose means the Peace had been happily concluded) to draw up into a Solemn Treaty of Commerce, whatsoever, after all things had been thoroughly considered at the Conferences held for that purpose at Madrid, should seem to conduce most to this good End; The said Ambassadors therefore, by virtue of their full Powers, (Copies whereof are inserted word for word at the End of this Instrument) agreed upon Articles of Commerce for the Explanation of former Treaties, and greater Ease and Convenience of Trade, in the Manner and Form following:

I.

THE Treaty of Peace, Commerce, and Alliance, concluded at Madrid between the Crowns of Great Britain and Spain the $\frac{13}{3}$ Day of May, 1667. is Ratified and Confirmed by this Treaty, and for the greater Strengthening and Confirmation of the same, it has been thought proper to insert it word for word in this place, together with the Royal Schedules or Ordinations annexed to it, as follows:
