The Married Daughter.

We miss thee, love, when twilight draws Her shadowy veil o'er earth: When all our happy children meet, To blend their tones of mirth. And many a joyous spirit flings, Its music on the air : Ah! then our sweetest, best beloved, Thy voice is wanting there.

And when we speak of thee, a cloud Comes over every brow We think of all thou wert to us And feel so lonely now; The treasured memories of the past, Our hearts still linger o'er. And every day, and ever hour, We miss thee more, and more

The harp that to thy fairy touch Its thrilling music poured, Is silent now, as if the nower Had fled from each full chord And if the night breeze wandering by, Draw forth a faint low tone : Tears tremble in thy mother's eye, Wept for the absent one !

Well-thou, art happy and we too, Must soon be reconciled: Although 'tis very hard to give Away our darling child But he is worthy of thy love. Who daims thee, for his own. And dearest he will cherish thee, When we to rest have gone

Autumn is Departing,

And like the dying swan, is singing its last sweete-t melo lies in our forest bowers. The last leaf is failing, about to join its innumerable companions, as they strew the earth, and deck, with their golden carpeting. sense the sweets of blooming flowers-but spective religions, as follows:alas! bear on their airy wings, to more con- assistions. genial climes, the latest perfume of these Mussulmans, withered and faded.

The glad songs of joyful birds are heard no more-the murmuring hum of the their fast-retreating strains.

parted autumn.

stretched out a helping hand to guide our fifteen years next ensuing. frail barks, o'er many a dangerous quickbe.—echoed by many a sorrowing heart?

dow, and mourns its absence with that intensity of grief which only those deprived of its cheering influence can know.

Suffering sick ones toss on sleepless couches, long for the returning light of the gladdening beams to cheer their weariness. And with anxious eyes and foreboding thoughts, ter, cold and stormy, yet to come?

O! ye who have been blessed by providence with a superabundance of earthly comforts-look not with callous hearts, and unfor the secret hand of Providence prospereth the char table always.

Good luck shall be have in his pursuits, and his heart shall be giad within him!

Dying Thoughts of a Poet. O Death! How great invisible.

Pale monarch of the unending past Who shall thy countless trophies tell, Or when shall be the last!

By thee high thrones to earth are flung-By thee the sword and sceptre rust-By thee the beautiful and young Lie mouldering in the dust.

Into thy cold and faded reign All glorious things of earth depart: The fairest forms are early slain. And quenched the fiery heart.

But in you world thou hast not been, Where joy can fade nor beauty fall. O mightiest of the things unseen, Save ONE that rulest all!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1853.

of the World. (Continued.)

It has occurred in the course of the divine ad- bours to the Turks; and who can say what ministration, that one idolatrous or otherwise sinful nation has been used as an instrument to inflict a deserved punishment on another, and after after be made instruments of Providence in the the accom dishment of its mission, it has been visited in turn with similar punishment for its own crimes. Thus nations, in the prosecution of their own designs, have been employed as mutual scourges to each other; and though individuals, same conclusion, the certainty of the overthrow who rise no higher than to secondary causes, of the Turkish empire; the one fixing the pe may see in these visitations, nothing more than riod of this event as almost immediate, the other the ordinary operation of events, yet the Christhrowing it further into the future. tian philosopher views them as so many signifi- The individual who accepts Bishop Newton's cant illustrations of the principles of God's moral interpretation would be inclined to see something ed, the Offomans were doubtless fulfilling the even now hovering on the borders of the empire purposes of the Supreme Governor, when for of Turkey, ready to espouse the cause of Russia, nearly two hundred and fifty years, from the beginning of the fourteenth to the middle of the sixteenth century, they are all the middle of the relative position of Persia and Russia towards Africa, and Europe with the sword. But since the downfall of Turkey may be accomplished in proof that it refers to the Ottoman empire.— people who have long manifested their regard to the latter period, they have been suffering retri- under another combination of European Powers, bution from other nations, sustaining, beside the life such be in the purpose of God, and yet the that the prophetic declaration concerning "the to do good according to their ability. From the miseries incident on war and the march of con- present threatened danger of Turkey may be drying up of the water," would receive its ac- account I now furnish you will perceive that possessed himself of some of its richest provinces. on this subject in no dogmatical spirit, but give such were the will of the Supreme. in battle, to the issue of which millions of eyes ed in the balance of a sober judgment.

fears of millions are suspended. nerial ever known since the days of Rome .is more than double that of Great Britain and France united, and this not constituted of swamps or solitudes, but of the most renowned and prethe most famous cities of Asia, all the seats of ancient power and greatness-Tyre and Sidon. Antioch and Jerusalem, Damascus and Bagdad. Babylon and Palmyra, together with all the is lands and seaports of that magnificent region. form but one half of the Turkish empire. In Africa it possesses the land of Egypt, itself equivalent to a kingdom. In Europe it pushes its dependencies from the waters of the Archipelago up to the lattitude of Paris, and as a centre of this prodizious dominion possesses a capital so wonderfully endowed with every conceivable advantage of strength and situation that conquerors of all ages have been lost in admiration of it, and Napoleon in the height of his glory spoke of Constantinople as equivalent to all."

