

THE TORONTO WORLD
TUESDAY MORNING, DEC. 7, 1886.

Announcements This Day and Evening.
Grand Opera House—Kilby's "Aunt Sarah."
Toronto Opera House—F. Baker's "Christ and Lena."

The Ontario Conservators.
So far the contest for the Ontario Assembly has been favorable to the Conservators. They have been able to put their opponents on the defensive for the first time during Mr. Mowat's fourteen years' office. Increased expenditure and mismanagement of the school system are Mr. Mowat's chief points of attack, and he has made a distinct impression on the public mind. Mowat has not yet taken the stump but Mr. Mowat has occupied very many columns of the Globe in proving that he has done no wrong in school matters. He cannot be said to have succeeded to the satisfaction of the party. There is a feeling of uneasiness among large classes of Liberals. For nearly forty years they have been defenders of the rights of Ontario against French and Catholic encroachments. They are seriously disturbed by finding themselves allied with an extreme Ultramontane race and avenge party in Quebec, and resting their hope on a Radical movement in Ontario. The Government on Roman Catholic support.

Dislike and distrust of their ancient enemies will keep the great body of Liberals in the party ranks, but some will not stay with the party if they have not more to stay at home on polling day.

The Conservatives are not entirely at the mercy of the Liberal campaign. Mowat's own admission to the Liberal's advantage of prohibition, while others condemn Mr. Mowat for proposing manhood suffrage and declare that he is a Radical movement in Ontario. The masses of the party, however, are glad to have moral reform to fight for, and animated by burning Protestantism, will go into the contest with nerve and courage.

It is impossible to form the result. The Catholics of Toronto, for example, will all unanimously support Mr. Mowat. Elsewhere there may be more division among them, but Mr. Mowat will undoubtedly receive a much larger vote from them than ever before. It remains to be seen whether he will have a large enough proportion of his old following to turn the scale in Mr. Mowat's favor.

The situation is a favorable one in this respect. The issue between Ontario and Quebec is distinctly before the people. The Catholic Church governs the latter province; the question is whether it is also to control the institutions of Ontario. The Conservatives say that the vote will be cast in favor of the side of Liberty. In the discussion of the next three weeks a sufficient quantity of truth must be evolved to enlighten the people and give the way for a united movement in Ontario against French Catholic domination over the Canadian confederacy.

It is reported on good authority that the Grand Trunk has secured the necessary funds to extend their Midland branch to Sault Ste. Marie, and that the work will be commenced whenever practicable. They will build a bridge at the Sault and connect with a line from the West. There will be a saving of three hundred and fifty miles between St. Paul and Montreal. The route will be the shortest Chicago route. The cost of the new works is estimated at seven millions.

The road from St. John, New Brunswick, northward is to be completed at once to Tenon and Montreal. The route will be the shortest Chicago route. The cost of the new works is estimated at seven millions.

A good many returned Ontario-ers are not mourning because our school system does not afford them all the facilities they need, yet the same man will insist present amount of the winter term as a night school may average to go to a political meeting and commit himself upon the parts of speech. Consistency! My name is Dennis.

Carte Harrison, Mayor of Chicago, is credited with having said recently: "When I am running for office I would accept the devil's vote and thank him for it." We know of no politician in this country who ever received such a vote as the Mayor of Chicago. The more wise than nice New York World accuses its publication of the Lord and Lady Campbell details upon this subject to which it is to be noted that New York Anomalies from their admiration of the British aristocracy. It forgets that such persons are no American, you know.

From the way in which the Hamilton Spectator "lights the devil with fire" it might be inferred that he has been converted. The worst thing that the Gospel Gait has found to say against the Tory candidate in this is that he was once a Reformist. Mr. Raymond ought to feel properly ashamed of himself, but there are thousands besides him who are wearing boiled shoes in their shoes as penance for that same sin. The older men grow the more cautiously they go, and there is a good reason for the fact.

What Dennis the aide would probably have characterized as one of the "crises of literature" has made its appearance in New York in the shape of a monthly magazine entitled the American Millionaire. Its initial article claims and delivers a circulation only among those to whom its title gives appeal. The editor reckons that there are about one thousand millionaires in the United States, which looks like a limited constituency, but of course the constituents are in a position to bring in their omelette in advance. Anyhow it is probably better to publish a millionaire's monthly than a paper's weekly.

When you visit New York City you will be struck by the expression and the carriage and the grand Central Hotel, opposite the Grand Central Hotel.
