

View over Miscou Point looking northward from the lighthouse at Birch Point. A very characteristic Miscou view, showing the low cultivated upland in the foreground, the margin of a great barren on the left, the broad beach with lobster factories and boats in the center, and the scattered settlement of Miscou Point in the distance. [Photo by the author, Aug., 1905].