It may be satisfactory to our readers, to obtain Thaps more precise information, than has been ately floating through a portion of the press, of the relative numbers of the religious parties in the Ottoman dominions The latest and most her bosom. Whispering breezes no longer reliable authority on this sulject is said to be a tune to metancholy music the waving boughs, work lately published in Paris, by A. Ubicini, -balmy z phyrs waft not to our grateful who gives the numbers, classed under their re

What then is to be the fate of the Ottomat busy bee has ceased—and, as some sad re-Empire? The opinion has generally been en tertained that it is to be utterly subverted. This Winter is fast approaching, blighting all doom is thought to be significantly traced out in things beautiful with his icy hand. Already the drying up of the water of the great river Eu does the earth congeal beneath the nipping phrates, mentioned in the Apocalypse, xvi. 12... frost. Even now we, in our household and more particularly in Daniel xi. 40-45. The shrines, encircle more closely the cheering present position of affairs in the East has led the fire, and sigh as the cold wind sends forth in author of "The Coming Struggle" to assert, on dismal wailings a mournful dirge for the de-When thus autumn fades and passes away accomplishment, that though "we have no date -when all things bright and lovely droop and die, sad memories throng the heartmemories of the early dead, fragile flowers currence," viz., the seizure of Constantinople nipped in the bud, jewels crushed in the cas- and overthrow of Turkey by the Emperor of ket-memories of loved ones seized by "the Russia, yet "considering the number and cha stern reaper death," in the flower of life, to, racter of the events to succeed it, and the short whose treasured images the heart still clings space allowed for their performance, it must of with undying love-memories of aged and necessity be almost immediately," and from the venerable forms who, having buffeted the tenor of the pamphlet, we are left to conclude waves of life's tempest-tossed sea, have yet that these events must take place at least within

We note as singular, that Bishop NEWTON in ture's changing face, and noting autumn's man Emperor, whilst the author of "The Comwaning power, warning me to prepare to ing Struggle" applies it to the Enperor of Rusyield obeisance to a sterner master. And sia. The latter states that the yet unfulfilled the river Euphrates must be fulfilled. If that due cognizance of these matters, thou shalt cause are not such feelings, sad though they may part of the prophecy in Daniel xi. commences at prophecy refer to the Ottoman Empire, we adverse 40; whilst Bishop Newton gives it as his mit at once the force of the objection. But there proper quarter, and shalt cause it to be confirm-The captive in his lonesome cell sees the belief, that the part contained from verse 40 to is on the page of holy writ a declaration and ed in the possession of the aforesaid subjects, and bright sunshine depart from its narrow win- verse 43 has already received its accomplishment, in the success of the Turkish Sultans in wards nations, which should not be lost sight of, thereof be always carried into due execution. their possession of "the glorious land," Judæa. Egypt &c., but that the yet unfulfilled part really commences with verse 44-" But tidings ou of the east and out of the north shall troubido not the desolate sons of poverty mark him: therefore he shall go forth-with great furv to destroy, and utterly to make away many,the sky overcast with clouds, denoting a win- And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palacbetween the seas in the glorious holy mountain ; vet he shall come to his end, and none shall help

The "tidings out of the east and north," which pitying eye on those less favoured, remem-shall trouble the Ottoman emperor, he interpretof Persia and Russia, quoting from Mede as a and Israel from those quarters." He has, how- mercitully averted. ever, this remarkable passage, which, though thy the attention of the student of prophecy and just expressed. the intelligent observer of events at this day :-

