Tells Mother of Son's Condition

Writes Mrs. Gough of Her Son's Speedy Recovery From Wounds Received in Big Drive in Which Newfoundland Regiment Played Such a Splendid Part

Saturday Mrs. Gough, of 14 Clifford Street, this city, received a characteristic, kindly and sympathetic letter from Mrs. Monroe, wife of W. S. Monroe, Esq., of Monroe & Co., St. John's.

The lady tells Mrs. Gough that her son is not seriously injured and in fact when she saw him was looking very well and quite cheerful. She had quite a little chat with him and promised him that she would write a few lines to his dear mother here, telling her of his condition.

Mrs. Monroe tells Mrs. Gough that she was going to the hospital again on the following Sunday (the 23rd) and would again see young Gough. She expresses the hope that her letter would allay any anxiety that Mrs. Gough might feel as to her boy and we may be permitted to state that we know it has; and not alone that but her kindness in this writing to one anxious mother will help hearten other mothers and fathers as well who have sons who braved the enemy's worst and who have proved themselves worthy foemen of Germany's best troops and who have upheld the best traditions of their forbears in the trinity of brave races that inhabit the British Isles.

Terra Nova's Defeat the Irish

Irishmen Were Unable to Score Although They Had a Penalty Kick—Terra Novas Now Lead in Table of Points—A Good Game But Weather Conditions Bad

The much-talked-of game between the Terra Novas and B.I.S. was played last evening before a large gathering of spectators on St. George's Field. The night was none too fine for such a game the ground being wet and the 'pigskin' as heavy as lead.

The Irish now took a look in, and after pressing down field were awarded a penalty kick off Duggan. This was kicked by Burke who put it right to the Terra Nova's goal-keeper's toe and he banded it out of danger. This seemed to have taken the good out of the boys in Green and for the balance of the first half the Terra Novas had the best of the game.

The second half was, if anything, faster than the first, the Irish boys pressing for all they were worth. Burke going out in the half back line. They had the best of the play for some ten minutes when they did most everything, but score. Corner after corner was awarded them, but they were either badly placed or saved by the Terra Nova goal tender who played a magnificent game all through.

The Terra Novas now took charge of matters and Caul just missed nothing up the third goal by overrunning the ball. No scoring was done in the second half and when the whistle sounded the Terra Novas were storming the Irish quarters. Mr. Foster of the Saints was referee and Messrs. Duffy and McGrath line-men.

The players were: Terra Novas—Walsh, goal; J. Kavanagh, J. Hart, backs; W. Duggan, T. Jackman, E. Kavanagh, halves; Evans, L. Kavanagh, R. Jackman, Caul, Simms, forwards.

The following table shows how the teams now stand: T. Novas . . . 5 4 0 1 19 2 9 B.I.S. . . . 3 1 1 9 5 7 Collegians . . . 4 2 2 0 11 10 4 Saints . . . 4 1 3 0 6 11 2 St. Bon's . . . 4 0 4 0 2 20 0

NOTES ON THE GAME

The Terra Novas played a good, hard game and deserved their victory. They are now almost sure of championship honours; but "there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip."

"Friend" Brian was not up to his usual standard. Perhaps that penalty got on his nerves. "Demon Dug" failed to deliver the goods. His "brudder" Bill had his measure in fine style.

"Freddie" got em all right. Two to none. (Who said you wouldn't score?) Some say that had the night been fine the result would have been different. Had it been fine what would their exuberance have been at full time had the score been the same.

Special Meeting Civic Board

Inspectors Claim Oil is Best Means of Solving Dust Problem—More Tarpia is to be Laid—After Four Years Begging Plymouth Road is to be Made Passable

The Municipal Council held a special meeting last night for the discussion of road matters with Mayor Gosling presiding over a full Board.

