Tremendous Success

"SEE HOW THEY RUN", a farce in three acts by Philip King was presented for the first time last Saturday nite. From start to finish, the audience was maintained in a condition of unrestrained laughter and total enjoyment. Director Anne Gordon successfully presented, through the media of a well matched cast, a thoroughly enjoyable performance that was in my opinion, the best presented at U. N. B. The play rollicked through its three acts with a sense of timing and an obvious lack of first nite jitters that thoroughly amazed all that were present.

To pick anyone as the best actor or actress is, in this case, a very hard task. Best actor in my opinion was Phil Stevenson, closely followed by Graham Whitehead. Best actress was Elaine Fowler, who was immediately followed by Mrs. Cattley. The matching of the two lead actors, Phil and Elaine can only be described as top notch, they were meant to act together in this play. Others appearing in the show were Barbara Ramsay as Ida, Gilbert Groome as Lionel Toop, Ronald Cole as the Intruder, Dick Blackstock as Rev. A. Humphrey and Ed Uhlen as Sgt. Towers. The U. N. B. audience will be anxious to see these people again in another production of the Drama Society.

Few people realize the amount of work that is put into a play of any type let alone one of the high caliber that was presented Saturday nite. The refinement of the players to such a high degree and the perfection of the technical process showed that everyone was working together to produce a singular success. Congratulations Anne, you have bettered your mark set last year in "Out of the Frying Pan". It will be difficult for the "better half" to "out do" his wife when Mike Gordon presents his play for the spring season "Inherit the Wind."

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT IN HOLLAND

KLM ROYAL DUTCH AIRLINES has just announced that for 1964 it will continue its highly successful Canadian Student's Summer Employment Scheme. Mr. N. G. Dijkstra, KLM's Sales Manager for Canada stated in an interview last week that he is confident that up to 500 jobs will be available in Holland for Canadian students next summer.

The Airline will cooperate with the Canadian Union of Student's (C.U.S., formerly NFCUS) with regard to the processing of applications from students of colleges and universities throughout the country. Further details on the scheme can be obtained from all KLM offices in Canada and from the local C.U.S. representatives.