"If this application" (of Mede's) "be not admitted, yet it is universally known, that the Persians are seated to the east of the Othman dominions, and the Russians to the north. Persia hath indeed of late years been miserably torn and distracted by intestine divisions; bu when it shall unite again in a settled government under one sovereign, it may become again, as it hath frequently been, a dangerous rival and enemy to the Othman emperor. The power of Russia is growing daily; and it is a curren tradition among the common people in Turkey (the italics are ours) that their empire shall on time or other be destroyed by the Russians. Sir Paul Rycaut, in his account of the Present State of the Greek Church, speaking of the respect and reverence which the Muscovite have for the see of Constantinople, says also that the Greeks, on the other side, have at esteem and affection for the Muscovites, as for Provincial Westeyan designed by God for their avengers and deliverers in ofter ages. Chap. 3. p. 88. Which i it proveth nothing more, yet proveth that the Greek Church interpretent this prophecy much in the same sense as we explain it. However Thoughts on the Present State this may be, the Porte is at all times jealous o the junction of the two powers of Persia and Russia, and exerts all'its policy to prevent it-They are certainly two very formidable neigh udings may or may not come from thence to trouble the Porte? who can say, how unlikely > restoration of the Jews ?" It is to be observed, that however diverse th application of certain parts of Daniel's prophestriking in the fact, that a Persian army of some of was dried up, that the way of the kings of Brunswick Districts, and believing that there be enjoyed. In accordance with these views above express. forty thousand strong, according to report, is sixteenth century, they ravaged parts of Asia, Turkey may occur in years to come, from which Europe. The superficial extent of its territory gle against the encroachments of absolute despotem. For let Russia and her supposed ailies succeed in their designs, England must in that case. sway of the Turkish Government is comprised at the feet of the haughty Autocrat, and the consequence of their not having been hitherto features of the landscape were considerably difand advancement of commerce and religion, and.

trous. There may be, we will not say, there volving consequences so fearful.

Go I, doubtless, has had, and still has, a " conecount of its sins, we may not presume to deide: but that He will do so, even to the dread ilternative, if no other exists, of its entire desruction, we have no doubt.

But in case of reformation? In case its reliion of imposture be abandoned? In case a ts edicts are in agreement, no longer with the

We know we shall be met by the objection at may be necessary to make concerning their af knowledge, evince in future life the green that the prophecy referring to the drying up nouncing a principle of God's government to thou shalt be careful that the high provisions At what instant I shall speak concerning a naion, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to the Imperial signet. Done in the second deo pull down, and to destroy it: it that nation. against whom I have pronounced, turn from heir evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it : if it do evil a my sight, that it obey not my voice then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would penefit them." Jer. xviii, 7-10.

We suggest, therefore, the possibility of Tur-

Let us take the prohecy of Daniel and see ry ago. Let Christianity be once officially republished nearly one hundred years ago, is wo - | what there is therein to militate against the views

" But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him"-applied to the Turkish empire, Dr. A. Clarke's interpretation is,-" The Persians on the east, and the Russians on the worth, will at some time greatly embarrass the Ottoman government." Have they not already lone so? And may they not continue to do so without involving its absolute overthrow?

"Therefore he shall go forth with great fury to lestroy, and utterly to make away many - refering to the wrath of that empire, fanned by religious fanaticism, against its enemies, and to its aggressive attacks on invading foes. This habeen done in numerous instances, and, for aught we can see to the contrary with success, which prophecy cannot refer to the present crisis of affairs, if it be certain that Russia is to prevail.

" And he shall plant the tabernacles of his pa'aces between the seas in the glorious holy mountain:" that is, in Judwa, or the boly land. which has already been done by Turkey, which leclaration being a continuance of the former part of the prophecy, and indicative of prosperity, shows that both refer to the past, and have received accomplishment.

" Yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him." If interpreted of the Ottoman emthe throne. Mahommedanism as a religion of of an infidel empire. imposture shall pass away to be no longer recognized as the religion of the state-Christianity shall be the acknowledged religion by the reigning monarch and the masses of the people.

Take now the prophecy of St. John, in the Apocalypse: " And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water therethe east might be prepared."

This prophecy may refer to the Tarkish empire or it may not. We have never seen any few notices of the Newport station. complishment, were the Mahommedan religion their zeal in the good cause has not abated.

by the hazards of war and superior diplomacy. Struggle" intimates. We propound our opinions for bringing about so auspicious an event, if proposed the holding a tea meeting at Meander this conversion from Mahommedanism to Chris- The tea meeting at Meander was held on Thurs the Rev. Principal of the Institution. are intently turned, and on which the hopes or We cannot believe, with the material aid of tianty, on the part of the Tarkish authorities, England and France, now placed at the disposal shall ever take place?" A foundation for this cality, -Mr. James Sterling's Intervale, beneath The population of European and Asiatic Tur- of Turkey, that Russia with the assistance of hope, we think, exists. We look at the great, the over-arching boughs of some splendid maple key is diverse, in race and in religion, numbering Persia, can succeed in her aggressive designs and, at one time, inconceiveable changes which trees, and near the beautiful meandering stream in all, it is supposed, about thirty-five mil- sgainst Turkey; and even were Austria and have occurred recently in Turkey in respect to of the Meander River. A place more romantilions. The Ottoman empire at this day, we Prussia to unite in the confederacy against Turquote the language of another, "is constituted of key and her Allies, we deem it almost certain these appear glimmerings of hope that aid- ing of the kind could not be found, I will venterritories the most opulent, extensive, and I - that the American Republic would see a suffi. tions the American Asspace would see a sum ture "be dried up," and the pure streams of gos- pleasant and agreeable company than than at our Three quarters of the globe contribute their fair- tional liberty in Europe and Asia, to induce her pel truth be joyfully welcomed by those who tea meeting, could not well be imagined. Perest regions to its dominions. Its possessions in to respond to the call of England, and unite her occupy high places in that nation. Read the fol-sons of different denominations attended; and all clude the richest provinces of Asia, Africa, and naritime forces to uphold the latter in her strug-"Let it known on receipt of this, my noble re- had provided for the occasion.

