one great man, John Ruskin, to the fame of another. Ruskin tells of his 0 00 long task, self-assumed, of sifting, classifying and arranging the drawings and water colors of Turner. He "In seventeen boxes in the lower room of the National Gailery I found 0 00 upwards of nineteen thousand pieces 0 00 of paper, drawn on by Turner in one way or another-many on both sides. Some with four, five or six subjects one each side (the pencil point digging 00 spiritedly through from the foregrounds of the front into the tender pieces of sky on the back. Some in 6 00 chalk, which the touch of the finger 0 00 would sweep away. The best book of 0.00 studies for his great shipwrecks contained about a quarter of a pound of chalk, debris, black and white, broken 00 off the crayons with which Turner had drawn furiously on both sides of the leaves; every leaf with peculia: 000 foresight and consideration of the ... 0 15 to 0 00 difficulties to be met by future mounterts containing half of one subject on the front of it and half of another on $0.20 \atop 0.12 \atop 0.00 \atop$ led I should say) into four, being Turner's favorite way of packing for travelling; nearly all rudely flattened out from the bundles in which Turner had finally rolled them up and squeez ed them into the drawers on Queen Anne street.

"About half or rather more, of the entire number consisted of pencil sketches in flat oblong pocket books, dropping to pieces at the back, terring laterally whenever opened, and every 0 00 drawing rubbing itself into the one opposite. These first I paged with my own hand, then unbound, and laid every leaf separately on a clean sheet of perfectly smooth writing paper, so that it might receive no further in jury. Then enclosing the contents and boards of each book (usually ninety-two leaves, more or less, drawn on both sides, with two sketches on the boards at the beginning and end) in a separate sealed packet I returned it to 0 00 its tin box. The loose sketches needbe got off them (from the chalk ones it could not be blown off) then they had to be variously flattened; the torn ones to be laid down, the loveliest guarded so as to prevent all fu-1 40 to 0 00 ture friction and glazed, and cabinets 0 70 to 0 00 constructed for them, which would admit of their free use by the public."
