

Lieutenant-Colonel Morrison, and after the Lieut. Colonel had been obliged to retire from the field by a severe wound, by Major Clifford; a detachment of the Royal Scots under Lieutenant Hemp-hill, and after he was killed, by Lieutenant Fra-zer; detachment of the 8th or King's under Captain Campbell; Light Company 41st Regi-ment under Captain Glew; with some detach-ments of Militia under Lieutenant-Col. Harvey. 103rd Regiment. These troops repeatedly, when hard pressed, formed round the columns of the 89th Regiment and invariably repulsed the des-perate efforts made against them. On the right, the steadiness and good countenance of the 1st Battalion of Royal Scots, under Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon, in some very trying moments excited my admiration. The King's Regiment, 1st Bat-talion, under Major Evans, behaved with equal gallantry and firmness, as did the Light Com-pany of Royals, detached under Captain Stewart, the Grenadiers of the 103rd detached under Capt. Browne, and the Flank Companies of the 104th under Captain Leonard. The Glengary Light Infantry under Lieutenant-Colonel Battisbee dis-played most valuable qualities as Light troops. Colonel Scott, Major Smelt, and the officers of the 103rd, deserve credit for their exertions in rallying that Regiment after it had been thrown into momentary disorder. Lieutenant-Colonel