sway of the Luckish Government is comprised the landscape were considerably dif-half the great basin of the Mediterraneau. All cause of constitutional liberty would become exfinct in the European and Asiatic continents, and in consequence of the Patriarchs and Pri- our first meeting was held, but they were picby consequence, of the best interests of millions able and trustworthy person, chosen by themof our fellow men, and, in a sense, of the world. selves from among their own number, be appoint-We cannot believe, then, that England has ed with the title of "Agent of the Protestants," of stormy weather; if they could have been holdbeen reserved for a fate so inglorious and disasto be attached to the department of the Minister on at the time first announced the results would of Police. It shall be the duty of the agent to have been still more favourable. must be, for that would savour of presumption. It shall be the duty of the members of the We have held two of our Missionary meetings, community, and which is to be kept at the Police the rest we expect to attend during the winter births and deaths. All applications for passports meeting at Oakland was held. The subscriptions long ago, when in the place of prayer, we sought troversy " with Turkey, not only for its sins as a and marriage licenses, and on those special active good, and some of the friends gave an innation, for its many cruelies inflicted for centu- fairs of the community which are to come before ries on persons innocent of every crime save for the Sublime Porte, or any other department, are following evening was interesting and productive, worshipping God according to the dictates of to be made under the official seal of the agent. for the number of persons present, of a good subconscience, which, in cases of the true faith is The present royal and august edict has been es scription list. These meetings were addressed . It was the voice of him whose name thou didst to crime at all, but especially for fostering pecially granted and issued from my Imperial and encouraging the delusions of the imposter chancery for carrying my pleasure into execu-Mahommet; nor has He failed, at least in part, tion. Hence, thou the above indicated Moushir, to vindicate from time to time the principles halt carry the preceding ordinance into scrupuof His moral government, by permitting it to lous execution, conformably with the explanavisited with various disastrous wars, with tions given. As, however, the assessment of Circuit. We trust that the good cause of Mis. through all life's journeying. Treasured in our number and efficiency of the Russian forces in os visited with various disastrous wars, with its concomitant evils, and by cutting off many of taxes and the delivery of passports are subject to sions to the Heathen will ever be regarded aright inmost hearts, its memory shall be kept until for the Principalities are supposed to have been ts inhabitants by fierce diseases, thereby main-specific regulations, thou shalt not permit anytaining his sovereign supremacy over it as a thing to be done in contravention thereto. Thou smounts they may raise be honourable to their bowl broken." part of His earthly dominions. In what other shalt not suffer any tax or haratch to be required piety and benevolence. ways, and by what further means, H3 may be of the Protestants, for marriago licenses or for On Wednesday the 11th of October, we had a rest securely upon the promises—fearlessly to leased to visit on that nation his displeasure, on unto the other communities of the empire, every School scholars at Avondale, which is under the ing flood to find, "among the many mansions in facility and required assistance be afforded to the superintendence of Mr. John Sanders .- our Father's house," a place prepared for us. them in all their affairs, and in all matters con The children proved by their ready answers to May we join with thee in the songs of the re cerning their cemeteries and places of worship the questions put to them, both the attention of deemed, and of "Hallelujah's to God and to the Thou shalt not permit any interference whatever, their instructors, and their own diligence. Many Lamb." on the part of any other community, with their of the scholars are much indebted to Mr. Sanrights or with their religious concerns, nor, in ders, not only as a skilful teacher of an excellent hristian emperor ascends the throne? In case short, with any of their affairs, either secular or day and Sabbath-school, but also for their attainrroneous parts of the Koran, but with the spirit that they may be enabled to exercise the usages of the Sunday School festival was delightful, and In answering these questions we submit the follow-other matters; and thou shalt be careful and at- and other good things prepared for the occasion > year of the Hegira 1264, at Constantinople the weil guarded." In this wondrous change in the spirit of the wards Christianity, we see, at least we think we binger of a further and more thorough change in the future. The a solute repudiation of Manommedanism by some succeeding Emperor and above quoted, have seemed to one living a centumay overshadow all our Circuits. cognized, so that its agents may be free to propagate it, and, unless its power to convince men of its divine origin, and lead them from error to his day occupies the vantage ground over Pope- the power of God, awakening and convertry. The latter is intolerant of Protestantism .- ing souls. Including backsliders restored, not allowed. The circulation of the Scriptures seeking pardoning mercy. made a crime punishable by imprisonment which may result in death. Everywhere Popery tant religion. Happily it is restrained in Pro- Circuit. testant countries, but in popish kingdoms, it interdiets the circulation of the Word of God, and attaches serious renalties to the worship of God, according to the forms and usages of Protestantism. Whilst, therefore, the false dogma of infallibility binds the Church of Rome to perpetual opposition to Protestantism, thereby inviting the udgments of the Almighty, strange to say, Mahommedanism tolerates Christianity, and provides by law for the peace, quiet and security of Protestants, and protects them in their undisurbed exercise of divine worship. If Popery is doomed, because of its innate intolerance o the true religion, Mahomrdanism may be reformpire, the time is not now, for there are some, ad, its delusions supplanted by the pure and ele-England and France, for instance, to help him - vating doctrines of Christianity, because of its interpreted of that empire, as Mahommedan, tolerating spirit, and the transforming power of the prophecy may receive fulfilment in this wise: divine truth. On this fact rests our hope of the its end shall come, none shall interpose to pre- continued existence, as an independent nation. vent a christian sovereign from seating himself on of what is now comprised under the designation

