

- Q. Who were you taking to when you 'phoned your Company Orderly Room?
- A. I was talking to Sgt. Ripley at first and he told me to hold the line and I found out yesterday that I was talking to Major Butterworth after that.
- Q. And what did he tell you to do?
- A. I can't say for sure, but he said if I had sickness at home I should remain at home until I had a written statement from the doctor telling me to go back.
- Q. Didn't you tell him that your home was quarantined?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. How long have you been in the Army?
- A. A year on the 8th of May, sir.
- Q. You have had quite a little experience along the lines of having sickness at home since you have been in the Army, haven't you?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Well, aren't you aware of the fact that if you have sickness at home or any difficulty that you must obtain a pass to stay away?
- A. I asked once before and they told me that I should ask them and I thought I was doing the right thing to 'phone them.
- Q. With your knowledge of military affairs, living in the City of Calgary, couldn't you have got on a street car and come up to the camp and explained your trouble to them?
- A. Yes, sir, but I thought it would be just the same to 'phone.
- Q. What was wrong with your wife?
- A. Well, she has got stomach trouble and her chest bothers her quite a lot.
- Q. Is she still nursing the youngest child?
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Who was the doctor you called in to look after your child?
- A. Dr. E.R. Selby.
- Q. How often did he call?
- A. He just called once, sir.
- Q. Well, during your period of absence, what did you do to assist in the welfare of your child?
- A. I went to get the medicine and helped look after her.
