necessity. At the same time I cannot overlook the inconvenience which my absence has occasioned, and would occure if my position were not filled immediately.

With all kind personal regards, and thanking you for the kind and generous treatment which you yourself and the Foundation have at all times accorded me, Believe me,

Yours faithfully,

and having in mind the possibility of even further disappointing delays - I ask you to accept my resignation from the position I have held under you in your department of the Rockefeller Foundation.

I hardly need tell you that I have enjoyed greatly the very happy personal relations of the past two years, and have realized that my opportunity of association with you and your work has been a rare one. On these accounts I regret exceedingly the present