(To be Continued)

[FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.] Newport Circuit.

Mr. Epiron,-1 have been pleased, from time to time, to peruse in your valuable paper, accounts of the temporal and spiritual prosperity of various Circuits in the Nova Scotia and New are many of your readers as much interested interpretation, applying it to that empire, that I need not say to you Mr. Editor, that I reside scholarship in succession, one at a time, und misery without end! rises above mere conjecture. Those who apply in a picturesque and beautiful part of our Provit to Turkey should furnish some satisfactory data ince, and amongst an intelligent, kind, and pious script, that,-Whereas those of my Christian " The tea meeting at Avondale took place on with Turkey in whose cause she has embarked subjects who have embraced the Protestant faith, Monday the 3rd of October, and was attended when soul and body were parting, when the where they are expecting to labor under the and with France with whom she is associated, lie have suffered inconveniencies and difficulties, in by about 300 persons including children. The and the whole of the extensive countries therein mates of their old creeds, which they have abanturesque, and pleasing, though different. The word. comprised be trodden down and crushed beneath doned, not being naturally able to administer village of Avondaic is not a deserted one, but a Earth was fading fast away, but while yet upthe iron foot of tyrannical power. Were the their affairs. Whereas, in necessary accordance rising village, - rising rapidly from the valley to on its borders she won a foretaste of the joys, the scale to be thus in danger of preponderating, we with my Imperial solicitude and benevolence to the hill, from which one of the most beautiful glory of the saints in heaven. believe the United States would stretch out her wards all classes of my subjects, it is contrary to and pleasing landscapes is to be seen that our Resting her weary head upon the Saviour, gigantic arms to prevent the actual occurrence my Imperial pleasure that any class of them Province affords. Many expellent vessels have encircled by his arms of love, with "His rod and of so perilous an issue. As far as human sagaci- should be exposed to trouble. And whereas, by been built in this place by the Messrs. Moshers; His staff to comfort her," she feared no evil, but ty can penetrate, the maintenance of Turkey as reason of their faith, the aforesaid Protestants one had been launched and lay at the wharf at entered with holy triumph "the valley of the in independent Power, we do not say under form a separate community. It is in consequence the time of our tea meeting. We received from Mahommedan sway, seems to be essential to the my Royal pleasure, that measures be taken for the Meander tea meeting £11 17s.; Avondale preservation of Europe in its distinctive govern- the sole purpose of facilitating the administrea meeting £14 8s. 6d.; donations from Kempt mory of the loved of other days swept over her. works." mental territories, as well as to the continuance tration of their affairs, so that they may live in and Kennetcook £6; total, £52 5s. 6d.,—making peace, quiet, and security. Let then a respect- this handsome sum for Mission House improve- ed, whom in girlhood she had counselled—those vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Mr.

creased amount. The meeting at Meander the A gentle voice told us the story of the cross by their chairmen Nicholas Mosher, Esq., M.P.P., so fondly bear. He bath entered into rest, and and Mr. James S erling, and the following Minis- now that thou hast finished the work that was ters, Revds. II. Pope, sehr., Frederick Smallwood, given thee to do, thy crown too is won.

religious, in any manner whatsoever; in order ments in music. The singing of the children at faire, through their agent. After then hast taken fire of Sabbath School instruction.

