

necessary to incorporate the recommendations of the Commission;

(b) This process of incorporation has taken place mainly in two articles, that is to say Article I, where the closed season is extended, and Article III, where a new paragraph is added for the purpose of inserting the other recommendations;

(c) Thirdly, in a more specific way, the changes may be indicated as follows:

PREAMBLE:- The same.

ARTICLE I:- The main change is for the purpose of extending the closed season which formerly began on the 16th November, and which will now begin on the 1st November. This is in accordance with one of the recommendations.

Another change, which is relatively of slight importance, relates to the power given to modify the closed season simply with the approval of the United States President and the Governor General of Canada instead of by Special Agreement, as provided by the old convention.

There is also a short paragraph added at the end of Article I for the purpose of giving power to the Commission to conduct fishing operations for investigation purposes during the closed season. It may be seen that at certain places in this article the following words are added to the word "convention": "or by any regulations adopted in pursuance of its provisions". No material change.

ARTICLE II:- The same, with the exception of the following words which are added at a certain place after the word "convention": "or any regulations which may be adopted