The first matter taken up was that of the distribution of oil on the streets to nullify the dust nuisance. The inspectors' reports showed that eight square yards of road were covered with one gallon of oil and that oil was the panacea for the dust problem, and was as cheap as water and of great benefit. The inspectors were ordered to do the work with system and report daily as to work done and oil used. They were also told to keep track of the teamsters and to report daily on matters over which they had control.

Water Street West from Job's St., was reported in a bad condition, and without repairs for several years. It was decided to fully repair the road, but before doing so Insp. Rooney will report on the number of houses that are connected with the sewer, as it is the intention of the Council to have all houses that are fit, connected, to prevent digging up the road once it is properly macadamized.

Asst. Engineer Ryan reported that it would cost $1500 to grade and lay sidewalks and gutters in Summers' St., McNeil St., and Willow St. The Secretary informed the meeting that taxes from these localities were about $100.00 a year.

Coun. Brownigg thought it would be unwise expenditure to vote the amount for the benefit of people who did not contribute to the City's upkeep, when more deserving citizens were being neglected.

Coun. Tait held a different opinion and thought the health of the City should be conserved, and draining such streets, as mentioned was a move in the right direction.

Coun. Mullaly also thought that something should be done in the matter, and as a compromise, sidewalks will be laid and gutters put down to cost about $270.00.

Coun. Ayre and Coun. Mullaly drew attention to the condition of the $1500 fence around the parade grounds, which was cordig for the want of a "ck" of paint. Tenderers will be asked.

The Secretary reported an interview with Mr. Clapp, in connection with paying part cost of continuing tarpis pavement along Duckworth St. to Prescott St. The Council had consulted with other property owners in the street, who were willing to contribute $1.25 per lineal yard to the cost. Mr. Clapp, the Secretary stated, would not contribute any amount for the frontage of his vacant land, but would for the frontage of the Law Chambers.

Coun. Tait suggested that if Mr. Clapp refused, he be made put up a respectable fence along the vacant spot, both in Duckworth St. and Water St., which suggestion had the support of Coun. Vinnicombe, who believed all vacant land lots should be fenced. Paving will go on and the Mayor will consult with Mr. Clapp.

Councillor Vinnicombe referred to the rock crusher east of the Customs as being an annoyance to residence of the neighborhood, and particularly to shop keepers. The matter will be attended.

Rawlin's Cross and Monkstown Rd will be prepared for oil sprinkling, as well as King's Bridge. On the suggestion of Councillor Mullaly Monkstown, Freshwater and Plymouth Roads will be repaired.

Mayor Gosling read a letter from His Excellency the Governor, asking that a public meeting be convened for August 4th, the second anniversary of the war, to discuss certain resolutions. This was agreed to.

The use of Carbonvoid means Bright Spark Plugs, Clean Cylinders, no Carbon, less trouble, no back firing. IT PAYS.

OUR THEATRES

THE NICKEL.

Crowded audiences attended the Nickel theatre yesterday, as all were anxious to see "The Strange Case of Mary Page," as well as the brilliant five-act detective story, "The Grey Mask," which was faultlessly staged. The story is a live detective tale and was so excellently and perfectly staged that it was very easily followed. Edwin Arden and Barbara Tennent, who were in the leading roles, played splendidly. The film was admirably staged, and the plot worked out in great style. The hundreds present were delighted with it. The seventh chapter of "The Strange Case of Mary Page" was attractively portrayed. The whole programme will be repeated to-day, and no doubt there will be large attendances again. To-morrow there will be a grand holiday bill.

THE CRESCENT

TO-MORROW'S RACES.

The pony races at Mount Cashel Garden Party to-morrow promise to furnish a splendid attraction.

Last evening some fifteen ponies were practising on the course, and a closely contested series of races is assured. A novel feature this year will be the division into two class of ponies, affording the smaller ones a competition in their own class.

Worst Storm Ever Known

The rain and lightning storm of Thursday last will linger long in the minds of many. Some of the old residents say that nothing so furious and so disturbing ever took place here before.