I remain your's truly, Meander, Newport, Noc. 7, 1853.

[FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.] River Philip Circuit.

Chas he it known unto thee, giving full credence REV. AND DEAR SIR,-I know that it Zion. gladdens your heart to hear of revivals of accessarily followed that great spiritual de- even. perceive, the drying up, in no small degree, of cleasion is the certain result of large outthe waters of the typical Euphrates, and a harcan be no sound argument against revivals.

I preached on Monday evening week at a never-ceasing music rolls. Oh place called Gray's Road,-a deep spirit of awakening apparently resting upon many minds, and at the class met after preaching, truth, from sin to Christ, be altogether a fable, it were several penitents, earnestly seeking the must and will win to itself converts from Mohammedanism, in proportion to the means used for commenced a series of meetings which contineed until fast evening. Nearly every fa-In this matter of tolerance, Mahomedanism at mily in the settlement has been visited by Rome, the head quarters of the papacy, Pro- more than a score of individuals have protestantism is proscribed. Its public worship is fessed to find peace with God, and some

I pray earnestly that this "time of refreshing" may be the dawn of a glorious revival breathes hostility to the Bible and the Protes- day throughout the whole of River Philip

> Yours very respectfully, J. HERBERT STARR. River Philip, Nov. 12th, 1853.

(POR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN ) Sackville Scholarships.

DEAR DOCTOR .- As some parties have ritten requesting to be more fully informed next eighteen months.

cation of a student, in either the Male or the Female Branch of the Institution, during eight of the fifteen years succeeding the payment of the cost of the scholarship. 3. Two or more persons may unite to subscribe for a scholarship, arranging among themselves in whose name it shall stand, and in what succession its benefits shall 4. One student only can have the benefit

5. The full amount for a scholarship being

6. The regular charges for Board and Tuition have been about Twenty-five pounds -not exceeding £30-per annum ; at

Any further information that may be deand Avondale; which proposition was heartily sired will be readily furnished, upon applicapossessed himself of some of its richest provinces. On this subject in no dogmatical spirit, but give such were the win of the solution application to either of the District Agents, or to Your's, &c.

J. MCMURRAY. Halifax. Nov. 15th, 1853.

FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN. Give Them My Dving Love."

From afar o'er the sea, the message came to sorrowing hearts, but ere it reached them, she who thus remembered the absent, had passed the Piscataqua, Capt. Wendell, for Madras. through the valley, and entered amid shining ones, the gates of the new Jerusalem. Meek and lowly in life, pure in beart, she "walked with God," and He whose doctrine upon earth years. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will proceed from she did so beautifully adorn, was with her still, Madras to Calcutta, and thence to Ayra, earthly part must be resigned to earth again, but direction of the Presbyterian Board of the ransomed soul should sour away to immorta- Missions. Mr. Scott is also returning to a lity. Oh' in that hour an angel light was on her work with which he has become familiar. brow-angelic rapture spoke in every whispered. The usual embarkation services were held.

shadow of death." Pausing, as it were between two worlds, a me-

Of those, whom as little children she had blessfar away, she thought of then. Oh! precious legacy, spirit beloved, tears are the some State. His will be the first talling on the words another hand has penned.

Yet not in sadness weep we now for thee, oh! freed and glorified. A chastened sorrow is our own, another memo department. The agent is to register therein all months. On Wednesday the 5th October our ry awakes with this. It is of an autumn evening

> -of the Lamb that was slain-of the Saviour's " duing love."

J. L. Sponagle, and the Superintendent of the "Thy dying love." It will be a holy spell

May it be ours in life's last hour, like thee, to

FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.

The Spirit's Home.

Where does the spirit bruised and crush and precepts of the Gospel of Christ? Is its their faith in security. Thou shalt not suffer rendered the meeting peculiarly attractive. The ed by the merciless hand of a cruel world verthrow as an independent nation inevitable? them to be molested one inta in these or in any scholars were treated with apples, cakes, tarts, seek a resting-place? Wanders it to foreign climes - 'neath the Tropic's burning sway ing considerations, keeping ourselves free from tentive to maintain them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondale. May this intersand, and guard with a tender case our youthful steps. Ah! saddened feelings thrill my inmost soul, as I sit watching na we note as singular, that Bishop Newton in desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and by several ladies of Avondaie. May instantiate them in the desired quiet and them in the desired quiet cean isle, where nature with lavish hand bestows her gifts, and her sons, clad in primeval simplicity, sport themselves in leafy owers perfumed by the exhaled breath of myriads of blooming flowers-or e'en to very satisfactory. Palestine's holy soil, or Jordan's sainted shore, or Horeb's consecrated summit, where, foundered in the channel, off Beachy Head, and in olden time, went forth to Heaven's high all on board except one, numbering nearly 60 throne the gushing melodies of the songs of

