THE GRAIN GROWERS' GUIDE

ORGANIZATION · EDUCATION · CO-OPERATION

WATCH THE MEMBERS

The action taken by the House of Commons in response to the demands of the organized farmers will largely depend upon the attitude of the Western members. If the Western members continue blindly to follow their leaders, regardless of the interests of the people, then the demands of the farmers will meet with little return. If the Western members stand together they can compel both political parties to change their tactics and for once give the farmers a square deal. Now is the crucial time for the Western members. They have the opportunity of a lifetime and it is to be hoped they will not be found wanting.