The storm broke in upon us about 7 p.m., and by 8 o'clock everything was over—except the excitement. But during its hour's duration, there came down rivers of rain. This, with the loud roar of startling thunder and the warm flashes of vivid lightning, sent terror to the hearts of many.

The lightning did some little damage, perhaps the most freakish maneuvers happened at Mr. A. Noseworthy's residence. Here it tore up boards from the floor, splintered a partition in a front room and gave the stove nearby a severe shaking up besides disturbing some mats and knocking violently against a partition. Miss Noseworthy and her brother who were standing near an open door when the storm began its worst. Some fences nearby were also damaged but no severe injury to life or limb is recorded.

A strong breeze was blowing at the time which added to the storm's fury. The wonder of it is that no more damage was done. This may be accounted for by the fact that the storm did not prevail until the busy rush of the day had come near its end; otherwise, the result may have been appalling.—Western Star.

NO GAME TO-NIGHT

There will be no football match to-night. The second game of the second round will be played on Thursday next when the St. Bon's and Saints will be the contesting teams.

Captain John Matthews, the well-known and successful Grand Bank skinner, finds that the BUD-DY BOOT gives him greater satisfaction than any Rubber Boot he has worn in his twenty-one years' experience. It will give you the same satisfaction it has given him.—jy26,16,2w

A cable to Mr. D. M. Baird yesterday says that Private Wells, one of the "News" staff, who was wounded, has been sent to Brookland's Convalescent Home at Weybridge, Pie. A. S. Thomas of Freshwater Road, who had a gun-shot wound in the arm is doing well in the Canadian Hospital at Etaples.

Odd Fellows Hear Story of Gallipoli

Q.M.S. MacLeod Describes the Campaign—Tells of Heroism of Pte. John Fitzgerald Who Wounded Himself Continued to do For Others Till he Was Riddled With Bullets

The regular weekly meeting of Atlantic Lodge, No. 1, I.O.O.F., was held last night, Noble Grand Arthur Long presiding, with a large gathering of members. An excellent feature of the meeting was an address by Q.M.S. Norman MacLeod, who went through the memorable Gallipoli campaign with "Ours" and who was dangerously wounded in action there. Sgt. MacLeod, who has not yet fully recovered from the effects of his wound, was introduced by the Noble Grand who presided, and in a most interesting and very graphic manner gave his experiences the disastrous Gallipoli Campaign. Having gone forward with the first contingent of "Ours" he was at the Suvla Bay landing and took part in all the subsequent operations until the Turks got him. He gave a vivid word picture of the various actions in which the Newfoundlanders figured, recapitulated the horrors of the great food and subsequent frosts when men were drowned or frozen to death and quoted examples of bravery which if known would win for those responsible for them the highest military honours. He was wounded at the time when the brave Pte. John Fitzgerald met his death, and his description of the kindness and heroism of this young soldier affected most of the audience. Not many besides Sgt. MacLeod could speak with such authority on the death of Pte. Fitzgerald, for he was attending the narrator when he was hit. The bullet which struck Sgt. MacLeod hit him in a lateral direction, inflicting an ugly and very dangerous wound and escaping the heart only by an inch or so.

The brave Fitzgerald had been attending other wounded men and seeing Sgt. MacLeod fall ran to his assistance. While dressing the wound of one of Ebsary boys of the South Side, he was hit first, but proceeded calmly and skillfully to dress the wounds and then gave attention to Mr. MacLeod, whom he attended in an excellent way. He was hit again, and as he looked to another man, exclaimed, "Norman boy they've got me!" but still went on with his humane and merciful work though bleeding in several places, and a couple of moments afterwards was literally riddled with bullets and gave up his brave young life for the sake of others. If posthumous honours come to this gallant St. John's boy they will be well deserved.

Sgt. Mac. after being wounded was dangerously ill as he contracted rheumatism, but his good constitution enabled him to pull through. His recital was frequently applauded and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered at the conclusion of the address.