Alas! the most favoured lands are deso-God's work; indeed, every believer in lated and ravaged by sin and death-the ST John and Shedlac Railwar - A corres

Let but one immortal spirit triumph over e'er the weary soul find undisturbed repose road is for the more easy transport of materials death. - reach the skies and claim the -but yet there is a home for the spirit, far On the wharf there are now from 800 to 900 tons "crown of glory," as the fruit of every revi- beyond mortal ken, reached by the eye of of iron rail, and about 60 tons or price points, with key's reformation, or conversion to the true faith his embracement of Christianity would not apmatter probable, that "the tidings from the east of Christ, and, by consequence, the possibility of pear to us at this day more improbable, than fervent prayer at the mercy seat, that awakwould the enactment of such an ordinance as ening, convincing, and converting influences hath seen, no imagination hath conceived, as harness for 30 horses, but this is so large and where never-ending pleasure reigns, and clumsy that it is doubtful it it gull be of any use.

> "There is the home my spirit seeks, Above the fadeless stars on high! Where not a note of discord breaks And joy can speak without a tear, And Death a lone-the tyrant-dies

Gems of Thought. Translated from the French, for the Provincial Wesleyan.

LIFE. Life! what shall we name it? It is but a fading tint, a flying form. It is the blue arrived from England, where they have for many upon the grape, the red upon the rose. It years had employment in that capacity under is the vapor gilded by the sunset rays-the reflection of the sky, mirrored in the waters tion there are about 90 men employed in grabbing of the earth-an echo between the two and trenching, and two stone culverts are be worlds-such is human life ! Life: what shall we name thee The end of a prayer

DEATH OF THE PLOWERS.

There is a touching sadness, in the fading mud. The roadway of the Bridge will be 35 feet as to our plan of scholarships in the Sack. of these jewels of the earth! We watch above the surface of the water, and consequently ville Institution, for their satisfaction, as well them unfolding day by day, springing joy- piles of pitch pine, 55 feet in length, will be to as for the information of others, I beg leave ously to meet the sunlight. Summer passes through your columns to reiterate, what has, —autumn's breath has roughly kissed the above water, besides what is beneath; the sp in substance, been given in former commuing treasures, but alas! hidden in the casket, for more than a quarter of a mile 70 feet wide 1. Each scholarship costs the sum of in the cold brown earth the missing jewels at the ground, and 18 leet at the top; 25 feet in I wenty-five pounds New Brunswick curren- are beyond our grasp. The winter winds ev. navable in three instalments during the will sweep over the place, where once they off to nothing landward. On the Dorchester side were—a snowy mantle, will lie lightly upon the approach will not be so heavy. The culverts 2. Each scholarship confers upon its pos- it, emblem of their purity, and mortals, may and guilets (of which there is no small number) sessor the right to claim a discount of twenty sigh for their sweet breath, but can not win per cent from the regular charges for the eduthem back.

They were so fragile, so beautiful children cherished by the sunbeams, bedewed with the tears of pight!

The death of the flowers, like to that of man, is but the commencement of a new others more lovely in the future ! All the actions of man's life, thoughts. in such communications as myself, I send you a of a scholarship at the same time; but any words, and deeds, furnish seed which in eter-

"Never was a man so sincerely regretted. All Paris, all the people are plunged Never was a man so near perfection quering armies, loss of territory, influence, and power. The Ottoman empire has played a distinguished part in changing the political aspects of Eastern Europe, Western Asia, and parts of Mission House at Meander replenished with Africa. In modern times its most natural enemy is the emperor of Russia, who has in various ways, is the emperor of Russia, who has in various ways, in the more intimately he is known the more which rate the annual value of a scholarship the first pounds. They complished next the more intimately he is known the more which rate the annual value of a scholarship the first pounds. They complished next the season to proceed which rate the annual value of a scholarship which rate the annual value of a scholarship the first pounds. They can desirous of having our comfortable to the proprietor of a Mission House at Meander replenished with some articles of furniture, and some improvements from the continuing an independent of the Power among the nations of the earth. Wars or famines or pestilences, typified by the angel prophecies respecting Turkey and Rome is so famines or pestilences, typified by the angel being desirous of having our comfortable the more he is regretted. His when used would be from five to six pounds the more intimately he is known the more of which rate the annual value of a scholarship when used would be from five to six pounds the first the first pounds. About fifty of the passengers (young men) has in the good canse has not abated.

Being desirous of having our comfortable the time for the fullillment of the pounds and passengers (young men) he is beloved, the more intimately he is known the more in the season to prove the fifty of the passengers (young men) he is beloved, the more intimately he is known the more intimately he is known the more in the fifty of the passengers (young men) he is beloved, the more intimately he is known the more i

Religious Items

. . . The Western Christian Advocate of the 2nd inst. says :- " The Southern Advacate of Oct. 21st records accessions to the Church of near one thousand persons. In the South, during the past three months, at least twenty thousand persons have joined the (Methodist Episcopai) Church, South .-This is very gravifying intelligence to the

with their wives, embarked this morning, in Messrs. Tracy and Little are members of the Madura mission, under the care of the American Board, and now return to a field in which they have already spent some Dr. Blagden officiating.- Boston Traveller

. . . The Nevada (California) Journal mentions it as a curious fact that many of the Chinamen in that region are Protestants, who take oath on the Bible in courts o justice, and say they were converted i China by the labors of a missionary, whom they name with much love. They are peacable and industrious, and give practical evidence that "their taith is illustrated by

The Chaplaincy in the Navy, made Stanley, of Georgia, is about to be filled by "I loved them both, give them my dying love." the appointment of the Rev. Mr. Thomas, of appointment of a minister of the Methodist Church South, in the Naval service of the L'nited States

General Intelligence.

News by the R. M. Steamer America-The R. M. Steame? Americal arrived at this port on Friday morning, bringing dates to Oct 29th, from which we glean the following items:-It is probable that actual hostilities between Turkey and Russia have commenced. The eagerness of the Turks to engage with the enamy is such as to be scarcely restrained within the necessary limits of military forder, whilst the

The combined fleets of England and France, entered the Dardanelles on the 19th October. and are at the disposition of Turkey, and will proceed to such active operations as may be deemed necessary.

A small Spanish squadron, to be called the squadron of instruction, is to be formed and to proceed to the Mediterranean and Levant.

It is reported that Queen Christina's return to Spain has been a ain postponed. The States of the Zollverein have come to the resolution to prolong the period of the free i apor-tation of corn and all farinaceous product, from the 1st of next year till the end of Sept. 1854. Namik Pacha goes immediately to Faris and London, as Extraordinary Commissioner, to contract a loan of £4,000,000 sterling for Turkey

African coast. The news from the Cape of Good Hope is not

The "Dalhousie," Captain Butterworth, has

persons, perished. New Brunswick-

Christ rejoices at such intelligence, while the most beautiful of earthly things last but for pondent at Sheduc has been good enough to fur-Christian church is encouraged to make stre- a season; bowers fade; flowers droop and nich us with particulars of the various works Ottoman Emperor and his official advisers to quous effort for the salvation of souls. If it die-Jordan's stream flows sadly on, and going on at that place, from which we condense the following statement. A tram-tund has been built from Scorel a wharf in Shedrac harbour, to the workshops of the con Not in this world of sorrow and grief can tractors, a distance of about half a mile , this tram-In the workshops there are the wheels and bodies for 30 carts, and 100 wheelbarrows, which see being fitted up ; but this is slow work, owing to the scarcity of workmen. In short, the contract tors have abundance of every thing but workmen and labourers, and these they do not expect to get until next spring. Meantime, tier will de all that can be done this winter, with the Frenchmen and others, whom they may engage at She way from the terminus at Cape Brule to the Dorchester road, (between 3 and 4 miles,) has been let out to sub-contractors, several of whom have Mesers. Peto, Betts and Brassey. On this sec-

The bridge over the Scadouc river will be a large and somewhat expensive work; it falls, within the first section from Cape Brule. On sounding the bed of the Scadous (which is broad but shallow.) with searching irons, it was found tirat where there was only 4 feet of water, there was below no less than 18 feet of soft sand and quired. There will be 16 abutments, 35 test perpendicular height at the water side, running will be of stone, as also the face of the abutments About ten teams are now drawing stone from the quarry on the Scadouc, to the several points raised that the teams are kept fully employed.

That portion of the St. John and Shediac rails The flowers perish, but they give to earth's way between the Bend and the Gulf, adcording keeping, seed, from which shall awaken, to the contract, must be opened for truffic before the let day of July next; and aithough the contractors have not been able to procure on the spi number may have the benefit of the same nity shall bring forth joy everlasting, or the time of signing the contract, yet there is every reason to expect this portion of the work will be completed at the time agreed upon-

Emigration .- The ship " Jeannie Johnston Attridge, master, from Tralee, bound to Quebec, with 195 passengers, arrived at St. Andrews last week, and there landed the passengers, the vessel